RESIST

ONE GIRL'S FIGHT BACK AGAINST THE NAZIS

TOM PALMER

"One of the very finest historical storytellers
for children" PHIL EARLE

RESIST by Tom Palmer

With black and white vignettes by Tom Clohosy Cole

Multi-award-winning author Tom Palmer shines a light on life under wartime occupation, in a beautifully told story inspired by the childhood of Hollywood legend Audrey Hepburn.

- Fascinating story holds an instant hook for readers – based on a powerful yet little-known aspect of WWII history, and inspired by the teenage years of one of Hollywood's most beloved and iconic actresses
- Builds on the sensational success of Tom's previous World War stories, including FCBG Children's Book Award winners Armistice Runner and D-Day Dog, and the Carnegie-longlisted After the War, which has sold over 20k copies since publication in 2020
- Stunning cover artwork from Tom Clohosy Cole provides great commercial appeal and links perfectly with Tom's other World War fiction
- Year-long marketing campaign will include large proof mailing, beautifully produced POS material, engaging video content and lead-title social media assets

AUGUST 2022 LEAD TITLE

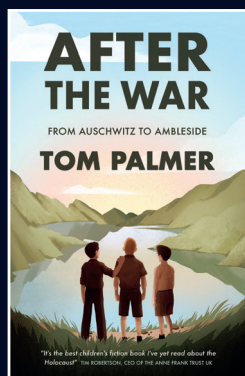

Compelling, insightful and accessible historical fiction from a master storyteller

As the brutal Second World War stretches on with no end in sight, life for ordinary Dutch people in the Nazi-occupied Netherlands is fraught with peril and hardship. There is very little to eat and the population lives under the constant threat of arrest and enslavement.

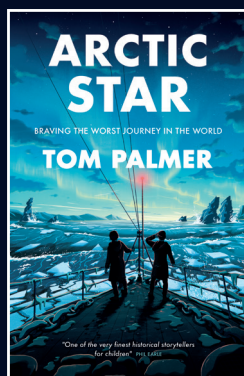

After the murder of her beloved uncle and the capture of her brother by the Germans, Edda is determined to do anything she can to help the resistance fight back against their oppressors. But what can a teenage girl do and how much risk is she willing to take?

Meg and Merlin – Showing Off Tanya Landman

With black and white illustrations by Sònia Albert

RELATED TITLE
9781800900851

A new friend helps Meg to realise that appearances aren't always what they seem in this exciting new addition to Tanya Landman's delightful horse-riding series.

When Meg and Merlin go to the local horse show they enter the Handy Pony class – a fun test of how well horse and rider work together. Meg is looking forward to it until stuck-up Sam Houseman – a girl from school – rides into the ring. Meg's day seems ruined. But then she discovers that people, like ponies, can sometimes be very surprising.

- The second book in the Meg and Merlin series from Carnegie Medal winner Tanya Landman – author of the bestselling Horse Boy
- A charming celebration of riding that will thrill and delight young horse lovers
- Meg is from a working-class background and must navigate the challenges this brings in the wealthy horse-riding world, while grappling with stereotypes of her own – a perspective rarely explored in this genre
- Eye-catching cover artwork and illustrations are provided once again by Sònia Albert, giving the series a consistent, commercial look
- “This book may be short but the impact it has is astounding ... perfect for all young horse-riding fanatics out there” -- NetGalley review of Meg and Merlin – Making Friends

SYNOPSIS

"Wait!" I shouted, "there's someone up there," but when I looked back at the top of the house there was no light, there was no fire and there was definitely no face.

Life hasn't been great for Angela since tragedy took her family away. But Angela is given once last chance when she is invited on holiday with her Aunt Cece and her bratty cousins Kitty and Fliss.

Angela tries to behave herself, but she knows secrets lie in the walls of their crumbling French holiday home. Soon night time foot steps, flickering candlelight and shadows in windows lead Angela to Julien. Who is he? Why is he trapped in the house? And what happened there over a hundred years ago?

Julien needs her help ... Through saving him can Angela save herself?

Fantastic Football

Robin Bennett

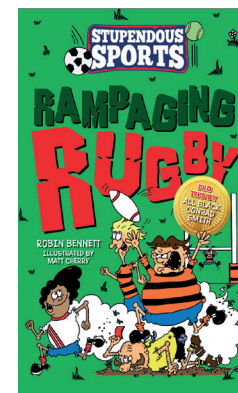

Illustrations by Matt Cherry

- The second instalment in MG series Stupendous Sports, which aims to do for PE what Horrible Histories did for Year 7 History with Mr Thomas.
- Stupendous Sports website (www.stupendoussports.com) promoting the fun side of sport for kids with giveaways, and guest sporting stars

Summary

- Hilarious, but factually correct Fantastic Football is about the spirit of the beautiful game as much as rules. Covering the history of football, the future of the game including the rise in women's football as well as the importance of diversity, Fantastic Football also features a practical section on player positions and skills and tricks.

- When Robin Bennett grew up he thought he wanted to be a cavalry officer until everyone else realised that putting him in charge of a tank was a very bad idea. He then became an assistant gravedigger in London. After that he had a career frantically starting businesses (everything from dog-sitting to cigars, tuition to translation)... until finally settling down to write improbable stories to keep his children from killing each other on long car journeys. Robin plays most sports. Poorly.

Keynote

A poignant story about the wonder of small things and the emotions of sending a child to school

Description

In this heart-warming, poetic story, a father and child share the last few moments of quiet before the school year begins. They take the time to notice each detail as they spend their special day together – from making a special pancake breakfast to noticing each spider's web and falling feather. A moving story for parents to share with their little ones as they take their first steps into school or nursery.

Sales Points

- A lyrical and tenderly-told story from Blake Nuto, the author of Child of Galaxies, which was shortlisted for the Klaus Flugge prize in 2021
- Gorgeously illustrated by Vyara Boyadjieva who was runner-up for Student Illustrator of the Year at the V&A Museum Illustration Awards
- The perfect story to share with a child who is about to start school or nursery
- Parents will recognise the bittersweet feelings that come with the first days of school A timely story about slowing down that will ring true with parents who have spent more time with their little ones during the lockdown

Author Biography

Blake Nuto is an elementary school teacher with a deep love of children's literature and a desire to integrate philosophy and mindfulness into education. His first picture book, A Child of Galaxies, was nominated for the Klaus Flugge Prize 2021. He currently lives and works in Tasmania.

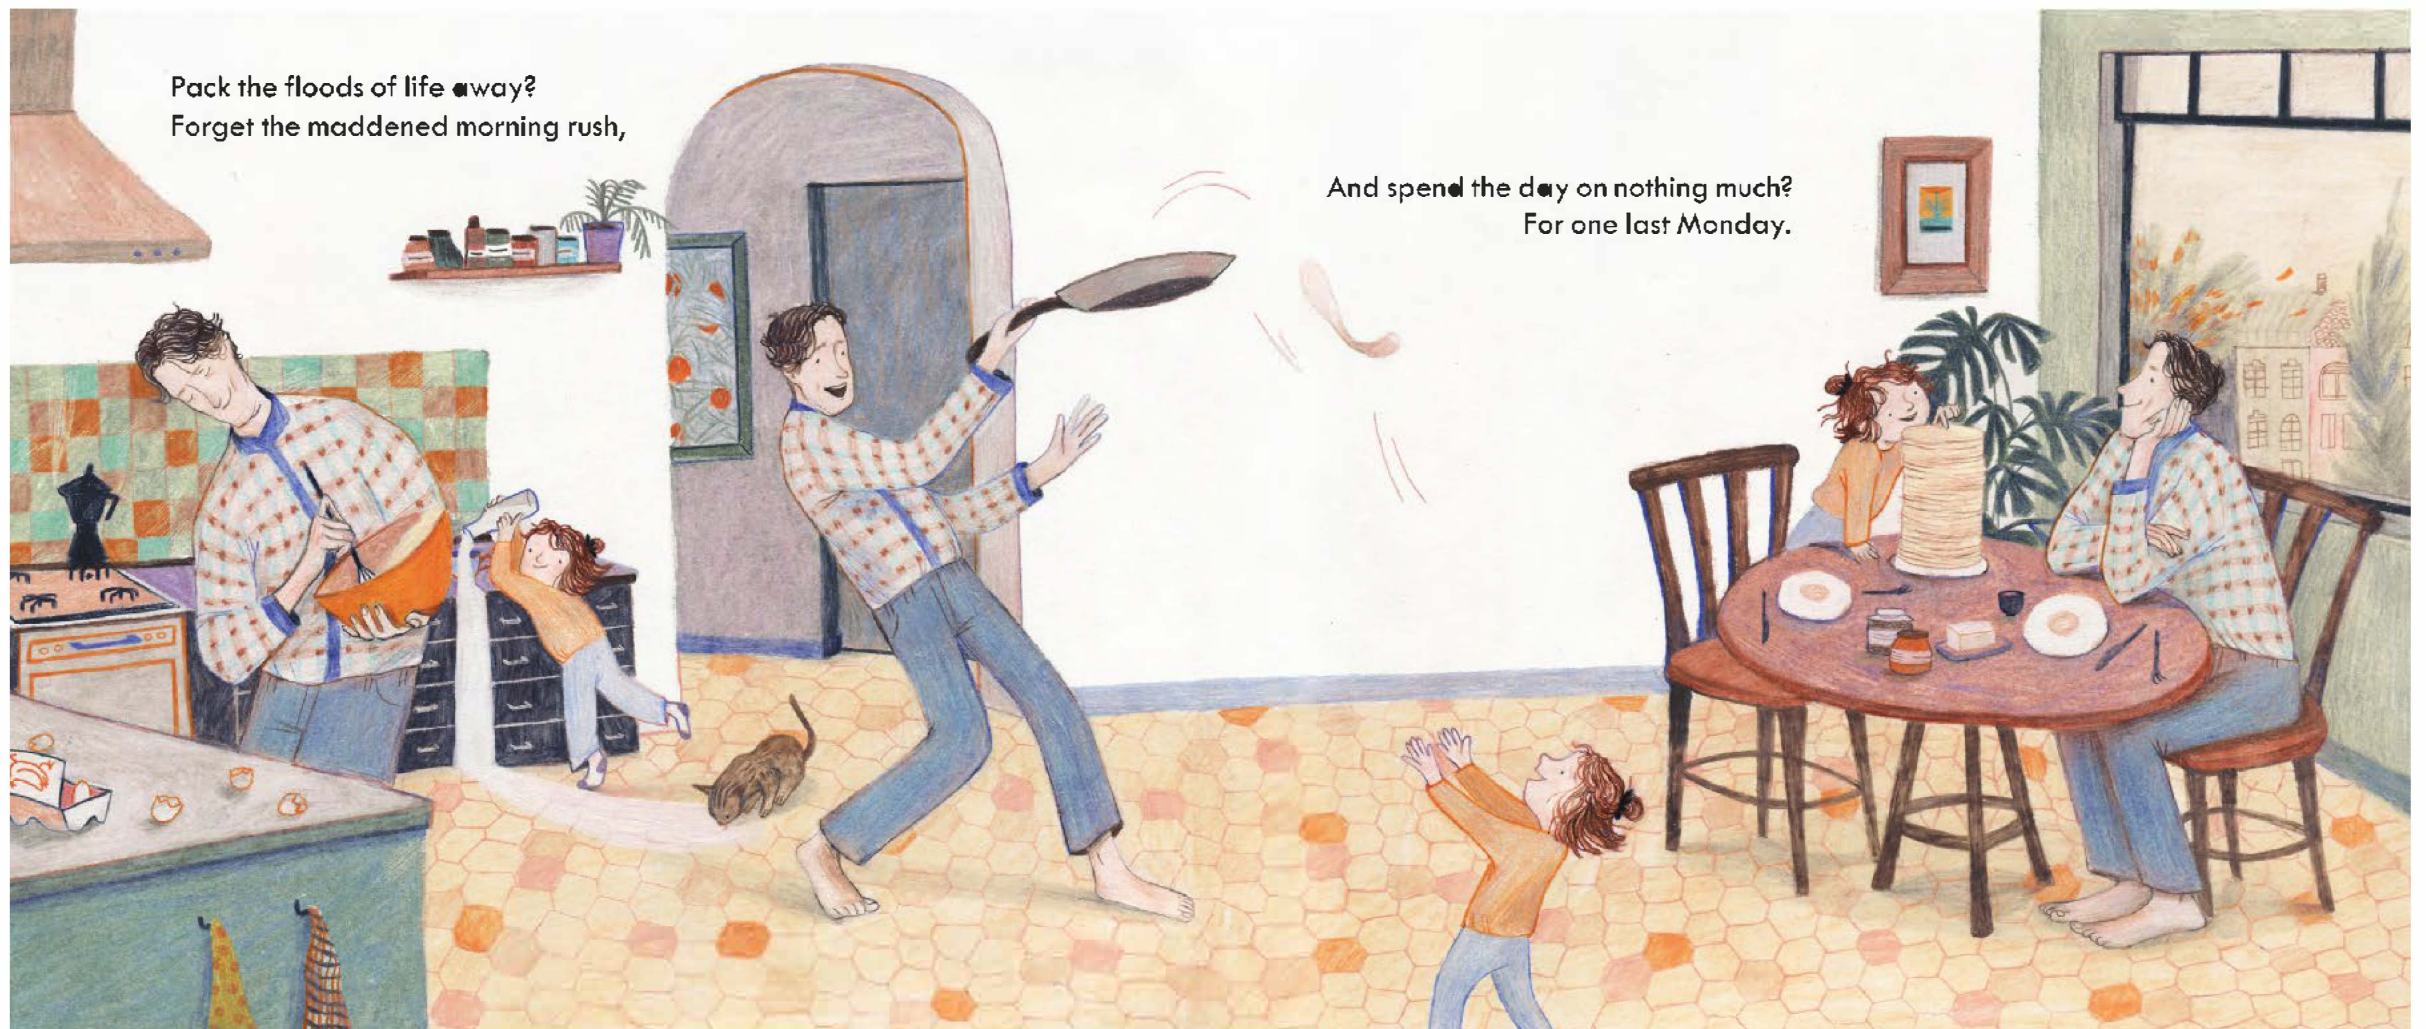

Vyara Boyadjieva is a Bulgarian illustrator, currently based in Sofia. In 2017, she graduated from the Academy of Fine Arts of Bologna with a degree in Illustration and Comics, and in 2020 she completed a Master's in Children's Book Illustration at the Cambridge School of Art. She now has the pleasure of working full-time as a picture book maker.

Passionate About Penguins

Owen Davey

Keynote

Owen Davey's popular non-fiction series continues with a captivating and stunningly illustrated guide to penguins.

Description

Did you know that penguins can hold their breath for over half an hour? Or that they can swim four times faster than an Olympic swimmer? And they don't just live in icy Antarctica! You can find them on sandy beaches in South Africa and other more tropical locations too.

Dive into this fascinating illustrated guide to our feathered friends, the penguins. From the tiny fairy penguin that is no bigger than a ruler, to the emperor penguin that is over a metre tall, find out where they live, what they eat and how we can protect them.

Sales Points

- A beautiful and informative book for animal lovers
- An educational resource for teachers and parents on wildlife. This is the ideal accompaniment to KS1 and KS2 learning

Reviews

- 'Praise for the series: 'An absolute wonder ... with just the right level of information for primary school kids to be truly fascinated and inspired to find out more. Highly recommended.'" - Booktrust
- 'Truly something to chomp on and bound to scale up the interest of budding young zoologists.' - Jill R Bennett, Red Reading Hub

WHAT ARE PENGUINS?

Penguins are a group of flightless birds that split their time between land and sea. Penguins are chubby, with short legs and wings shaped like flippers. They have dark feathers over their backs and pale ones on their bellies. A group of penguins can be called a 'waddle' on land, or a 'raft' in the water. Depending on which biologist you ask, there are between 17-20 species of penguin, and these can be split into six distinct groups.

Crested penguins have red bills, red eyes and memorable, yellow-feathered crests on their heads.

Great penguins are the king penguin and the emperor penguin. They have thin beaks and colourful patches on either side of their head.

Brush-tailed penguins have long tail feathers that sweep the ground as they walk.

Banded penguins are named after the black band on their chest. They also have spots on their bellies and black beaks with a little white mark on them.

The yellow-eyed penguin is the only remaining species in this group. It is named after the distinctive colouring around its eyes.

Little penguins have blue-tinged feathers and their scientific name Eudyptula means 'good little diver'.

Nom Nom

Penguins are carnivores, which means they eat other animals. They hunt in the sea and most commonly prey on fish. They also eat squid, lobsters, crabs, eels, jellyfish, seahorses and tiny shrimp-like creatures called krill.

Home Sweet Home

The 'equator' is an imaginary line dividing the north and south of our planet. Nearly all penguins live below the equator, but Galápagos penguins sometimes venture north of it. Some species live as far south as icy Antarctica but penguins live in lots of other habitats, including rocky areas, beaches and coastal forests. People often imagine penguins and polar bears hanging out together, but they would never meet in the wild. Polar bears only live in the very north of the Earth, known as the 'Arctic Circle'.

OWEN DAVEY'S ANIMAL SERIES

Whether you're bonkers about beetles or mad about monkeys, this captivatingly illustrated non-fiction series will introduce wildlife lovers to everything you need to know about weird and wonderful creatures around the world.

Ella Bailey

Keynote

Join fearless little Georgia in debunking the spookiest of ghoulish and ghostly activities!

Description

One cool day in late October, Georgia noticed something weird. Objects would move around the house and sometimes they even disappeared. Now, some people may have wondered (especially at this time of year), if this was the work of something spooky? But not clever Georgia here! She has all the explanations and not a single fear!

Sales Points

- Release date timed perfectly for Halloween celebrations across the world
- Georgia is a strong, young character that children can learn from
- A playful story that relates well to childhood fear of ghosts
- Debut picture-book by a talented illustrator and storyteller

Reviews

- 'The retro-style illustrations, featuring muted pink, blue and golds, are spot-on. Kids will have a good time being in on the joke and looking for all the hidden (and not so hidden) ghosts.' - School Library Journal
- 'Bailey's illustrations are full of wide-eyed character and expression with plenty of detail in each scene to keep keener eyes occupied.' - Creative Review
- 'Super-cute and friendly ghosts make mischief in this creative ghost story. Watch your little one have fun finding hidden ghosts on each page. Even those easily scared will find these little ghosts charming and delightful!' - This Picture Book Life

Author Biography

Lisette's Lie

Author/Illustrator: Catharina Valckx

A springtime fresh picture book about a good day out with friends—climbing mountains, swimming and singing—and the difference between storytelling and lies.

ABOUT THE BOOK

Lisette and her friend Bobbi the lizard have never told a lie. But they are eager to try—it might be fun! They tell Popof they are going for a trip to the mountains. When Popof decides to come too, they realize they'll have to make the mountain. A liar needs to improvise.

In this funny story about imaginative play with friends, Lisette's creativity and quick thinking make for a wonderful day out. Lisette's Lie gently explores the differences between storytelling and lies and the importance of good intentions.

SALES POINTS

- A funny story about imaginative play with friends
- Droll characters, brimming with personality
- Minimal brushstrokes convey impressive range of mood and action
- Explores lies and storytelling, with a light touch
- Starred reviews from Booklist and School Library Journal for previous book about these characters, Lisette's Green Sock

ABOUT THE AUTHOR & ILLUSTRATOR

Catharina Valckx has written and illustrated over thirty books and been nominated four times for the Astrid Lindgren Memorial Award. Her books are published in over eleven languages and have won numerous awards.

“Hello, Popof!”

“Hey,” says Popof. “What are you up to?”

“We’re going...we’re going...on a trip someplace far away!”
Lisette declares.

“Lucky you,” says Popof. “Where are you going?”

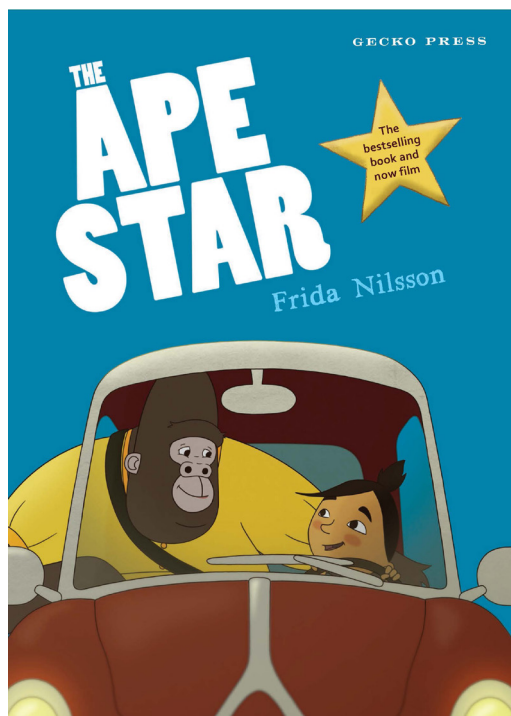

“To the mountains,” says Bobbi, looking at Lisette.

“Great! I’ll come with you.”

“Huh? Well...good,” says Lisette.

“Oh no, what are we going to tell him now?” Bobbi whispers.

“I don’t know...let’s just tell him we’ve arrived.”

The Ape Star

Author: Frida Nilsson Illustrations: Lee Film

In this award-winning chapter book about prejudice and justice, an orphan girl is adopted by a gorilla who owns a junkyard, and a surprising friendship grows between them.

ABOUT THE BOOK

A dirty old Volvo pulls up in front of the orphanage and out steps a gorilla. She's as thick as a barrel with a head like an overgrown pear. Of all the orphanage's fifty-one children, it is Jonna who, to her horror, is chosen by the gorilla. She had been dreaming of a well-dressed mother who smells of perfume, and now she's going to live in a junkyard. Eventually Jonna and the gorilla start to get along, until a man from the council threatens to send Jonna back to the orphanage.

The Ape Star is a heartwarming and unconventional chapter book about, adoption, friendship, prejudice, poverty and seeing from different perspectives.

SALES POINTS

- Combines emotional truth with very funny dialogue and characterization
- Themes of economic hardship and outsiders told with sympathy and humour
- Cover and artwork from the animated adaption starring Stellan Skarsgård (Thor Ragnarok, Mamma Mia) showing worldwide

GLOBE·LearningCircle™

At Globe Publishing it is our philosophy that "playing is learning". With this philosophy in mind we have created a unique way of developing our products. At the core of the process is the GLOBE·LearningCircle™, which keeps the child's progress, curiosity, and complete learning needs in mind. It consists of eight different skills, that all facilitate optimal learning for the child.

Some of our products touch upon all skills and others focus on a single skill.

Touch Feel & Tickle! : Can you tickle a ghost?

978-1-80105-315-0

"Ghost loves to tickle; he jumps out and shouts "Boo!" Can you tickle Ghost, before he tickles you?"

From a ghost and a pumpkin to a vampire and a little black cat, there are four friendly Halloween characters for you to tickle on each page as you follow the felt trails with your finger. Die-cuts in the pages reveal bright felt finger trails to touch, feel, and follow to tickle each character and make them giggle, laugh, and go "Boo!"

The bright and bold illustrations will captivate young readers, who will want to touch, feel, and tickle the picture as they read the funny rhyming words. The felt pages make these books light to hold and perfect for toddlers and children to pick up, read, and play with!

About the author:

Bobbie is a children's book author and editor from London, who writes fun and interactive books for children of all ages. Bobbie loves writing books that explain how things work or books that are packed full of interesting facts.

Key Selling Points:

- Board book with die-cuts showing felt between the card pages.
- Touch and feel felt finger trails to tickle the Halloween characters.
- Card and felt pages make the books super-light for young children to hold.

£7.99*

Format: PB

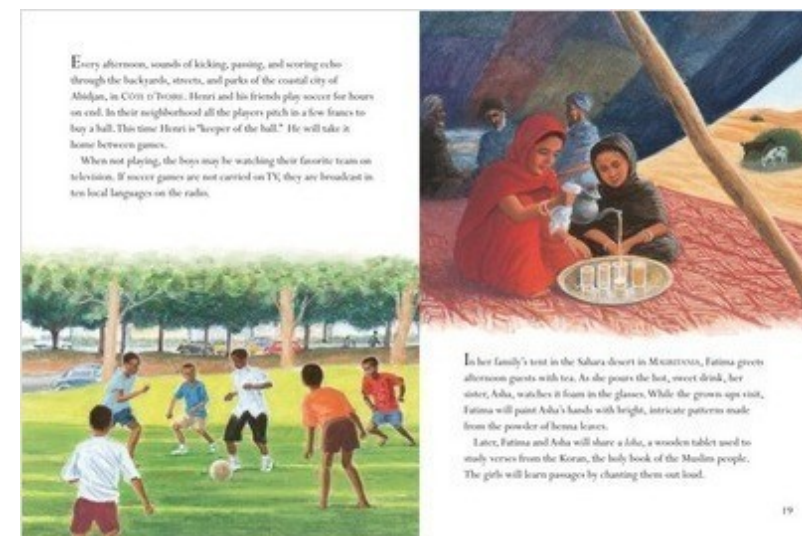

Extent: 40 pages

UK Pub Date: August 2022

From the tiny island nations of Comoros, Seychelles, and São Tomé and Príncipe, to its largest country, Africa is the only continent with land in all four hemispheres. Unlike any other continent, it is divided into two almost equal lengths by the equator, and it is nearly as wide as it is long.

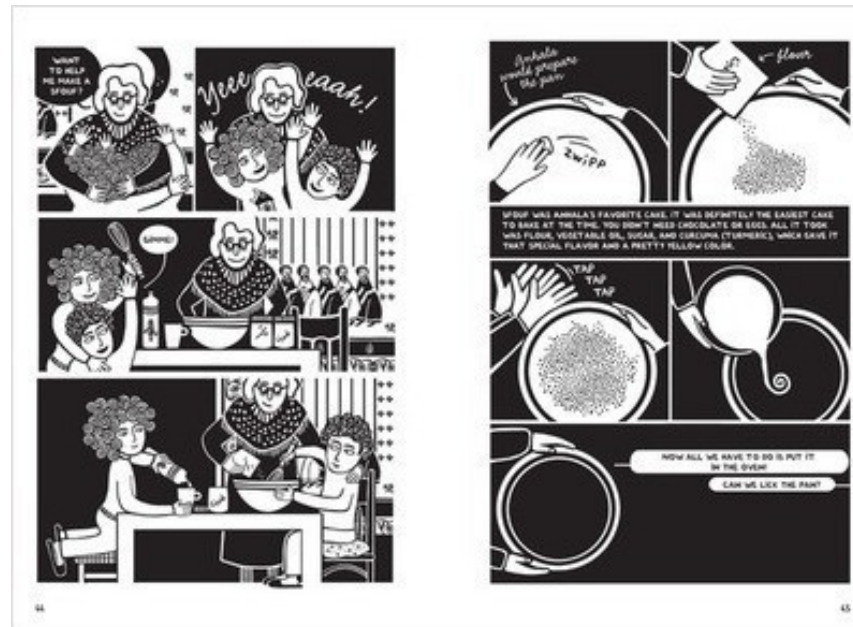

Enter into the daily life of children in the many countries of modern Africa. Countering stereotypes, Africa Is Not a Country celebrates the extraordinary diversity of this vibrant continent as experienced by children at home, at school, at work, and at play.

“The title says it all. Instead of the ‘vanishing tribes’ view of one Africa with tourists from different countries photographing the animals and primitive people, this informative picture book celebrates the diversity of the 53 nations that make up the continent today. . . readers will want to go on from here to explore in depth particular countries that interest them. The essential differences and connections are here.” —Booklist

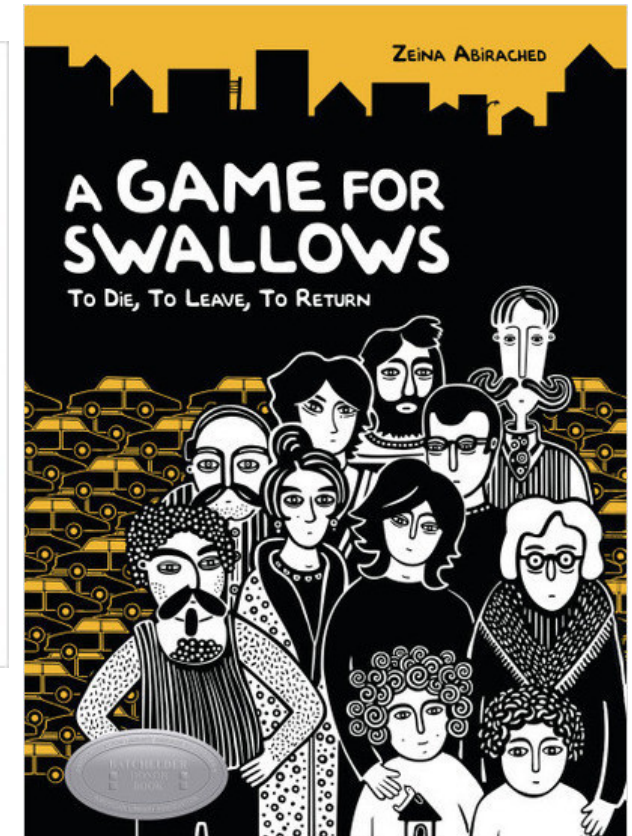

A Game of Swallows

When Zeina was born, the civil war in Lebanon had been going on for six years, so it's just a normal part of life for her and her parents and little brother. The city of Beirut is cut in two, separated by bricks and sandbags and threatened by snipers and shelling. East Beirut is for Christians, and West Beirut is for Muslims.

When Zeina's parents don't return one afternoon from a visit to the other half of the city and the bombing grows ever closer, the neighbors in her apartment house create a world indoors for Zeina and her brother where it's comfy and safe, where they can share cooking lessons and games and gossip. Together they try to make it through a dramatic day in the one place they hoped they would always be safe—home.

The Eternal Return of Clara Hart YA Fiction

by Louise Finch

Russian Doll* meets Promising Young Woman in a sensational YA debut about toxic masculinity and gendered violence

Summary

Spencer hates Anthony's sexist jokes but he never says anything – he's a mate, and Spencer doesn't have many. Then Spencer finds Anthony assaulting a drugged girl at a party. Humiliated, Clara Hart flees the house and is killed by a car on the road.

The next day starts the same way as the last – Spencer wakes up in his car, in his school uniform, all over again. Then his car is clipped, again – by Clara Hart.

So Spencer is condemned to experience the same 24 hours over and over. Caught in a loop, he tries to protect Clara and prevent the terrible events of the party.

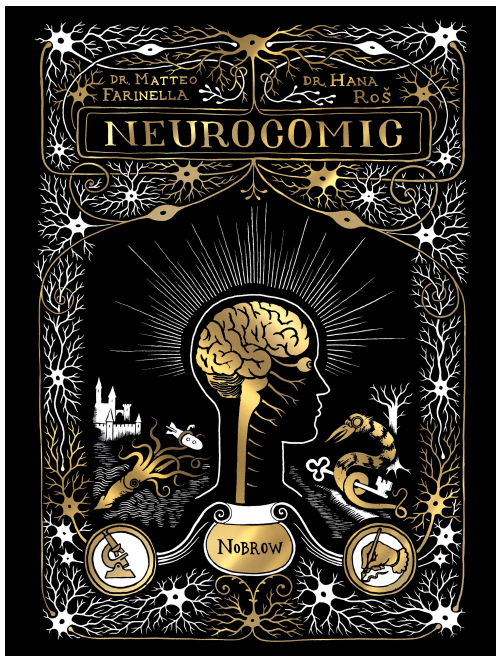

To break the spell Spencer has to join the dots between Anthony's everyday sexism and his assault on Clara. He must find the courage to call out the toxic masculinity of his friend.

Key Sales Points

- Stunning YA debut by young author will be backed by strong marketing and publicity campaigns
- Vital topical themes of toxic masculinity and misogynistic culture will connect with young readers
- Appeal to fans of Louise O'Neill, Deirdre Sullivan, Promising Young Woman, Russian Doll, Black Mirror

Neurocomic

Dr. Matteo Farinella and Dr. Hana Roš

NOBROW

Keynote

A genre-splicing collaboration between a neuroscientist and a comics artist (who also happens to study neuroscience) about the way our brains work.

Description

Welcome to Neurocomic, a visually captivating adventure through the brain. Neurocomic is populated by quirky creatures, bizarre landscapes and famous neuroscientists. Our nameless protagonist evades vindictive colossal squid, negotiates mysterious trap doors, battles Boschean narcotic demons and navigates forests of neurons to take you on a rapturous journey through the most complex organic structure in the universe. Neurocomic makes a baffling, mysterious subject approachable for the layman but it's also a wonderful object in its own right, one that cries out to be picked up and read. Produced in association with the Wellcome Trust, the largest medical charity in the world, Neurocomic is a wonderful introduction to the complexities of the brain.

Sales Points

- Uses comics and illustration to explore complex scientific ideas, making a challenging subject approachable and entertaining for the layman
- Great way to introduce young people to neuroscience
- A must for science teachers and forward thinking university book stores
- Endorsed by the Wellcome Trust (the largest science and health research in the world)

Author Biography

Dr. Hana Roš is a neuroscientist with a Phd from Oxford University, UK.

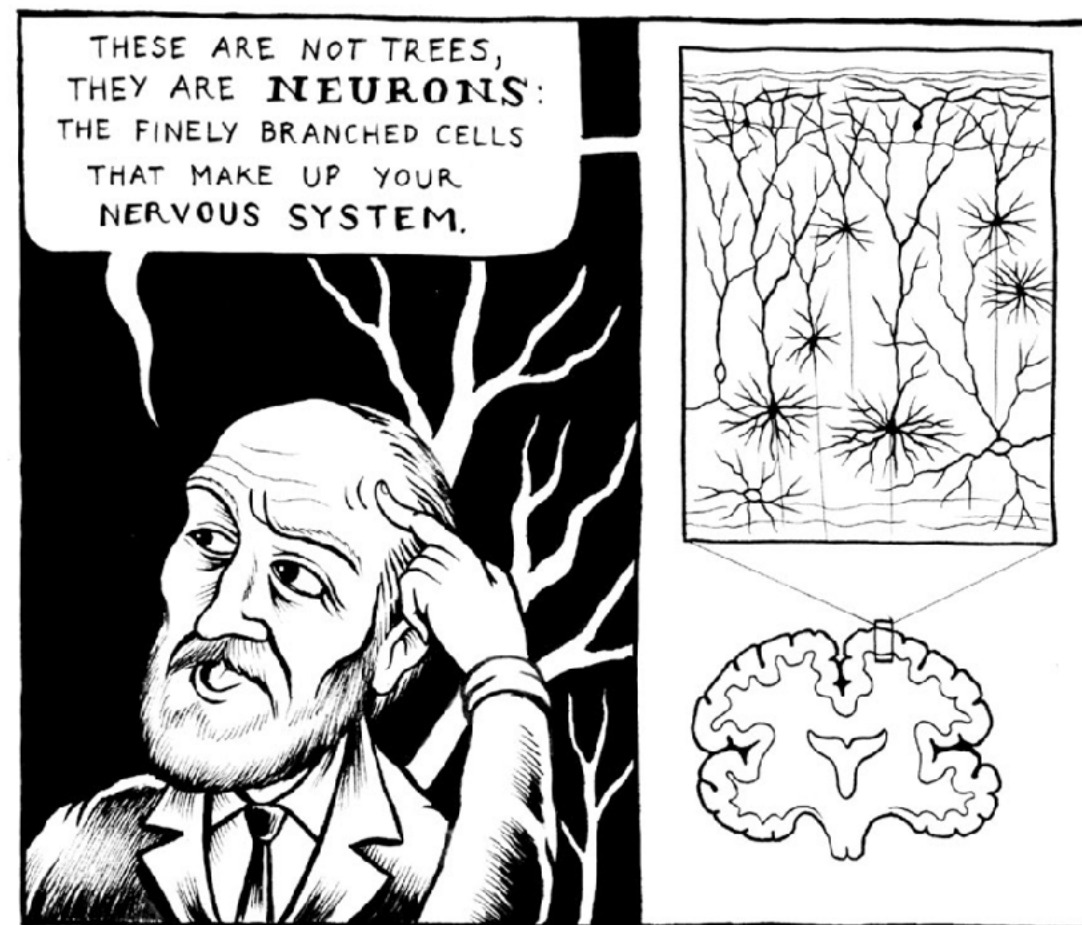

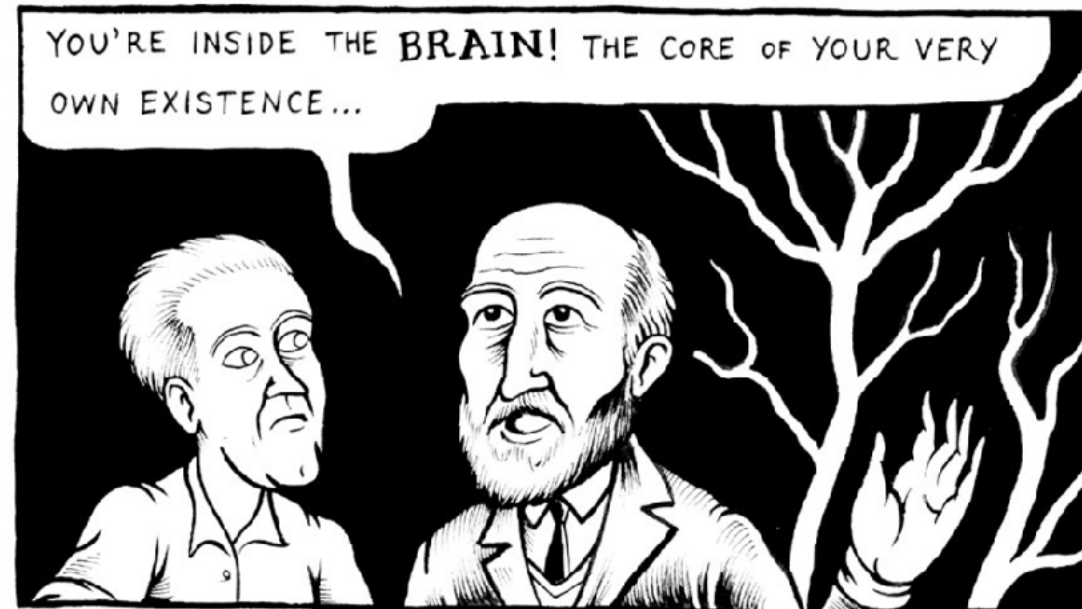

Dr. Matteo Farinella is an illustrator specialising in graphic journalism and scientific illustration. Farinella received a PhD in Neuroscience from University College London in 2013.

Najmoisha Mama

Halyna Kyrpa, illustrated by Hrasya Oliyko

This Ukrainian language children's book is distributed by Otter-Barry Books, Bounce Marketing and Grantham Book Services, to provide literature for Ukrainian refugees in the UK. The book is being distributed by publishers across Europe on the same basis.

Otter-Barry Books publisher Janetta Otter-Barry said "We want to help Ukrainian children arriving in the UK from the war in Ukraine feel comforted and a little more at home. We hope that by providing a book in their own language we will help them to do so."

Robert Snuggs said "Bounce is delighted to support this important initiative by Otter Barry Books, which we know will be welcomed by booksellers who are being asked on a regular basis for children's books in the Ukrainian language."

In this warm-hearted ode to mothers everywhere, one little girl writes down everything she knows about her mother. She tells how she hopes to make her mum a queen at midnight on New Year's Eve, but they both fall asleep before the magic can work. Her mother is good, gentle, fair and patient. She is kind to stray cats and gentle with dolls. She has a beautiful smile and she knows something very special - that there's a baby in her tummy, a baby brother who will join the family very soon. In fact this mother is the BEST MUMMY IN THE WORLD!

Author Information

Halyna Kyrpa is a Ukrainian writer who was included in the IBBY Honor List 2018, holder of the Order of the North Star for her outstanding contribution to strengthening Ukrainian-Swedish ties and fruitful work in the field of translation of Swedish children's literature. Her books have been translated into dozens of languages, and she translates from Belarusian, Danish, German, Norwegian and Swedish.

Hrasya Oliyko studied Fine Arts and Book Graphics at the Institute of Publishing and Printing at NTUU KPI in Kyiv, Ukraine. She illustrates books for children and works with The Old Lion Publishing House, Ababahalamaha Publishing House, Crocus publishing, Flying Eye Books, Ranok and other publishing houses. She is the author of The story, told by Zhuka (The Old Lion Publishing House) a picture book about two stray dogs. Grasya loves animals and has two dogs and two cats, who used to be homeless.

Don't!

Marie-Louise Fitzpatrick

This beautiful, funny picture book perfectly captures the feelings of a child with a new baby in the family.

Once there was Daddy and Mummy and me.

Then there was Daddy and Mummy and me and...

BOO!

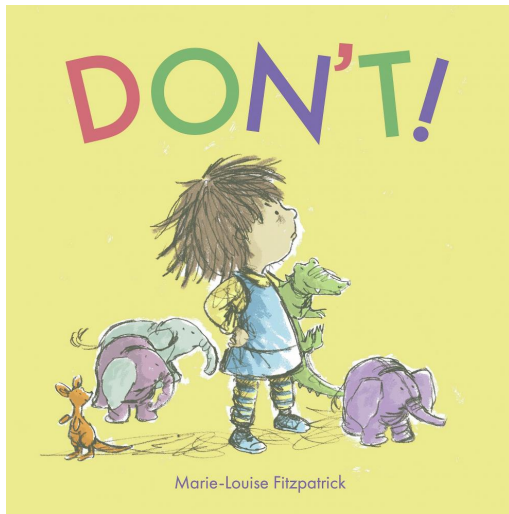

Boo can roar, kick and bite. But so can Geraldine. And she's not going to be left out! She roars very loudly, kicks Mummy and bites Daddy. things are looking bad and only Geraldine's toys seem to understand her. But when Geraldine cries, Baby Boo cries too and suddenly everything changes. "Don't cry, Baby Boo," says Geraldine. "Don't cry."

Now there is Mummy and Daddy and Geraldine and Boo, a happy family who all love each other.

- A witty and sensitive story about sibling rivalry
- Words and pictures are full of empathy and warmth
- By a renowned and prize-winning author/illustrator, shortlisted for the CILIP Carnegie Medal in 2021
- Shows the importance of play in helping a young child resolve issues
- Perfect read-aloud picture book for 2+

Author Information

Marie-Louise Fitzpatrick is one of Ireland's leading children's writer-illustrators, highly acclaimed internationally. Her awards include Bisto Irish Language Book of the Decade, a US Junior Library Guild Fall Selection and a CILIP Kate Greenaway nomination for Owl Bat Bat Owl. Her picture books explore the personal journeys of early childhood and the small but life-changing events of that time in a child's life. Marie-Louise lives in Dublin.

The Perfect Present

Petr Horacek

A joyful and beautiful picture book celebrating friendship and sharing

Tom and Mot are best friends who share a birthday. Tom gives Mot a feather and Mot gives Tom a marble – and these small gifts open up worlds of brilliantly colourful imagination. From the feather comes the most wonderful bird imaginable. From a tiny marble comes a whole beautiful planet, teeming with life.

Outside it's raining, but playing with your best friend in the rain is fun! They ride a dinosaur, sail the seven seas and float through the starry Universe.

And at the end of their birthday, Tom and Mot discover what is the best present of all - the perfect present...

Simple and profound, this is a picture book to treasure, from a master picture book creator.

- A celebration of friendship, kindness and sharing
- Stunning illustrations in rich, glowing colours
- Shows the power of imagination and play
- From an internationally-renowned creator of children's books

Author Information

Petr Horáček is an internationally acclaimed illustrator. Born in Prague, he studied at the Academy of Fine Art. After graduating in 1994, he moved to England. His first two picture books were published in 2001, winning the 'Books for Children' Newcomer award. Since then he has gained a string of international distinctions. His most recent book for Otter-Barry was The Last Tiger, published in 2019, and longlisted for the UKLA Book Award 2020. He lives in Worcester, England.

“I would give you the ocean, if I could,” said Tom.

The Dangerous Life of Ophelia Bottom

Susie Bower

PUSHKIN
PRESS

Keynote

A refreshingly comic and fast-paced mystery about a girl learning the value of not fitting in, from acclaimed author of School for Nobodies and The Three Impossibles

Description

Ophelia Bottom longs for a boring life. Instead, she's stuck living in a rickety converted van and managing Bottom's Travelling Theatre, the moveable stage where her embarrassing actor parents put on occasionally disastrous plays. Every day, she wishes she lived in an ordinary house, with parents who worked ordinary, undramatic jobs.

When the family gets stuck in the seaside town of Stopford, Ophelia's dream appears to be coming true: all the Stopford residents seem to have very normal lives. But someone is trying to drive the Bottoms out, and surrounding all the normality is a strange village motto: PLASTIC IS FANTASTIC. Can Ophelia discover what's really behind Stopford's perfect appearance - before she loses everything that makes the Bottom family life so special?

Sales Points

- This delightfully funny middle-grade fiction with a charmingly different heroine is perfect for readers of Maz Evans, Lisa Williamson and Rebecca Stead
- Susie Bower's two previous novels earned strong media and bookseller support, which we will build on with an ambitious marketing and PR campaign

Author Biography

By the time she hit her teens, Susie Bower had lived in 8 houses and attended 7 schools. This theme continued in her working life: she's been a teacher, a tour-guide, a typist, a workshop facilitator, a PA and a painter. She formerly wrote and directed TV programmes for children at the BBC and Channel 4, for which she won a BAFTA Award, and she currently writes audio scripts. School for Nobodies, The Three Impossibles and Shoo! are also available from Pushkin Children's. Susie lives in Bristol.

The Mystery of the Missing Mum

Frances Moloney

Keynote

An anxious boy searches for his missing mum in this heartfelt, funny and unique ode to perfectly imperfect families

Description

One day, Jake wakes up to a different world: his mum seems to have vanished into thin air! With his Grandma snoring in the kitchen and older sister Rose spending hours getting ready, Jake starts the search for his mum by making a list of places she might be: Tesco? The EU? Hospital? The Bahamas?

Being a detective turns out to be QUITE HARD WORK and everyone Jake turns to for help seems FRUSTRATINGLY BUSY. Life at home wasn't perfect, but he can't understand why she would simply RUN OFF like this. And why doesn't everyone else seem more concerned?

Sales Points

- Moving and hugely entertaining middle-grade fiction that sensitively handles issues of unconventional families and mental health, for fans of Onjali Raúf and Lisa Thompson
- A wonderful debut from a publishing professional and marketing expert - Frances Moloney brings a wealth of experience in and passion for the world of children's books

Author Biography

Frances Moloney was born and raised in London, where she now lives having spent brief stints in Cornwall, where she studied English with Creative Writing at Falmouth, and Sweden. She has worked in the world of stories for over ten years and loves reading, running and yoga - though not all at the same time! The Mystery of the Missing Mum is her first novel.

THE LAST MONSTER

DAN WALKER

THE BOOK

The Light Hunters have fought Monsters for centuries and Squad Juno are the very best at it. From cities to villages, the young group's abilities are on show for all to see now that their powers don't have to be used in secret. Every victory they have prevents a Monster from taking more victims, preventing more loss.

Lux Dowd, Squad Juno's healer, has had more than enough loss ... But a more immediate loss is that of his powers. Lux can't – or won't – heal his teammates. Whenever he tries, a terrible energy comes from within and hurts the people around him. Lux can't afford to lose anymore of those he cares about.

Sent on a mission that could end their war against the Monsters, the Light Hunters soon find themselves making new allies in their quest to unearth an Ancient secret that may be able to stop the attacks. Could this really be the last monster they fight?

THE AUTHOR

Dan Walker is a children's author and the creator of Sky Thieves, Desert Thieves and The Light Hunters fantasy adventure stories. His books have been nominated for the Brilliant Book Award, the Reading Rampage Award, the RED Book Award, the Salford Children's Book Award and the Derbyshire Schools Book Award, and have been translated into multiple languages around the world.

Dan (aged 38) was born on 20th May 1983 in Derby, UK, where he spent his childhood being dragged up and down the hills of the Peak District, frantically hammering away at computer games and raiding his cousin's bookshelf for anything with a colourful cover.

He now lives in Nottingham with his wife and his one-year old son.

THE LIGHT HUNTERS

DAN WALKER

uclanpublishing

The first in a new electrifying Middle Grade series from author of SKY THIEVES, Dan Walker.

THE BOOK

"You ask me what Light is, Lux? Light is everything. Every single thing. The very fabric of our world is made up of this force - people, trees, the chair I am sitting on, this pen I am writing with. Few can access this Light, control it. You are one."

Huge Monsters roam the land, smashing towns to splinters. For centuries, energy-wielding Light Hunters battled the creatures, rescuing the townspeople of Daven from a terrible fate. Then, a single, disastrous mistake turned the people against Light. Now, this powerful and ancient force is mostly gone, all but a memory.

Lux Dowd lives in a clock repair shop with his ill Grandpa and the old man's live-in carer, Miss Hart. Although he might seem to be a normal 12 year old boy, Lux has a secret: not only can he wield Light, he might be the finest Light-healer the world has ever seen. But when Lux uses his power to save his best friend Maya after she is mortally injured in a terrifying monster attack, his Light draws a strange, shadowy figure to town, one who would use Lux's powers for evil.

He is rescued from the stranger's clutches by Miss Hart, who reveals to him that she is one of the last of the undercover Light Hunters tasked with watching over Lux. After a dangerous air ship journey to the Light Hunter HQ, Lux begins to learn the Light Hunter ways and form a bond with his new squad of apprentice hunters. But before he can settle, the Hunters receive a warning about an upcoming Monster attack near Lux's hometown. The Monster that destroyed his family is back.

Lux and his new friends find themselves in a race against time to locate the Monster and stop it before it can destroy the town. But is the Monster the real terror, or is there a greater danger lurking in the shadows, waiting for its moment to strike?

THE PITCH

- Dan's previous series, Sky Thieves, reached critical acclaim and was shortlisted for the RED Book Award 2019.
- Perfect for fans of The House with Chicken Legs, The Boy Who Flew and Wildspark.
- Cover illustration by George Ermos.
- Launched with a high profile marketing and publicity campaign, as well as author events in schools, libraries and bookshops. Dan is Nottingham based.

THE NICEST GIRL

SOPHIE JO

THE BOOK

Sixth-former Anna Campbell is the go-to girl when anyone needs anything. Teachers, friends, random strangers... It never occurred to her that she could say no. After all, Anna Campbell's always been too 'nice' to say no.

But Anna is sick of being that girl, the nice girl, and she's going to do something about it. Only, is she prepared to risk losing everything she cares about – even herself – along the way...?

A novel for anyone who's ever struggled to put themselves first.

THE AUTHOR

Sophie Jo is a writer of Young Adult fiction from the West Midlands. She is an ambassador for Women's Aid, a national charity working to end domestic violence against women and children. She's worked with the Sunday Times, Cosmopolitan, BBC Woman's Hour and Avon to spread the word about healthy teen relationships, and supported the charity's Media team with the construction of its Love Respect website. Sophie has worked in comms and copywriting roles across a variety of sectors, from higher education to social housing and spends her spare time reading about Disneyland and overanalysing the O.C.
