- New collaboration between New York Times bestselling authors David Levithan and Rachel Cohn
- Previous titles also published by Electric Monkey are The Twelve Days of Dash and Lily (which was also a Zoella Book Club choice), Naomi and Ely's No Kiss List and the cult classic Nick and Norah's Infinite Playlist

Sam and Ilsa Kehlmann have spent most of their high school years throwing dinner parties, and now they've prepared their final blowout, just before graduation. The rules for the twins are simple: they each get to invite three guests, and the other twin doesn't know who's coming until the guests show up at the door. With Sam and Ilsa, the sibling revelry is always tempered with a large dose of sibling rivalry, and tonight is no exception.

One night. One apartment. Eight people. What could possibly go wrong? Oh, we all know the answer is plenty. But plenty also goes right – in rather surprising ways.

Rachel Cohn was born in Maryland but now also lives in New York. Her first novel, Gingerbread, was published in 2002. Since then she has gone on to write many other successful YA and children's books, three of which were in collaboration with David Levithan.

David Levithan is the New York Times bestselling author of many novels including Every Day, Another Day, Two Boys Kissing, The Lover's Dictionary, Nick & Norah's Infinite Playlist (with Rachel Cohn), and Will Grayson, Will Grayson (with John Green). He won the Lambda Literary Award for his debut novel Boy Meets Boy. He works with other people's words as a publisher and editor by day. Among the authors he edits are Garth Nix, Libba Bray and Suzanne Collins. He lives in New Jersey.

The Tiger Who Came to Tea meets The Lion Inside in this uplifting picture book about dealing with big emotions, embracing your wild side and finding your true home.

Gwen Millward grew up in the heart of the Welsh countryside.

She studied illustration at the Edinburgh College of Art where her passion for picture books began.

She now lives in Bristol with her husband, son and some frogs that have made their home in a bucket at the bottom of the garden.
