Discover the joy in learning

Hello Handbook! Ukrainian - English

by Catherine Bruzzone and Louise Millar, illustrated by Clare Beaton

Ukrainian translator: Hanna Leliv

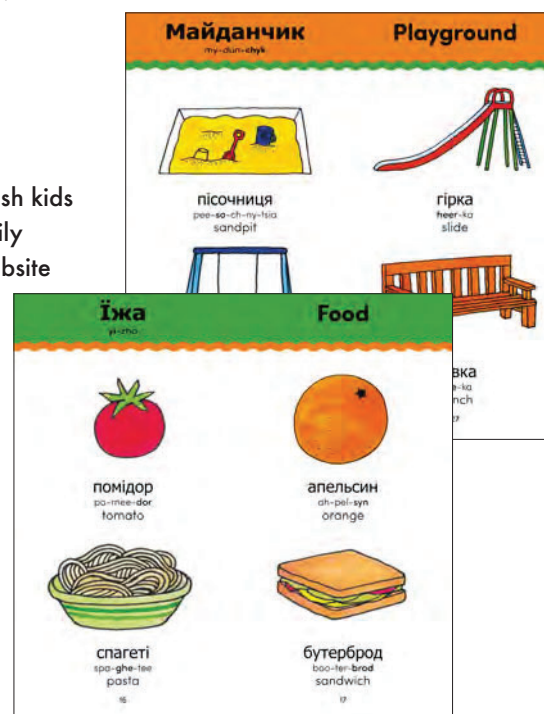

A WELCOMING WORD BOOK TO HELP MAKE FRIENDS!

The first in a new series of books designed to help children and host families make friends with other children (or adults even!) who speak a different language. The book is a handheld format that contains a selection of simple first words and phrases, plus a link to audio recordings by native speakers.

Series title: HELLO HANDBOOKS

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- 'Bi-directional' for both Ukrainian and English kids
- Perfect tool to help welcome a refugee family
- Links to pronunciation and audio on our website

WHO'S BEHIND THE BOOK?

Author: Catherine Bruzzone is a languages expert, bestselling author and publisher of non-fiction for children who lives in Twickenham. Catherine is currently learning her mother's native language: Welsh!

Illustrator: Clare lives and works in North London. Having studied graphics and illustration at art college, Clare went straight to work for the BBC as an illustrator for children's programmes. Clare illustrates and writes lots of felt, fabric collage, pen and ink, and paper collage books for children.

Translator: Hanna is based in western Ukraine, and works with many leading Ukrainian publishers. Her translation of Ukrainian book Cappy and the Whale will be published by Puffin in October 2022.

Candy Land

You make such a great first impression, that Leslie tells us about a shortcut out of the kingdom. We turn left, weave right, all hop on one foot (even Fluffy!) to avoid some quicksand before arriving at the gigantic lollipop walls of Candy Land. Walking through red liquorice gates we are hit by the smell of bubblegum. We pass houses made of gingerbread, candy cane trees and a river of lemonade.

FAB
FIVER!

These are all synonyms for 'big'. Perhaps look in a dictionary or thesaurus if you want to discover other similar words.

Gigantic

Colossal

Gargantuan

Mammoth

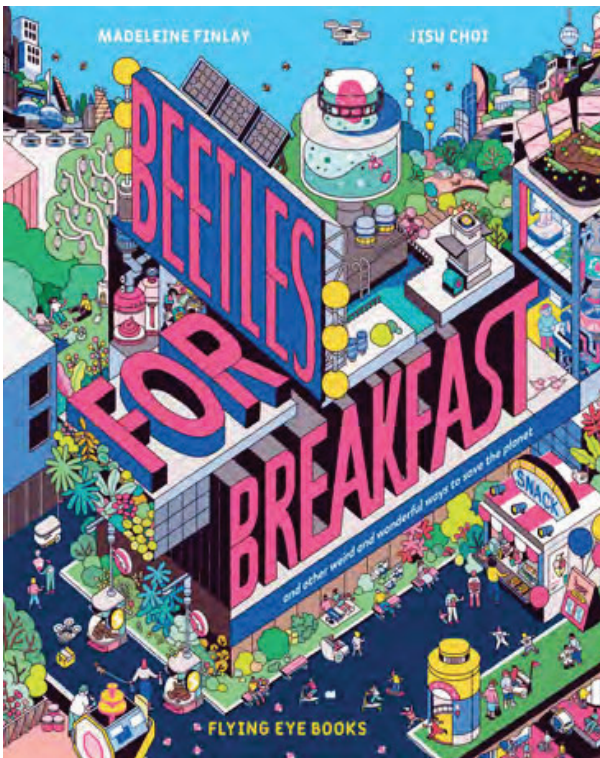

Mountainous

Don't eat anything!

Fluffy runs off his leash towards a bank of cotton candy bushes. He starts to eat the pink cloud-like sweets. Oh! No! He's suddenly transformed into an ice cream. To help Fluffy turn back into a dog, imagine and write down what it feels like to be turned into an ice-cream cone. What do you look like? Do you feel cold? Are you a particular flavour? Can you move around at all?

ADVENTURE CLUE:

A useful way of imagining yourself as something or someone else, is to close your eyes and try to picture it in your mind.

Beetles for Breakfast ... and other weird and wonderful ways we could save the planet

Madeleine Finlay (Illustrated By Jisu Choi)

Description

We all know the effects that climate change is having on our planet – but what about the strange, and creative ways that scientists are working to find practical and imaginative answers to these big problems?

Following a day in the life of a child, we see how new green inventions could fit into everyday life, from brushing your teeth with biodegradable algae, to eating beetle burgers for lunch and coming home to do your homework with a pen with ink made from exhaust fumes. With a mixture of infographic-style artwork and topical, and funny facts from scientist Madeleine Finlay, children will love seeing familiar scenes with a futuristic twist. Open up to learn all about the cool, exciting and sometimes quite strange inventions that could be part of normal life in the future.

Sales Points

- Covers a range of STEM topics from biology to materials, through the lens of exciting and quirky new technology that can help us save the planet.
- Forward-thinking and positive take on the issue of climate change and environmental activism.
- Bold and eye-catching art style makes this title stand out against competitors.

Author Biography

Madeleine Finlay has a first-class Undergraduate Master's in Physics, Honours Astrophysics, a Master's in Science Communication. She now works with clients such as the BBC and New Scientist, among others.

Jisu Choi is an illustrator based in South Korea. Having started studying art from a young age She's worked with many clients on a range of products including packaging design and murals. This is her first book.

Keynote

This special collector's edition collects books three and four in the Hilda graphic novel series, Hilda and the Bird Parade & Hilda and the Black Hound, which inspired the award winning Hilda animated series on Netflix.

Description

Introducing our favourite blue-haired adventurer, Hilda!

Leaving their home in the wilderness, Hilda, Twig and her mother have moved to the big bustling city of Trolberg. Hilda must find a way to fit into this new and very different way of life by building new friendships with humans – and creatures. Soon, she discovers the city is just as mysterious and filled with adventures as the wilderness. There is no shortage of unexpected twists, turns and new friends in this bind-up edition. A perfect gift for Hilda fans and any young adventurer in your life!

Reviews

- 'Visually arresting: Exuberant and lively.' - New York times
- 'Pearson's whimsical artwork - a cross between Lucky Luke and Miyazaki - creates a magical spell of a mysterious world.' - Observer

Perfect Presents!

Author & illustrator: Anke Kuhl

A satisfied gecko has found the perfect present for a hard-to-please friend in this happy comic gift book, ideal as a gift in its own right.

ABOUT THE BOOK

You're a very hard person to buy for, but have I got the perfect thing for you!

In this little hardback gift comic, a lizard is delighted with their whole bag of perfect presents for a slightly unusual friend. At first things don't seem to be going well... The friend wolfs down each one and reaches out greedily for the gecko itself! Until the story finishes with a big kiss and a cup of peppermint tea:

“Perfect presents,” says the friend. “Just to my taste!”

This funny comic with a twist is a fun read for children of all ages and a perfect present for anyone, even those who are hard to buy for.

SALES POINTS

- Captures both the apprehension and delight of gift giving
- Pure fun in 32 little square pages
- Gift book, counter purchase and stocking stuffer
- Anke Kuhl is a world-leading comic artist whose witty illustrations are second to none

ABOUT THE AUTHOR & ILLUSTRATOR

Anke Kuhl, born in 1970, is one of Germany's leading children's book illustrators, whose awards include the German Youth Literature Award in 2011. She lives in Frankfurt with her husband and two children.

GLOBE·LearningCircle™

At Globe Publishing it is our philosophy that "playing is learning". With this philosophy in mind we have created a unique way of developing our products. At the core of the process is the GLOBE·LearningCircle™, which keeps the child's progress, curiosity, and complete learning needs in mind. It consists of eight different skills, that all facilitate optimal learning for the child.

Some of our products touch upon all skills and others focus on a single skill.

Girlhood Unfiltered

An essay collection by Milk Honey Bees & Ebinehita Iyere

An anthology of essays, letters, and creative work reflecting on the experience of Black girlhood, by an inspiring group of teenage girls.

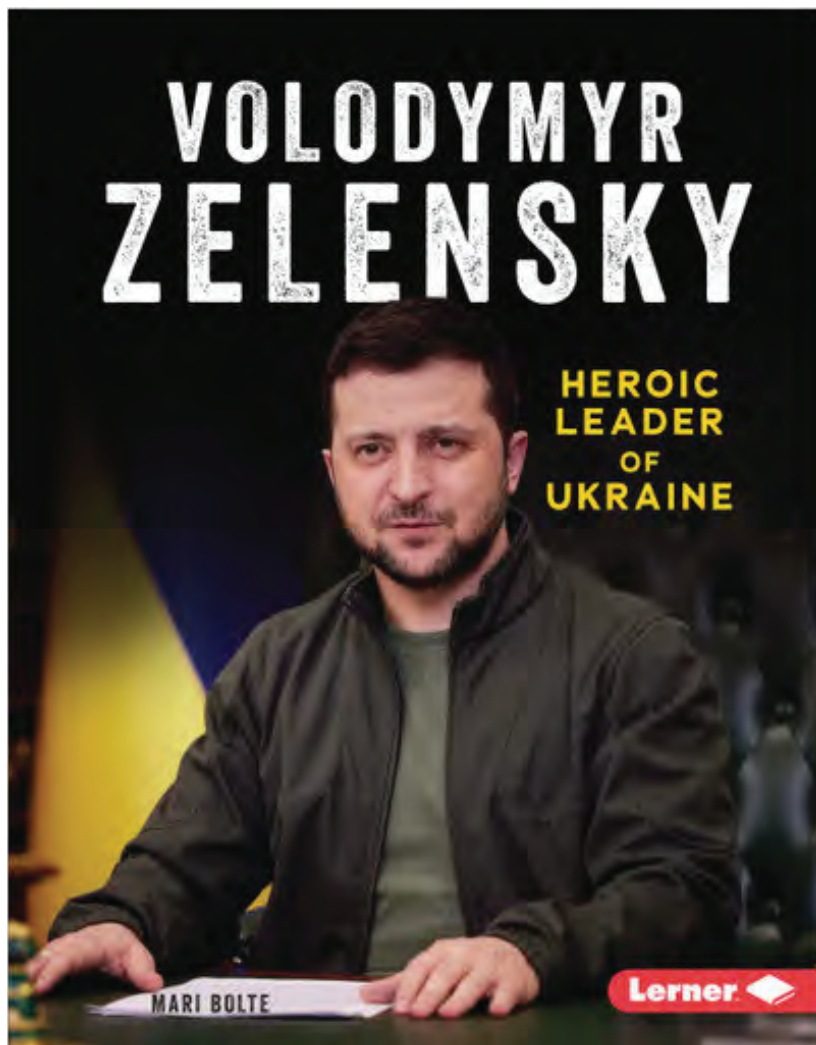

The voices of young Black girls are too often left out of conversations on the Black girl experience; in this anthology, the founder of South London-based charity Milk Honey Bees seeks to bring their voices to the front.

Supported by an ambitious PR and Marketing campaign and following the lead of Ebinehita's thoughtful and engaging work with the girls, Girlhood Unfiltered will reach those readers who relate, those who want to learn and those who care deeply about their community.

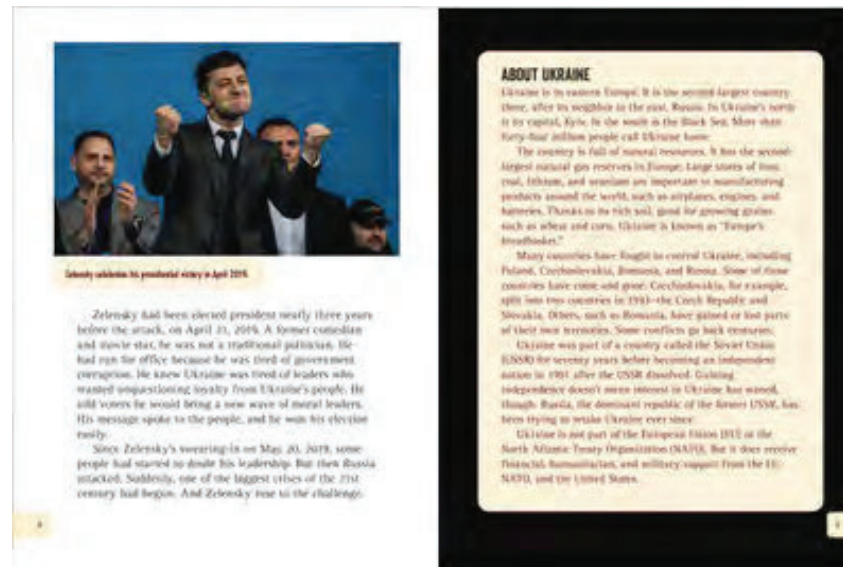

Sales & Marketing Points:

- A perfect pre-Christmas gift purchase.
- In the KO Classic format (e.g. Empress & Aniya, For Every One).
- Sits alongside books such as Grown by Black Girls Book Club and Carefree Black Girls by Zeba Blay.
- Supported by a long-term partnership between KO and Milk Honey Bees, with the KO team running a series of half-term workshops and working closely with the girls throughout the year in a variety of ways.
- Supported by an extensive PR & Marketing campaign.

Volodymyr Zelensky got his start as a comedic actor, running for president of Ukraine as a populist candidate in 2019. He seemed an unlikely hero, yet he quickly revealed his resolve as Russian forces invaded Ukraine in 2022. He remained in Ukraine's capital, delivering rousing speeches to Ukraine's people via video even as Russia's troops posed an enormous threat to his safety. Zelensky has become a symbol of great bravery, both in Ukraine and around the world.

Where BJÖRN Belongs

By Samuel Langley-Swain
and Mirna Imamovic

A sensitive Christmas story of friendship and belonging, centered around the unbreakable bond between a boy and a bear - a classic in the making.

Due to his autism, Arctic-enthusiast Arthur does not like Christmas, the noise, the lights, and the crowds. He keeps his toy polar bear close, for security. After losing his precious bear and asking Father Christmas for a new one, he wakes up to find a REAL polar bear in his garden! Arthur names his new friend Björn and in spite of his best efforts to keep Björn cold and happy, realises that he needs to help his friend return to the Arctic, where he belongs. Time for some more Christmas magic . . .

"Just right," Arthur said, sticking on his airmail stamp and licking the envelope shut.

"Love you," Mum smiled, giving him an 'eskimo-kiss'.

They turned to walk home, not noticing the icy wind whisk the letter away, high into the sky.

As Arthur dreamt of snowy owls, husky sledging, and white foxes . . .

A is for Bee

Ellen Heck (Illustrated By Ellen Heck)

Keynote

A beautifully illustrated multilingual alphabet book, to teach young children about the amazing diversity of languages

Description

What letter does the word bee start with?
If you said "B" you're right - in English!
But in many, many languages, it actually starts with A.
Bee is Anu in Igbo.
Arı in Turkish.
Aamoo in Ojibwe.
And Abelha in Portuguese.

Come and explore the gorgeous variations in the ways we talk about familiar things, unified and illuminated through Ellen Heck's eye-catching, graphic scratchboard details and hidden letterforms.

Sales Points

- A radical take on the classic illustrated alphabet book
- A vibrant tribute to the gorgeous variety of language

Author Biography

Ellen Heck is a printmaker. For the past decade, through several print projects, she has explored questions about identity. Inspired by reading Lithuanian alphabet books to her son, A is for Bee is her debut picturebook.

Bramble Fox

Kathrin Tordasi
 Translated by Cathrin Wirtz

Keynote

A magical middle-grade adventure story set in Wales and entwined with British folklore and mythology

Description

On a summer holiday in Wales, Portia and Ben find a mysterious door set in a bramble hedge in the middle of a forest. It is a portal to the Otherworld and should never be opened, but how are they supposed to know that? After all, the old stories about the wonders and dangers of the Otherworld have long been forgotten ...

For Robin Goodfellow, the man with the fox shadow, the children are his last chance to open the portal and finally return home. But for everyone else, the door spells great danger. This thrilling fantasy adventure immerses young readers deep in the world of British myths and legends.

Sales Points

- A story steeped in British folklore with a classic feel, reminiscent of Susan Cooper, Alan Garner and Diana Wynne Jones
- Winner of the Goldener Bücherpirat Prize 2021 and the Fürther Lupe Prize 2021, both voted for by children

Reviews

- 'Both the protagonists and the worlds are simply lovingly designed' - Sallys Books
- 'Full of charm, magic and adventure' - Damaris liest Mini

Author Biography

Kathrin Tordasi was born in the south of Germany and has been a bookworm since she was little and started making up her own stories when her Dad gave her his old typewriter. She dreamed of becoming an explorer, a pirate or a writer and eventually decided to go for the third option (mostly because she gets horribly seasick). After spending a year in Bangor, Wales, she came up with the idea for a book about a girl who follows a fox into faerie. Bramble Fox was first published in German in 2020, when it won the Goldener Bücherpirat Prize 2021 and the Fürther Lupe Prize 2021, both voted for by children, and now it has been translated into English. Kathrin lives in Berlin where she can usually be found browsing through local bookshops, writing in cafés or exploring the nearby lakes and forests.

Daughter of the Siren Queen

Tricia Levenseller

Keynote

The defiant, fierce heroine of Daughter of the Pirate King returns in this rip-roaring high-seas adventure

Description

Alosa's mission is finally complete. Not only has she recovered all three pieces of the map to a legendary hidden treasure, but the pirates who originally took her captive are now prisoners on her ship. First mate Riden, still unfairly attractive and unexpectedly loyal, is a constant distraction, but now he's under her orders. And she takes great comfort in knowing that the villainous Vordan will soon be facing her father's justice.

When Vordan exposes a secret her father has kept for years, Alosa and her crew find themselves in a deadly race with the feared Pirate King. Despite the danger, Alosa knows they will recover the treasure first...

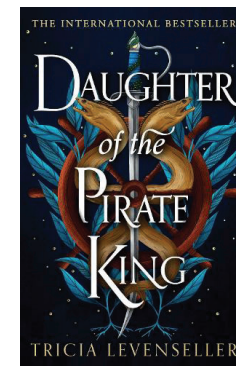

After all, she is the daughter of the Siren Queen.

Sales Points

- A gripping blend of seafaring adventure, romance and fantasy from the bestselling Tricia Levenseller - set to be the next must-read YA fantasy author
- Stunningly realised high fantasy with a fierce, whip-smart pirate heroine - perfect for readers of Sarah J Maas and Holly Black

Author Biography

Tricia Levenseller is from a small town in Oregon and now lives next to the Rocky Mountains in Utah with her bossy dog, Rosy. When she's not writing or reading, Tricia enjoys putting together jigsaw puzzles, playing Overwatch, and watching her favorite TV shows while eating extra-buttered popcorn. Her books include Daughter of the Pirate King, its sequel Daughter of the Siren Queen, Warrior of the Wild, The Shadow Between Us, Blade of Secrets and its sequel Master of Iron, all published or forthcoming from Pushkin.

A Pack of Your Own

Maria Nilsson Thore

Keynote

A delightful picturebook about a lonely sausage dog who finds a friend

Description

A lonely dachshund dreams of having a friend, but every time the little sausage dog goes to the park they find it hard to fit in. They can only watch the other dogs playing and having fun. Until one day, a friend comes along...

A Pack of Your Own is a warm and funny story about friendship in a dog's world. With exquisitely sweet illustrations, readers are invited to ask themselves questions about friendship. How much should one adapt in order to be accepted and valued by others? Do we really need to be similar in order to be friends? And can a dachshund and a poodle be friends despite their differences?

Sales Points

- A heartwarming gorgeously illustrated story about struggling to fit in and the value of friendship

Reviews

- 'The perfect picture book to discuss and read for children who are about to start school' - @barnbokstugg
- 'In the shape of a dog's life, Maria Nilsson Thore depicts a universal desire to belong, to feel that one fits in somewhere.' - @barnensboktips
- 'An amazingly illustrated picture book about exclusion and friendship... The story is beautiful, and its message as well' - @bibliofil

Author Biography

Maria Nilsson Thore is an award-winning Swedish children's author and illustrator who lives in Stockholm with her dachshund Tics. A Pack of Your Own is the first of her books to be translated into English.

A gorgeous modern classic from Italy - a stunning tale of friendship, beauty and mortality

Description

Madurer is the son of a great lord, with untold wealth, but he is also the victim of a mysterious disease that means he cannot be exposed to sunlight or fresh air. He is confined to three windowless rooms inside a palace, but his doting father summons a famous artist to cover the walls of the rooms with paintings showing the world his son cannot experience for real.

As the painter works on his murals, his relationship with the boy begins to deepen until they forge a firm friendship. How can he show this child the beauty of the world with only his paintbrush to work with? A World for Madurer is a heartbreakingly beautiful classic of Italian children's literature, published here in English for the first time.

Sales Points

- Roberto Piumini is Italy's best-loved children's author, and a nominee for the 2022 Hans Christian Andersen Award, but this is the first of his books to be translated into English
- Of all the author's hundreds of much-loved works, Glowrushes is considered his masterpiece - a modern classic that has been translated into 12 languages and won hearts across the globe, but has never been published in English until now
- This classic of Italian children's literature is as popular with adults as it is with kids.

Author Biography

Born in 1947, Roberto Piumini is Italy's foremost living author of children's stories. His books are found in every Italian bookshop and school and have been translated into many languages across the world. He received the Rodari Lifetime Achievement Award in 2020, and is nominated for the 2022 Hans Christian Andersen Award. A World for Madurer was first published in 1987 and is considered his masterpiece.

PHILIP CAENEY

THE BOOK

Ned is awkward, a little shy, and just trying to find his place in the world. He also happens to be the assistant to the nation's most feared highwayman, The Shadow . . .

In a time when highwaymen ruled the roads, Ned is reluctantly swept up into a whirlwind of adventure. Whilst escaping the grasps of the thief-takers, Ned soon finds himself stepping into his Master's shoes and an unwanted life of crime. The pressure is building with new friends and enemies galore when Ned stumbles upon a long-infamous gem, The Bloodstone, which forces him to make an important choice. Can he ultimately escape this new threat and finally free himself from the grips of The Shadow?

THE AUTHOR

Philip Caveney was born in North Wales in 1951 and now lives in Edinburgh. His first novel, The Sins of Rachel Ellis was published in 1977 and he produced a series of adult thrillers over the following decades. His first novel for younger readers, Sebastian Darke: Prince of Fools was released in 2007 and was published all around the world. Since then, he has concentrated on writing exclusively for younger readers.

He also writes under the pseudonym Danny Weston. Danny's debut novel The Piper won the Scottish Children's Book Award in 2016 and in 2018, The Haunting of Jessop Rise was shortlisted for the Scottish Teenage Book prize and nominated for a Carnegie Medal.
