Unite Me

Tahereh Mafi

Description

Perfect for fans of Tahereh Mafi's New York Times bestselling Shatter Me trilogy, this book collects the first two companion novellas, Fracture Me and Destroy Me, for a thrilling insight into the minds of Juliette's two great loves - Adam and Warner.

Destroy Me

The mind-blowing events between Shatter Me and Unravel Me are told here from Warner's point of view. Even though Juliette shot him in order to escape, Warner can't stop thinking about her - and he'll do anything to get her back. But when the Supreme Commander of The Reestablishment arrives, he has very different plans for Juliette. Plans Warner cannot allow.

Fracture Me

Watch through Adam's eyes as he bridges the gap between Unravel Me and Ignite Me. As the Omega Point rebels prepare to fight the Sector 45 soldiers, Adam is more focused on the safety of Juliette, Kenji, and his brother. The Reestablishment will do anything to crush the resistance . . . including killing everyone Adam cares about.

Perfect for fans of Sarah J. Maas, Victoria Aveyard and Leigh Bardugo.

The Paninis of Pompeii

Andy Stanton

Description

The first in a brand new series from the fevered imagination of the award-winning, bestselling author of MR GUM.

Welcome to the last days of Pompeii as you've NEVER imagined them before! Join fart-trader Caecilius, his wife, Vesuvius, and their ten-year-old son, Filius, in a bizarre world of accidental gladiators, pizza-emitting volcanoes and the legendary Ma-wol-n-f.

You'll meet the household servant, Slavius; thrill at the misadventures of Barkus Wooferinicum and generally have an uproariously hilarious time of it all.

Full of ludicrous characters, surreal escapades and outrageous word play – if you thought Mr Gum was weird, then get a load of the Ancient Pompeiians!

A hilarious new series that will have 7+ readers howling with laughter. Perfect for fans of Roald Dahl, David Walliams, Horrible Histories and, of course, Mr Gum.

Praise for Mr Gum:

'Completely hilarious . . . Kind of the League of Gentlemen for kids' Zoe Ball

'They're the funniest books . . . I can't recommend them enough' Stephen Mangan

Read all Andy Stanton's well brilliant books:

NATBOFF! One Million Years of Stupidity

You're a Bad Man, Mr Gum!

Mr Gum and the Biscuit Billionaire

Mr Gum and the Goblins

Mr Gum and the Power Crystals

Mr Gum and the Dancing Bear

What's for Dinner, Mr Gum?

Mr Gum and the Cherry Tree

Mr Gum and the Secret Hideout

Sales Points

- It's The Simpsons in Ancient Roman times, full of ludicrous characters, surreal escapades and outrageous wordplay, and the loveable and bonkers Panini family feel like iconic characters already
- Knockout package: bold branding, sprayed edges, and hilarious illustrations throughout by Sholto Walker
- Mr Gum has sold over 3.6 million copies in the UK, been translated into 32 languages and has won the Roald Dahl Funny Prize, the Red House Children's Book Award and the Blue Peter Book Award (twice)
- The Mr Gum books are being reissued with a knockout new look in May 2019, and a Mr Gum National Theatre musical production is to launch in summer 2019

Author Biography

Andy Stanton studied English at Oxford but they kicked him out. Before becoming a children's writer he was a film script reader, a market researcher, an NHS lackey, a part-time sparrow and a grape. He is best known for the hilarious, bestselling and award-winning Mr Gum series and has also written picture books, including Danny McGee Drinks the Sea. Andy lives in North London and likes cartoons, books and music (even jazz).

Sam Wu is NOT Afraid of Spiders!

Kevin Tsang, Katie Tsang (Illustrated By Nathan Reed)

Description

The brilliantly funny fourth book in the SAM WU series, starring the bravest scaredy-cat in the world! Perfect for reluctant readers and fans of Tom Fletcher, Pamela Butchart and Humza Arshad's Badman.

Sam Wu is NOT afraid of anything. Well, maybe some things. Like ghosts, sharks . . . the dark's pretty worrying too. And not to mention SPIDERS! But Sam's not going to let anyone know. And so when Tulip, the school tarantula, disappears from her cage, Sam decides it's up to him and his friends to save the school from the eight-legged escapee . . .

Common childhood fears dealt with in a hilarious, sensitive and accessible way.

Also by Katie and Kevin Tsang:
Sam Wu is NOT Afraid of Ghosts
Sam Wu is NOT Afraid of Sharks
Sam Wu is NOT Afraid of the Dark

Sales Points

- Diverse characters and cultural details. One of the very few young fiction series featuring an Asian protagonist
- Common childhood fears dealt with in a gentle, funny and accessible way
- Hilarious and inventive artwork from Nathan Reed throughout makes the package exceptionally child friendly
- Super-promotable authors. Katie, also known as Katherine Webber, has strong connections in the book trade, and is the Carnegie-nominated author of highly acclaimed YA novel Wing Jones and Only Love Can Break Your Heart
- Shortlisted for MadeforMum's 2019 best children's series (UK's number 1 site for parenting product reviews)
- Strong publishing momentum: Sam Wu is NOT Afraid of Ghosts published February 2018, Sam Wu is NOT Afraid of Sharks published July 2018 and Sam Wu is NOT Afraid of the Dark published February 2019
- Publishing in July for the perfect summer holiday read

Author Biography

Katie and Kevin Tsang met in in 2008 while studying at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. Since then they have lived on three different continents and travelled to over 40 countries together. They currently live in London.

Kevin was born in Copenhagen and grew up in Atlanta, Georgia. Some of Sam Wu's experiences are based on Kevin's childhood (he's feeling much more confident now). Katie was born and raised in Southern California. She has previously worked at Booktrust, the UK's largest children's reading charity, and also writes YA fiction as Katherine Webber.

Reviews

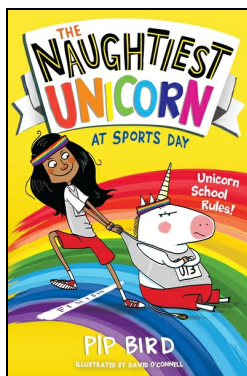

- 'Illustrated fiction is still having something of a boom, but if you're looking for a non-white protagonist it's slim pickings indeed. Happily Sam Wu is about to change all that. A hero of Asian heritage with a diverse set of friends . . . it's enormous fun, madcap and relatable.' - The Bookseller
- 'Intensely likeable and sharply observed comic capers' - Guardian

The Dinosaur Who Lost Her Voice

Julie Ballard (Illustrated By Francesca Gambatesa)

Description

An uplifting new commercial picture book featuring a disabled protagonist.

Dinosaur Milly Jo has a beautiful singing voice, but when a storm rages and brings down a tree, it falls on top of Milly and she loses her lovely voice! But can she find a new way to shine with the help of her friends?

Brought to life with bright, commercial artwork from Francesca Gambatesa which perfectly captures this hopeful and uplifting story.

Sales Points

- Gap in the market for a positive story with a disabled protagonist – over 6% children in the UK have a disability, so a book like this is key to ensure those children see themselves represented positively in books
- Subtly tackles a big topic in a fun way which is accessible for little ones
- A positive message about coping with a change in abilities, particularly in focussing on what you can do, rather than what you can't!
- Studies show singing in a group decreases anxiety – anxiety disorders affect one in eight children, so this book could be used in schools to help encourage children to feel part of a group and gain confidence in their abilities

Author Biography

Julie Ballard was a teacher and then a journalist before dusting off her keyboard to write some stories. She is now a children's book author who loves dreaming up stories. She lives in Southampton with her husband, two sons, and three cats. The Dinosaur Who Lost Her Voice is her debut picture book.

Francesca Gambatesa is a children's book illustrator and animation designer who was born in Beirut. She has lived in Rome, Istanbul and London. She has worked with many publishers including Egmont, HarperCollins, Penguin Random House Young Readers, Usborne and also companies such as the BBC and Greenpeace.

No Longer Alone

Joseph Coelho (Illustrated By Robyn Wilson-Owen)

Description

A new picture book from award-winning performance poet, Joseph Coelho.

This touching picture book subtly deals with big emotions such as loss, with an uplifting and hopeful message about being yourself and the importance of family and talking about worries.

Told through the voice of a little girl who is labelled as quiet and shy, No Longer Alone follows her tumult of emotions as she navigates the world around her. But when she finally shares her feelings and tells her Dad all the things that are worrying her, she no longer feels so alone.

Joseph's warm, authentic voice offers an insightful take on the way children feel and how they perceive the world and it's perfectly complimented by gorgeous artwork from talented new illustrator, Robyn Wilson-Owen.

Sales Points

- Award-winning poet Joseph Coelho's text captures the world viewed from the eyes of the child and deals with a big theme in a way that is accessible and will encourage children to engage in discussions about their emotions
- For such a sensitive subject matter, Robyn's thoughtful and warm artwork creates a safe space to explore a very big topic with little ones
- Authentic voice featuring BAME lead character – only 1% of children's books feature a BAME protagonist
- Although not explicitly a book about bereavement, No Longer Alone tackles the feelings of loss and loneliness that many children struggle with – approximately 40,000 children are bereaved of a parent each year according to the Childhood Bereavement Network

Author Biography

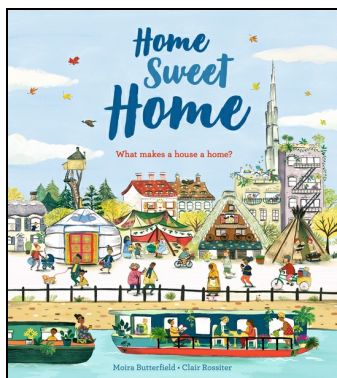

Joseph Coelho is a performance poet, children's author and playwright. His debut poetry collection Werewolf Club Rules won the CLPE CliPPA Poetry Award 2015 and he was included on The Guardian's 2018 list 'Fresh Voices: 50 authors you should read now.'

Robyn Wilson-Owen is an exciting new illustrator, currently doing her MA in Children's Book Illustration at Anglia Ruskin University. She previously worked as a theatre set designer.

Author Biography

It all started with a tickle. Roger Hargreaves' son Adam asked him what a tickle looked like. In response, Roger drew a small orange man with extraordinarily long arms that could reach anywhere and tickle anyone. The idea that a tickle could be a character in its own right sparked an idea in Roger's mind. Roger was a successful copywriter but he wanted to do something that would enable him to work from home and spend more time with his four children. He wondered if he could make a living writing and illustrating children's books so he wrote the first Mr Men titles: Mr Tickle, Mr Greedy, Mr Happy, Mr Nosey, Mr Sneeze and Mr Bump. The books were an instant hit and Roger went on to create many more Mr Men and Little Miss characters. What Roger really wanted was to make children laugh. Mr Silly was his favourite Mr Men story and, according to his family, encapsulates his humour most closely. Sadly Roger passed away in 1988, but his son Adam took over the series, introducing new characters and exciting new adventures. Roger once said, 'I feel very happy to think that when the Mr Men and Little Misses are 100 years old, their readers will always be five.'

Star Wars: So You Want to Be a Jedi?

Adam Gidwitz

Description

So you want to be a Jedi? It seems cool. You can move things with your mind. Control people with your thoughts. Oh, and the lightsabers. Yeah, those are awesome. But it's not all mind control and weaponized flashlights. Being a Jedi is hard work. Also, there are bad guys.

Lots of bad guys. Who want to kill you.

Do you still want to be a Jedi? Well, this book tells the tale of one of the greatest Jedi ever.

It's also a retelling of the classic film The Empire Strikes Back. But it is more than that. It also teaches you how to become a Jedi. Maybe you don't need to learn how to levitate or sense your surroundings blindfolded. And maybe you don't want to hear a story about lightsabers and murderous snow creatures and spaceships. But maybe you do want to hear such a story. And maybe, just maybe, you do want to learn how to be a Jedi. Well, in that case, this is the book for you. The choice, my young friend, is in your hands. Literally.

The conflict between the Rebellion and the Empire continues in this refreshing retelling of The Empire Strikes Back by acclaimed author, Adam Gidwitz. Based on the phenomenally successful 1980 film.

Look out for the other books in the trilogy:

Star Wars: The Princess, the Scoundrel and the Farm Boy – 9781405294706

Star Wars: The Princess, the Scoundrel and the Farm Boy

Alexandra Bracken

Description

This story begins as so many do: A long, long time ago . . . In a place far beyond the glittering stars you see in your night sky. This is the story of three people who cross paths with destiny— who are in the wrong place at the right time. Together, these three will prove there's more to them than meets the eye ... And they just might be the galaxy's only hope for the future.

Princess Leia, Han Solo and Luke Skywalker meet and join forces to defeat the evil that threatens their entire galaxy in this captivating retelling of Star Wars: A New Hope by bestselling author Alexandra Bracken. A New Hope was the first 1977 movie in the Star Wars saga.

Sales Points

- Star Wars is the best-selling LEGO theme in history
- A gripping YA novel based on the original film in the Star Wars saga: A New Hope.
- Over 100 million books printed in over 30 languages

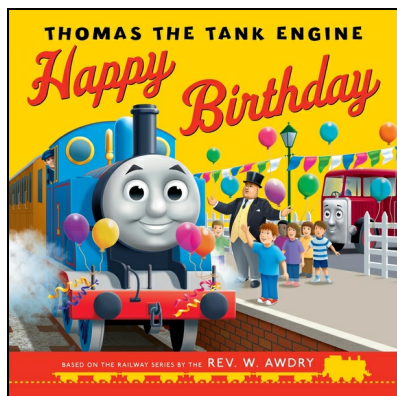

Author Biography

Alexandra Bracken was born and raised in the desert of Arizona, where she spent her childhood waiting for someone to give her a lightsaber and send her to save the galaxy. When that didn't happen, she jetted back east to attend the College of William & Mary, where she studied English and history. She now lives in New York City, the closest she could get to living on Coruscant. Her favourite Star Wars character is Salacious B. Crumb. (Just kidding – it's Princess Leia.)

Author Biography

Reverend Wilbert Awdry was born in Hampshire in 1911. He grew up close to the railway and was convinced that the steam engines all had different personalities. He used to imagine conversations between them. Later when he was grown up and his son Christopher became ill with measles, Wilbert invented the Thomas stories to entertain him. Christopher kept asking for more stories and Wilbert began writing them. The first of the railway series was published in 1945. Awdry wrote 26 Railway books in total before Christopher took over the series.

Author Biography

The Thomas the Tank engines stories were created by the Reverend Wilbert Awdry, who was born in Hampshire in 1911. He grew up close to the railway and was convinced that the steam engines all had different personalities. He used to imagine conversations between them. Later when he was grown up and his son Christopher became ill with measles, Wilbert told stories Thomas the Tank Engine and his friends to entertain him. Christopher asked for more and more stories and Wilbert began writing them down. The first of the Railway Series books was published in 1945, and Awdry wrote 26 Railway books in total before his son, Christopher, took over the series. There have since been multiple, hugely popular, Thomas the Tank Engine TV series and films.

Tintin Moon Bindup

Description

Celebrate the 50th anniversary of the moon landing with this fantastic new Tintin bindup of Destination Moon and Explorers on the Moon.

The world's most famous travelling reporter struggles to keep his feet on the ground as his adventures take him all the way to the moon!

Destination Moon

Tintin discovers that Professor Calculus is building a space rocket. Tintin and Captain Haddock are amazed to find that Professor Calculus is planning a top-secret project from the Sprodj Atomic Research Centre in Syldavia. And before our intrepid hero knows it, the next stop on this adventure is . . . SPACE.

Explorers on the Moon

Following on from the events of Destination Moon, Tintin finds himself in a rocket on a collision course with the moon. And with Snowy the dog, Captain Haddock, Professor Calculus and the Thompson twins aboard, things quickly spiral further and further out of control . . .

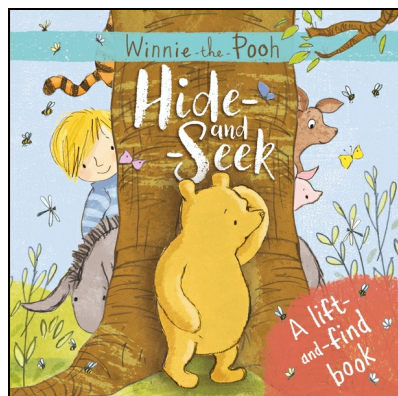

This highly collectible bindup of the original two space adventures will delight Tintin fans old and new. Perfect for lovers of graphic novels, mysteries and space adventures.

Sales Points

- Celebrate the 50th anniversary of the moon landing with everyone's favourite reporter
- More than 230 million copies of Tintin have been sold worldwide
- Perfect gift for the ultimate Tintin collector
- Hergé's classic comic book creation is one of the most iconic characters in children's books

Author Biography

Hergé (Georges Remi) was born in Brussels in 1907. His pseudonym comes from his initials backwards (R.G., as pronounced in French). Over the course of 54 years he completed 23 albums of The Adventures of Tintin series, which is now considered to be one of the greatest, if not the greatest, comics series of all time. With translations published in over 80 languages, more than 230 million copies sold worldwide and a Hollywood movie to its name, Tintin dominates the Comics and Graphic Novels chart even today. Sadly, Hergé died in 1983, leaving his 24th album, Tintin and Alph-Art, unfinished, but his hero continues to be one of the most iconic characters in both adult and children's fiction.

Author Biography

A.A. Milne was born in London in 1882 and became a successful playwright and poet. He based Winnie-the-Pooh, Piglet and friends on the real nursery toys of his son Christopher Robin and published the first of their adventures in 1926. Since then, Pooh has become a world-famous bear, and Milne's stories have been translated into sixty-two languages.
