LITTLE TIGER GROUP 2018

Welcome to the Little Tiger Group catalogue 2018

Our 2018 list features some of our best-loved authors, illustrators and characters, alongside more recent rising stars. Themes such as acceptance, inclusion and hope are very much in evidence in books such as Where Happiness Lives (p8), The Only Way is Badger (p11), and The Garden of Hope (p54). Meanwhile, light relief is provided by no less than two homages to underwear in Octopants (p9) and Itchy, Scratchy, Scratchy Pants (p14)!

2018 marks the centenary of women's suffrage in the UK and Ireland and as such we have produced a number of books which celebrate girls and women. Beautifully illustrated picture book, The Girls (p53), is a celebration of female friendship and all that can be achieved when girls support one another. In non-fiction, Amazing Women (p96) introduces the extraordinary achievements of 101 inspiring women of our time. Emmeline Widge, the gutsy heroine of The Eye of the North (p91), demonstrates that action and adventure is not just for boys. A second installment in the Following Ophelia series, Unveiling Venus (p92), once again views history through a modern, feminist lens.

As a group, our mission is to create a diverse range of high-quality books, with something that will appeal to every reading taste, helping children of all ages develop a passion for books and a life-long love of reading.

Happy: A Children's Book of Mindfulness
Nicola Edwards and Katie Hickey

We breathe deep and expand like the galaxy.
We breathe out many thousands of stars,
And if ever we start to feel panicky,
This reminds us of just who we are.

The perfect soothing read for quiet time, Happy gently encourages young readers to explore their emotions and the beautiful world around them. With stunning illustrations and thought-provoking rhymes on every page, this poetic journey to a place of happiness and calm will inspire and empower your child to enjoy the practice of mindfulness.

Mind Your Manners
Nicola Edwards and Feronia Parker-Thomas

It's okay to enjoy roaring loudly.
We all deserve some time to play.
But all lions should practise those soft growls,
For the quieter times of the day.

Journeys: Tales of Travel and Trailblazers

Jonathan Litton, Leo Hartas, Chris Chalik, Jon Davis and Dave Shephard

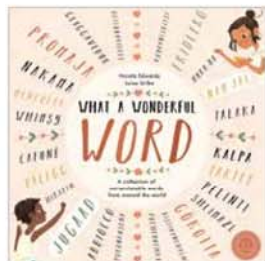

"The world is a book and those who do not travel read only one page." So wrote Saint Augustine almost 1,700 years ago, and his words are as true now as they were then.

Read your way around the world with some of history's greatest storytellers. As well as the usual suspects, explore some lesser-known but equally amazing journeys, including that of Nobu Shirase – who raced Scott and Amundsen to the South Pole – and Henry 'Box' Brown – a slave who posted himself to freedom.

The Eye of the North

When Emmeline's parents mysteriously disappear, she finds herself on a perilous voyage to the frozen north. There, evil mastermind Doctor Siegfried Bauer is plotting to awaken a mythical monster from beneath the ice. And he's not the only one determined to unleash the terrible creature. The dreaded Northwitch has laid claim to the beast too. Can Emmeline – along with an urchin named Thing – stop their fiendish plans and save the world?

TEEN AND YA

Thirteen-year-old Thursday Jones can't stop worrying about everything – from the size of her non-existent breasts to the thought of being killed by her own pants!

Girl Thursday

With Thursday's twin sisters about to be expelled from infant school and her older sister Marlene intent on becoming a tattooed glamour model, life at 47 Hegarty Street is fast descending into chaos. Best friend Millie thinks Thursday's lucky to live in such interesting circumstances but Thursday would rather have a life more ordinary...
