Welcome to the Little Tiger Group catalogue 2019

Being named Independent Children’s Publisher of the Year in 2018 gave us plenty of motivation to put together a super list for 2019. Our cover star, Nibbles the book monster, has become a much-loved character over the past few years and in 2019 he returns in a brand-new picture book adventure, Nibbles: The Monster Hunt (p14), and in a fun new board book format, Nibbles: Numbers (p31).

Running with the theme of books about books and storytelling, Shhh! I’m Reading! (p6) and The One-Stop Story Shop (p7) both celebrate the power of imagination. The sea has proved a source of inspiration for many of our creators; Britta Teckentrup adds Sea (p56) to her nature peep-through range, The Tide (p7) is a poignant look at the ebb and flow of dementia from a child’s perspective, while Stefano the Squid provides a light-hearted romp across the sea bed.

We have pledged an ongoing commitment to ensuring that our books are as inclusive as possible and while we hope this focus is obvious throughout the catalogue, there are a few books that bring this very much to the fore. For younger readers, This Love (p52) and Goodnight World (p53) each celebrate difference. Following the success of our award-winning young adult anthology, A Change Is Gonna Come, we invited author and activist Juno Dawson to curate an anthology of words and pictures of LGBTQ+ authors and illustrators. We are bursting with pride to present Proud (p96) in March.

Harris Finds His Feet
Catherine Rayner

Harris was a very small hare with very big feet. "Why do I have such enormous feet, Grandad?" Harris sighed.

So Grandad shows Harris how to hop high into the sky, to climb to the tops of the mountains, and to run very fast. Harris not only learns about the world around him but also the importance of finding his own feet...

Winner of the CLIP Kate Greenaway Medal 2009.

through day and night
the magical, mystical rhythm of life!

Follow the story of music back to the very beginning. Did it start with a stomp or a clap? This playful poem is an ode to the colourful world of music and rhythm.

Jane Goodall

Anita Ganeri

How did Jane Goodall become the world's leading chimpanzee expert?

Having dreamed of studying animals in their natural habitat since she was little, she jumped at the first opportunity to set sail for Africa and observe primates – even though many people were against the idea of a young woman living among wild creatures. Find out what led this animal-loving trailblazer to dedicate her life to primatology and conservation, and discover little-known trivia and fascinating facts about her.
