WELCOME to the Egmont Publishing Stocklist Catalogue 2019

Egmont's company purpose is to make every child a proud reader, because reading for pleasure is more important than wealth or family background when it comes to a child fulfilling their potential. This is good for society and good for the economy. It is also critical for the health of the children's book market, where print sales still dominate but where the competition from other media for the attention of children and the spend of parents grows ever stronger.

This mission underpins our broad and inclusive portfolio of child-friendly picture books, fiction, non-fiction and brands for children of all ages, from the most reluctant readers to the most enthusiastic. We aim to publish books that reflect the passions, experiences and interests of all children in our society. This commitment is supported by Egmont's ground-breaking and influential research into reading for pleasure, which you can read about on our website Egmont.co.uk. Our studies address the barriers to reading and book buying and find the solutions, so that we can collaborate with all partners to grow the children's book market and spread the powerful joy of reading to more families.

I am delighted to share with you the new books that bring to life this mission in 2019. Highlights includes our biggest ever year for Amelia Fang by Laura Ellen Anderson, the hottest gaming brand Roblox and Speak Up! by Laura Coryton, which will inspire teenagers from all backgrounds to use their voice.

Fiction – Turning debut writers into successful authors

We are delighted to welcome acclaimed author Jenny McLachlan to our list with her first middle-grade novel The Land of Roar. Step inside a child's imaginary world of dragons, mermaids and ninja wizards, and race to the spine-tingling climax that will make your heart soar.

We love funny fiction – and so do children. That's why we are excited to be publishing books 4 and 5 in Laura Ellen Anderson's popular Amelia Fang series, supported by a major marketing campaign and international tour. It's also why we cannot wait for Andy Stanton's hilarious new series The Paninis of Pompeii to hit the shelves alongside a bold new look for his bestselling Mr Gum series. And there's more from everyone's favourite Loser in Barry Loser and the Trouble with Pets, the new book in Jim Smith's hit series with UK sales of 400k copies.

Egmont's Fiction list has a long and successful track record of finding and developing new writers that children will love to read. Holly Jackson's A Good Girl's Guide To Murder, a compulsive and funny crime thriller, will have older readers skewered to their seats. This brilliant debut was the talk of YALC 2018 and is already making waves internationally. And children will fall in love with A Pocketful of Stars, the upper middle-grade debut from rising star Aisha Bushby, which draws on rich Kuwaiti culture and has an unexpected magical twist...

Picture Book & Gift – Stories to delight, ideas to inspire young minds

We love stories about books so much that we've got two of them in 2019: The Book Without a Story by Carolina Rabei – Toy Story set in a library! – and The World Book Day Monster by Adam and Charlotte Guillain and Ada Gray, a very special celebration of one of the best days in a year and a reminder of why bookshops are so important. Publishing in time for International Women's Day is Captain Sparklebeard, Tim Knapman and Sam Lloyd's gender-stereo-typing-smashing picture book with an original contemporary twist. And for fans of Rob Biddulph's reimagining of the classic Flat Stanley series, we will be publishing his gorgeous picture book adaptation.

Children and their parents still love print books over digital, and we have two that celebrate the physical pleasure of sharing a book: Sophy Henn's Lifesize Dinosaur features a one-metre long foldout T. Rex jaw, and River Stories, a gift book about the myths and legends surrounding some of the world's most important rivers, has five one-metre long gatefolds, plus exquisite artwork by Ashling Lindsay.

Our Red Shed non-fiction imprint is encouraging young women to Speak Up! with Laura Coryton, an inspiring campaigner, who fought against the 'tampon tax' and won. Laura has written a book to give teenagers the toolkit they need to change the world!

Brands and Licensing – Hot trends, popular brands & classic characters that engage all children

We are proud to be a leading publisher of children's brands and the home of family favourites that so many of us grew up with, like Winnie-the-Pooh, Thomas The Tank Engine and Mr. Men and Little Miss. The newest addition to our list is Hasbro's My Little Pony, which joins the Egmont stable in July 2019 with a range of sparkly new titles for all Pony fans.

Egmont's gaming expertise is second to none. Our specialist editorial and design team creates the must-have books for fans of the biggest games for children. In 2019, we have new titles for the publishing juggernaut Minecraft, which has sold in excess of 20 million copies worldwide, Roblox, which has over 70 million monthly players and has already hit the top ten books for kids in the UK, and we are launching an unofficial publishing programme to ensure we keep our finger on the pulse of the latest trends, starting off with 100% Unofficial Fortnite.

Finally, as all Star Wars fans await the release of Episode IX, we look forward to revealing our sensational new publishing, starting with the much-anticipated release of Where's the Wookiee 3. The first two titles in the series hit the top ten in the UK and have sold over 400k through BookScan. We are aiming just as high in 2019.

I hope you enjoy browsing through our list and taking inspiration from our research. We very much look forward to working with you to bring our list to the widest possible audience.
