- 'They are the funniest books ... I can't recommend them enough,' Stephen Mangan on Mr Gum.
- The Mr Gum books have sold 3.6M copies in the UK alone, been translated into 32 languages and won the Roald Dahl Funny Prize, the Red House award and two Blue Peter awards. The first book was chosen for Tom Fletcher's Book Club.
- Natboff is packed full of brand new characters, catchphrases and unforgettable comedy moments. Each story is brilliantly crafted to match its historical setting, but the stories link together as well - look out for characters popping up throughout!
- Illustrated by David Tazzyman, reuniting the brilliant Mr Gum partnership
- A variety of formats, such as stories, poems, lists and even a Shakespeare play, make this perfect for budding comedians to read aloud, as well as being very accessible for reluctant readers

Hysterical historical comedy from the author of the award-winning and bestselling Mr Gum. Perfect for 7+ readers and fans of Horrible Histories, Roald Dahl and David Walliams.

Time travel through the funniest and most mad moments in history, from the stone age to a million years in the future, all set in the town of Lamonic Bibber (home of Mr Gum). Meet the town's most famous residents such as Natboff the caveman, Terry Shakespeare, a squirrel, Strange Mildred the witch, mysterious Victorian inventor, Cribbins, who invented mysterious Victorian things, and some ants with giant hands. Learn LOADS of stuff about history along the way*.

*You won't learn anything about history.

Andy Stanton studied English at Oxford but they kicked him out. Before writing very funny books for kids he was a film script reader, a market researcher, an NHS lackey, a part-time sparrow and a grape. He is best known for the hilarious, bestselling and award-winning Mr Gum series and has also written picture books, including Danny McGee Drinks the Sea. Andy lives in North London and likes cartoons, books and music (even jazz).

David Tazzyman studied illustration at Manchester Metropolitan University. As well as illustrating the Mr Gum series, he has illustrated many picture books Eleanor's Eyebrows, You Can't Take an Elephant on the Bus, Michael Rosen's Jelly Boots, Smelly Boots and My Mum's Growing Down by Laura Dockrill. He lives in Leicester with his wife and three sons.

The epic, thrilling conclusion to the Huntress trilogy. A stunning fantasy adventure, perfect for readers aged 9+ and fans of Philip Pullman, Piers Torday, Abi Elphinstone, Katherine Rundell and Frances Hardinge.

Stag's army marches on, and up in the Sky fortress of Hackles, Mouse tries to keep hopeful as allies from different Tribes join forces to fight him. Mouse is forbidden to leave the mountain – but when their leader is kidnapped, she knows she must go in search of the last Opal, even if this means breaking her promise to Da . . . Mouse is soon heading for the lands of the bloodthirsty Fangtooths. And as rumours fly about the return of an ancient evil, Mouse knows that she and her crew will soon face their biggest battle – for their Tribes, for their lives – for their world as they know it. The storm is coming . . .

Sky-soaring, beast-chattering, dream-dancing, draggle-riding, terrodyl-flying, world-saving adventure.

Sarah Driver is a nurse and midwife, and a graduate of the Bath Spa Writing for Young People MA, during which she won the Most Promising Writer prize in 2014. Sarah was born in West Sussex, where she still lives close to the sea with her street-wise ginger cat and her miniature lop-eared bunny.

- Anne Fine's fun school stories have been delighting children for more than 20 years
- 'Screamingly Funny' Herald

A classic funny school story from one of our best-loved authors, former Children's Laureate Anne Fine.

Chester Howard can see Joe's project 'How to Write Neatly' can only be a disaster. Joe makes a terrible mess of his work, jumbling letters and numbers up together. But a project called 'How to Write Really Badly' – now there's something Joe can do better than anyone else! And Chester is about to find there's a lot more to Joe than he expected . . .

Anne Fine is one of the UK's best-loved authors. She was the Children's Laureate from 2001-2003 and has won both the Carnegie Medal and the Whitbread Award twice. She has published over 50 books for children, including favourites such as Bill's New Frock, I van the Terrible and The Angel of Nitshill Road. When she was young, it never occurred to Anne that she might be a writer. But one day, unable to get to the library in a snowstorm, she sat down and started to write a novel. Clearly this was the right job for her, for she has never stopped writing for more than a few weeks since.

- An enchanting story about a little girl who can pause time and make the world a better place
- Louise Greig's soothing voice is perfect for cosying up to share before bedtime
- Beautifully atmospheric artwork from rising star Ashling Lindsay
- Louise and Ashling's debut picture book, The Night Box has been translated into 10 languages

*High above the bustle of the city,
are eyes that watch, and hands that know,
it's time to pause the clock . . .
and for one tiny second between tick and tock, the city stops!*

Liesel notices the things that everyone else is too busy to see.

When she hears a stray whimper and watches a lonely boy on a roundabout, she decides it's time to pause the clock and lend a helping hand. While the city freezes, Liesel quietly carries out little acts of kindness and breathes colour, life and happiness back into the city.

Louise Greig's lyrical storytelling highlights the magic in everyday experiences and is accompanied by Ashling Lindsay's warm, endearing illustrations. A wonderful picture book about the importance of kindness, looking out for others and taking time to appreciate the world around you.

Louise Greig is an award winning poet and a children's picture book author with a unique, lyrical voice. Her childhood was filled with picture books by iconic children's writers such as Margaret Wise Brown, Maurice Sendak, Astrid Lindgren and Tove Jansson. Her debut picture book for Egmont, The Night Box, has been translated into 10 languages and has been nominated for the 2018 Kate Greenaway Medal. Louise lives in Aberdeen and when not writing is a director of a dog rescue and re-homing organisation.

Ashling Lindsay is an illustrator and animation director from Belfast. She was shortlisted for the AOI Illustration Awards two years running (2013 & 2014) and was also shortlisted for the AOI Serco prize for illustration (2015).

Wander through the woods, where wildlife and plants are waiting to be discovered in this immersive and magical paper-cut world.

Helen Musselwhite's intricate and beautifully crafted paper scenes are accompanied by Louise Greig's lyrical voice in this magical walk through the woods. An enchanting story that is also a beautiful work of art and a fantastic gift to treasure and share.

Helen Musselwhite works with paper to create magical works of art. Cutting by hand, she uses coloured and painted paper to build detailed, multi-layered scenes inspired by the natural world. Her clients include brands such as Audi, McDonalds, Cadburys and Nokia, as well as numerous publications. She created the gorgeous 2016 Christmas stamps for Royal Mail. She works from a home studio near Manchester accompanied by her trusty assistant, a dog called Earl.

- 98% UK brand awareness
- New stories written and illustrated by Roger Hargreave's son, Adam
- The latest story in the Adventures series
- Egmont is the number 1 publisher in the character space (Bookscan volume YTD 2017)

Mr Strong has become a superhero with his own secret hideout and gadgets galore, but what every good superhero needs is a sidekick. So Mr Strong asks his friends if they'd like to try out. But he soon realises that choosing a sidekick is hard work. Which Mr Men or Little Miss will have what it takes to make the perfect superhero sidekick?

The Mr Men and Little Miss Adventures take Roger Hargreaves' beloved characters on amazing trips to other worlds and different times where they have all kinds of funny and exciting escapades.

The books are a new larger format, so that you can enjoy their inimitable stories in even greater scale. Bold illustrations and funny stories make Mr Men and Little Miss the perfect story time experience for children aged two and up.

It all started with a tickle. Roger Hargreaves' son Adam asked him what a tickle looked like. In response, Roger drew a small orange man with extraordinarily long arms that could reach anywhere and tickle anyone. The idea that a tickle could be a character in its own right sparked an idea in Roger's mind. He was a successful copywriter but he wondered if he could make a living writing and illustrating children's books so he wrote the first Mr Men titles: Mr Tickle, Mr Greedy, Mr Happy, Mr Nosey, Mr Sneezie and Mr Bump. They were an instant hit and Roger went on to create many more Mr Men and Little Miss characters. Sadly Roger passed away in 1988, but his son Adam took over the series, introducing new characters and exciting new adventures. Roger once said, 'I feel very happy to think that when the Mr Men and Little Misses are 100 years old, their readers will always be five.'
