Stefano the Squid

Wendy Meddour
Illustrated by Duncan Beedie

It's lights, camera, ACTION under the sea, but Stefano the Squid is having a wobble. All the other creatures seem far more amazing - no wonder the Deep Sea TV team don't notice him.

But when disaster strikes, Stefano steps up! Can one ordinary squid save the day?

Pub Date: 4 April 2019 Price: £11.99
ISBN: 9781788810838

Sales Points

- An underwater adventure about finding the heroic in the ordinary.
- With bold and bright illustrations by Duncan Beedie and hilarious text by Wendy Meddour.

About the Author

Wendy Meddour was brought up in the seaside town of Aberystwyth. She loved the sea, but she loved books even more, so she left the seaside to study. After getting her doctorate, Wendy went to teach English Literature at Oxford University. But now she's got the best of both worlds. She lectures, writes and reads her books at a university near the seaside in Devon.

About the Illustrator

Duncan has been drawing and doodling since childhood, sprawled out on his parent's living room carpet with felt tip in fist. He now sits upright to draw from his studio in Bristol, where he lives with his wife, daughter and demanding springer spaniel.

Music and Malice in Hurricane Town

Alex Bell

Jude Lomax scrapes a living playing the trumpet on the neon streets of Baton Noir. Then she is invited to play at the funeral of the infamous cajou queen, Ivory Monette. Passing through the cemetery gates, Jude finds herself possessed by the murdered queen's spirit. And Ivory won't rest until she's found the person responsible for her death.

If Jude wants to be rid of the vengeful spirit, she must take a journey into the dangerous underbelly of the city, from the swampy depths of the Black Bayou to the velvet opulence of the vampires' jazz clubs. But as Jude untangles Ivory's web of secrets, she is confronted with a few dark truths from her own past...
