Sharks! Sharks! Sharks!

written by Susan Martineau, illustrated by Vicky Barker

A DEEP DIVE INTO SHARKS AND THEIR BEHAVIOUR

From award-winning non-fiction duo, Susan Martineau and Vicky Barker, this is an expertly pitched book all about sharks and how they behave. There are coral reef sharks, glow-in-the-dark sharks, baby sharks and even mystery sharks. Young readers will find out whether sharks want to eat us, do they have friends and how do they look after their babies. This is the perfect book to surprise shark-loving super fans with new information and to delight enthusiastic amateurs.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A lot beyond the stats into how sharks actually behave
- Perfectly pitched for young readers by award-winning creators
- World Ocean Day is 8 June and Shark Awareness Day is 14 July

b small publishing:

We believe that children are natural learners. That's why, for over 30 years, we've been making books that celebrate their enthusiasm for discovering new things. From science to foreign languages, our award-winning non-fiction and activity books help all children discover the joy of learning.

Glow-in-the-dark sharks

Sharks are such amazing creatures that some of them can survive in the deepest depths of the ocean where it is really dark and gloomy.

Lanternsharks have glowing spots on their bodies.

Blackbelly lanternsharks have glow-in-the-dark tummies. They swim in large groups, or schools, very deep in the ocean.

We need to see each other so we can stick together.

The velvet belly lanternshark has two spines which light up. These look just like light sabres!

Deep-sea sharks have very large eyes. They need them to take in as much light as possible in the dark water. This helps them to spot each other, catch food and avoid being dinner for predators.

Kitefin sharks are the biggest glow-in-the-dark sharks. They can be as long as a human man is tall.

The scary-looking cookiecutter shark uses its glowing tummy to get the attention of bigger fish or seals. Then it takes a big round bite out of them!

Bioluminescence is the word that describes the light made by living organisms.

JUNE 2023

A sausage dog discovers that, despite being small, she has strengths of her very own in this adorable gem from bestselling author Pip Jones – perfect for dog lovers.

Peggy the sausage dog feels really sad when she finds she's too small to really compete with the other dogs at puppy school. Her little legs and long body make it hard for her to jump high or run very fast. But when one of her school friends has a dangerous fall, it's Peggy who comes to the rescue, proving that heroes come in all different sizes!

- A heartwarming short story that encourages young readers to find and value their own strengths and talents, even when they might feel like the odd one out
- Packed with puppies of every shape and size, this is an ideal read for fans of animal stories
- Bestselling author Pip Jones won the Greenhouse Funny Prize with Squishy McFluff, and was shortlisted for the Sainsbury Children's Book Awards with Izzy Gizmo
- Charming illustrations from Paula Bowles bring Peggy and her canine classmates to life
- Reunites the brilliant author-illustrator team behind the adorable Madam Squeaker and Dimple and the Boo, creating a gorgeous commercial package

NATURE FAMILY HEALING

When Noah's dad visits from New York, he and Noah come across an injured nightjar during a walk in the countryside. Noah is determined to save the bird, but his dad believes they should leave it alone to let nature take its course. As father and son argue, it becomes clear that Noah is angry about more than just the bird. He feels abandoned and misunderstood by his dad, who has moved to the US and started a new family there that doesn't seem to have room for Noah. Can they find a way to build a new relationship and rediscover the common ground between them?

The Day the Hiccups Took Over

Jo Simmons

With black-and-white illustrations by Lee Cosgrove

RELATED TITLE
9781800901070

A case of incurable hiccups leads to hilarity in this madcap caper from comedy genius and bestselling author Jo Simmons.

On the day of his big performance, Frank wakes up with the hiccups. And they just won't STOP! Helped by his best friend, Daisy, Frank tries every trick in the book – holding his breath till he nearly passes out, getting someone to give him a fright – but still the hiccups won't go away. In desperation, he's driven to try ever more madcap ideas, but when they don't succeed, he has to go on stage still hiccupping away. Will the evening end in humiliation or will Frank manage to turn calamity into a dramatic triumph?

- Jo Simmons has found huge success with her funny fiction – her hit middle-grade title I Swapped My Brother On the Internet was shortlisted for the 2020 Lollies Award, as well as being included in Tom Fletcher's picks for his WHSmith Book Club
- Humour is hugely popular for this age group and young readers will be delighted by Frank's hilarious ideas and slapstick misfortunes
- Brilliantly dynamic illustrations from Lee Cosgrove add an extra layer of comedy
- Jo is based in Brighton and offers brilliant event opportunities through Authors Aloud UK
- Publication to be supported by downloadable poster and “funny fiction” themed flyer

Finding Her Feet

Eve Ainsworth

With black-and-white illustrations by Luna Valentine

9781800900929

A shy but talented footballer navigates challenging friendships and anxiety at school in this touching tale from acclaimed author Eve Ainsworth.

Lily always feels a little bit left out. Shy and anxious, she finds school really hard, particularly as most of the other girls all seem so confident. Most of the time, Lily wishes that she could just disappear. But during a game of football in PE, Lily's teacher spots her natural talent and invites Lily to join the local girls' team, where she starts to make friends with some of the other players. Finally, she thinks she's found a place where she fits in, but will a vicious argument with one of her teammates put all her progress in jeopardy?

- Publishing to tie in with the FIFA Women's World Cup in 2023, the book casts an important spotlight on the positive impact of girls' football
- Eve has a passionate football-focused fanbase thanks to the acclaimed Dick, Kerr Girls series, and her previous football tale for Barrington Stoke, All to Play For, was highly praised: "A moving, engaging story for 7+ football fans" – The Guardian
- Chapters are framed with fact pages offering fascinating information and history about the sport
- A gentle look at mental health and managing anxiety in a school setting – bestselling author Eve Ainsworth is a passionate working-class advocate renowned for her realistic and sensitive explorations of contemporary social issues
- Publication to be supported by full social media assets, including eye-catching 'football cards'

Michael the Amazing Mind-reading Sausage Dog

Terrie Chilvers

'A tail-waggingly fun read. You're in for a doggie treat.' Mo O'Hara

'Packed with friendship, fun and fabulous waistcoats.' Hannah Moffatt

Heartwarming and humorous, this title for 7-9 features fun 'paw-written' entries by Michael himself and brilliant illustrations by Tim Budgen.

Perfect for fans of Grimwood, Space Detectives, and Andy Shepherd's Boy who Grew Dragons series.

Summary:

Michael the Sausage Dog is desperate to be a su-paw-star! His newfound talent of mind-reading might be his ticket to Hollywoof, as soon as he can convince the talent show judges that he and his assistant Stanley Big Dog have what it takes.

But when they reach Hollywoof, it's not as simple a life as Michael had dreamed. A rival show has started stealing their ticket sales and it's up to him and his new friends to create a brilliant show, win back fans, and save the theatre.

POS AVAILABLE: BOOKMARKS, BADGES

Terrie Chilvers writes funny middle grade fiction and non-fiction. She works freelance as a copywriter and social media consultant but is most happy when teaching a dog to high-five or taking a picture of her Eggs Benedict to post on Instagram.

Terrie lives in London where she is the doting aunt to two long-haired sausage dogs.

The second in the series was selected for the Just Imagine's Reading Gladiators and shortlisted for the UKLA Children's Book Awards 2017.
- Passionate, entertaining and highly topical environmental storyline about how much is expected from children in this era of climate change
- Superb black and white illustration from nature artist Jane Matthews throughout.

Summary (TBC):

When the animals start rebelling, and Aubrey is stung by a very polite wasp, he realises there is something weird going on in the valley below Rushing Wood. And as he's the only boy he knows of who can talk with animals, he is determined to find out what.

With help from his friends Ariadne the house spider, Silvio the silverfish and Lupo the Huskey pup, the young warrior sets out to find the terrible Terrible Spiders and their genius creator Big B and, just maybe, save the world.

Why we love this book:

A brilliantly told environmental anti-epic for 8-12s featuring children and animals. It's funny, adventurous and might just save the world...

'Girl-power, engineering and community action, all wrapped up in a miniature world.'

Marvellous!

- Caryl Hart, author of Girls Can do Anything

A charming, witty picture book about wacky inventions and working together.

On a tiny street, in a tiny town, lives a tiny inventor called Edie. She's always coming up with clever new contraptions and game-changing gizmos. But Edie's inventions are always TOP SECRET, and she certainly doesn't need any help. After all, everyone knows that the best inventors do it all by themselves, don't they? But when Edie can't find a way to solve her biggest problem yet – a mischievous magpie with a penchant for pilfering other people's things – she must find a way to work with the whole town to stop the thief.

KEY SELLING POINTS

- Features a detailed miniature world that brings to mind Richard Scarry and The Borrowers
- With themes of inventiveness, creativity and working together – and a nod to STEM
- Patrick Corrigan's rich illustrations are filled with humour and lots of details for little ones to spot

"This is more than a graphic novel; it's an experience. Imagination, science and adventure weave together into a visual journey that's so fun you won't want it to end."

- Femi Fadugba, author of The Upper World.

A thought-provoking and hilarious romp through time and space from debut creator, Tyrell Waiters that explores what it means to be human in a world that feels like is becoming more confusing and frightening by the day.

On the edge of burnout, Vern decides to return to his family in the Sunshine State to start over. Starting a new dead-end job as a custodian at Quasar—a local science facility with a shady motive—he shrugs on his uniform, grabs a mop and bucket, and trudges off to clean up... Black holes? Space-time anomalies? Galactic ooze? Things aren't entirely what they seem at Quasar, and when Vern accidentally plugs in a mysterious machine and finds himself standing on the brink of the destruction of every planet in the Multiverse, he finds himself presented with the greatest question of all: what is the point?

KEY SELLING POINTS

- Debut graphic novel from Black artist and writer with a Black protagonist, tackling real issues surrounding the feelings of being trapped by history and unable to change the situation you're in.
- Gorgeous and detailed full colour art and playful panelling which invites close inspection and multiple reads.
- Sci-fi themes will appeal to a wide audience, but also fits into timely, current questions about global warming, space exploration and space colonisation.
- Funny yet meaningful plot which will provoke conversation about what we can do to better our own world.

KEYWORDS: sci-fi, space exploration, colonisation, global warming, multiverse, space, adventure, futuristic

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Tyrell Waiters is a freelance illustrator and graphic designer from Palmetto, Florida. He graduated from the Ringling College of Art and Design and is currently living in Seattle with his wife and their many cats. Tyrell works in a huge range of industries ranging from marketing to music and entertainment. When not working, he's painting in his studio and exploring nature. Tyrell is based in Seattle, USA.

Look - A Tummy Time Book

Author/Illustrator: Gavin Bishop

A concertina board book of big bright faces to place around the baby on the floor at tummy time—family faces on one side and toys on the other—by multi-awardwinning author/illustrator Gavin Bishop.

ABOUT THE BOOK

Babies will love tummy time or learning to sit up surrounded by this beautiful concertina board book illustrated in bright colors.

This safe and sturdy fold-out book is a perfect gift, with compelling illustrations of the things babies love. Friendly faces from the whole family combine with familiar toys and objects, drawn in bold lines with a striking minimalist color palette.

Choose your cover and which direction to read this fully reversible book.

Tummy time helps to strengthen a baby's back, neck and shoulders. The strong simple images stimulate developing eyesight, allowing babies to see things up close and from a different point of view.

The images are perfect for introducing first words and concepts as the baby grows, with 12 family faces—including the dog—and 12 objects that babies love to hold and explore—soft toys, ball, keys, someone's glasses and more.

WHY I CHOSE THIS BOOK

“The concertina tummy time format brings Gavin Bishop’s illustration to the youngest babies, through the compelling gaze of these beautiful faces.”

A Perfect Wonderful Day with Friends

Author and Illustrator: Philip Waechter

This picture book captures the warmth and fun of a spontaneous summer’s day with friends—picnic, walk, swim and a cake (or two) to finish

ABOUT THE BOOK

Raccoon decides to bake an apple pie. But he has no eggs, so visits his friend Fox, who needs a ladder. They walk to Badger—he has everything!—but he needs help too, so they set off to find Bear. They stroll through meadows, meet up with Crow, nibble blackberries and find Bear fishing at the river. Soon the five friends are having the best day out—the sun shining on their fur, fishing, swimming, picnic and home to bake a cake.

A Perfect Wonderful Day with Friends is a picture book to instantly capture the heart. Laconic narration, funny dialogue and exquisite illustrations tell the story of a carefree childhood day.

SALES POINTS

- A warm and joyful story
- A day full of the activities every toddler loves
- Encourages building community and helping your neighbour
- A perfect midsummer read
- Philip Waechter is a leading illustrator with a beautifully classic illustration style

ABOUT THE AUTHOR & ILLUSTRATOR

Philip Waechter was born in 1968 in Germany. He now lives as a freelance graphic designer and illustrator in Frankfurt am Main. In 1999 he and Moni Port co-founded the community studio LABOR.

Any Body

A comic compendium of important facts and feelings about our bodies

Author: Katharina von der Gathen

Illustrator: Anke Kuhl

Humour combines with accurate, digestible information in this honest comic reference for children and early teens who want to understand and feel at home with their own bodies.

ABOUT THE BOOK

Sometimes we feel uncomfortable in our own skin, sometimes invincible. Katharina von der Gathen's many years of experience working with children as a sex educator are the basis for this witty encyclopaedia covering anatomy, confidence and consent, sex and gender.

The text is accessible and warm, gently acknowledging commons feelings of ambivalence about our bodies. The illustrations are relatably funny and include charts, cartoons and more—even a handy page of visual compliments.

WHY I CHOSE THIS BOOK

“Any Body is both direct and comforting—helping us accept differences and laugh at and enjoy our own funny human bodies.”

- Anke Kuhl's comic illustrations embrace the inherent humour in bodies

- Katharina von der Gathen is a leading sex educator working with children

ABOUT THE AUTHOR & ILLUSTRATOR

Katharina von der Gathen has a long career working in the area of sex education with children and writes books based directly on questions asked in her classes. Anke Kuhl is one of Germany's leading children's book illustrators.

SALES POINTS

- Funny, to the point and honest
- A full reference for children—anatomical information along with discussions of confidence and consent, sex and gender
- For everyone who has a body—not limited ‘for girls / for boys’ like many other books in this category

Beauty ideals

For thousands of years, people have thought about what makes a person beautiful. Scientists have discovered that people are considered to be particularly attractive when both sides of the body are as symmetrical as possible—with eyes of the same size and the same distance from the nose, say, or even shoulders. But of course no one's face or body is actually symmetrical!

Ideals of beauty change, just like fashions change. You can see this if you look at photographs of models and actors from the past.

People's perceptions of what is beautiful are different everywhere in the world and among different groups. Racism and colonialism have influenced ideas about ideal beauty, often in harmful ways.

Even when you have a pretty good idea of what is considered beautiful in general, each person still has specific ideas of how they want to look—even when that may be impossible for their particular body type.

Hand Puppet Pals: Have You Ever Met a Sleepy Shark?

ISBN: 978-1-80105-621-2

Look inside!

Make story time fun with this “read-and-play” book.

Children will be captivated as they read the funny, rhyming story about a shark that can't sleep and act out the story with the plush shark puppet mouth to make Little Shark go YAWN, SNORE, or ZZZ on each page.

About the illustrator:

Carlo Beranek is a freelance illustrator based in Rotterdam, the Netherlands. His work is bold, bright and colourful, and often invested with strong messages that carry forward Carlo's belief in art's ability not only to entertain but also to educate and inspire. If Carlo weren't an illustrator he would have been a chef. He loves reading, listening to music, going to the cinema, and would jump at the chance to move to a big city like London or New York and adopt a dog.

Key Selling Points:

- The read-and-play format combines a soft-to-touch shark hand puppet with a funny, interactive story.
- Hands-on interactive stories for little ones and adults with plenty of read-aloud fun to make the puppets and stories come alive.
- Developed by Imagine That, creators of the best-selling hand puppet format - over 2 million hand puppet books sold worldwide!

Lizzie Huxley-Jones

“The problem with growing up listening to bedtime stories about monsters, magic and myth is that you don’t really question it when a lake summons you...”

The lake has been calling to twelve-year-old Vivi Conway. On the day she and her Mams will move from Wales to London, she sneaks out to investigate what is calling her there. Instead of a quiet swim, she finds Excalibur (much smaller than she expected), a ferocious monster (much scarier in real life than in her mythology books), a new friend (which she doesn’t want at all) called Dara and a ghostly dog named Gelert (who can talk).

Gelert insists that Vivi is part of a magical group of children known as enaids who share the souls of witches from legend and must protect the world from being taken over by the evil King Arawn of the Otherworld. Oh, and now she can magically control water. With a little extra help from spiky Avery and sweet-hearted Chia, Vivi must come to terms with her magical destiny and be brave enough to embrace true friendship.

- Lizzie Huxley-Jones is already an established and admired voice in UK publishing as a consultant, editor and non-fiction author. They are a vocal advocate for neuro-diverse stories and in writing from the point of view of their autistic narrator Vivi, they combine an action-packed and magical story with a nuanced look at how true friendship comes from learning about and supporting one another’s differences.
- Featuring a joyfully diverse cast of characters, with themes of friendship, trust and cooperation as they learn and grow together.

The third title in the thrilling magical, fantasy adventure series for six- to nine-year-olds.

Written by award-winning writer and journalist David C Flanagan, featuring line drawings and illustrations by Will Hughes, with his quirky Quentin Blake-like style.

This hilarious new adventure takes Uncle Pete and his fearless female sidekick, TM, on an incredible Arctic adventure, with themes of determination, collaboration, ingenuity, kindness and acceptance.

Book one in the series - Uncle Pete and the Boy Who Couldn't Sleep - was long-listed for the Waterstones Children's Book Prize 2022

Description

The next exciting adventure for Uncle Pete and TM sees them prepare for an Arctic expedition to get Berg, the little polar bear, back to his family. Gathering together their snow gear, they fit skis on the plane and head north with Berg.

When they arrive where the family were last seen, the snow has melted and there is no sign of the bears. A passing whale tells the team they have been captured and taken off in a very sinister looking black ship.

There is excitement aplenty, with wooden squirrel helicopters, tunnels, bears in disguises, evil animal hunters and a daring rescue.

And so, the third quest for Uncle Pete and TM begins.

About the author

David C. Flanagan is a writer and award-winning journalist based in the Orkney Islands. Born, raised and educated in Edinburgh, he studied journalism in the city before returning to his ancestral home in Orkney, where he worked as a reporter on the local weekly newspaper, The Orcadian. He's been freelance since 2002, providing news, features and content for a variety of publications and websites. David also acts as location manager for film and television crews operating in Orkney.

His first book, Board, was published by Fledgling Press in 2015 and recounted his hapless attempts to learn to surf in middle-age on the wild Atlantic coast of Orkney. He still surfs, badly, and also loves skateboarding, fitness training and walking in the Scottish mountains.

The Uncle Pete series of books is David's first series for children, reflecting his passion for adventure stories, his love of animals, and his slightly wacky sense of humour.

About the Illustrator

Will Hughes is a young illustrator and cartoonist, who graduated from Edinburgh College of Art in 2019. Whatever he makes, whether it is stories, cartoons or prints, he likes his work to be comic and humorous, and to tell the stories of all sorts of ridiculous things - from a old woman with a hoard of very helpful cats to burglars who have to stand on each others shoulders to rob a house. He usually draws these with a dipping ink pen and watercolour paints to create energetic, lively fluid lines and colours.

Little Big Sister

by Eoin Colfer, illustrated by Celia Ivey

Age 4-7

The story of a girl growing up with dwarfism, told by Ireland's leading children's author

Summary

Little Big Sister tells the story of Starr, a girl with dwarfism who lives with her mum and younger sister, Babs. As the girls get older and Babs overtakes Starr's height, Starr understands there is something different about her.

When Starr starts primary school she is at first upset by being shorter than the other children. But with help from her mum and teacher, Starr finds the courage to shine.

A fun and gentle story about disability, family and fitting in, told by a major children's author and an illustrator with dwarfism.

Sales points

- Sensitive illustrated by artist with dwarfism
- Bestselling children's author with a track record of over 25 million sales
- Major publicity campaign to feature both author and illustrator across UK & Irish media
- Pitching for key festivals in Ireland and the UK. Appearance confirmed at Hay Festival

Sometimes the sisters did things they were not supposed to do, like riding Starr's skateboard indoors.

Or climbing on the furniture.

Or both together.

They especially liked climbing up to the kitchen cupboards where their mum hid treats up high.

Mum said they were like squirrels. They could climb onto anything. Except ...

A gripping high-concept speculative middle-grade novel from the award-winning author of The Wordsmith

Summary

Aria lives on Terros. She has just discovered that she has human DNA – which can only have come from Earth, a planet that Terros has decided to destroy.

Aria and her father are sent to Earth, to Dublin, to release the first of two doses of a deadly virus that will destroy humanity. Having loosed the virus, they find they must flee, as the police are hunting them down as terrorists. But Aria cannot go home, because she has caught the virus and cannot be readmitted to the disease-free Terros. Her father leaves without her.

Aria is alone on a strange planet, but there is another Terrosian in Dublin – a scientist Seb Roy, who is out to destroy Aria, because she holds the key to his own secret.

Sales points

Pea Pod Lullaby

About Pea Pod Lullaby

We are all in this world together - I, you, we. A glorious, heartfelt picture book about being there for one another from award-winning creators Glenda Millard and Stephen Michael King. 'I am the small green pea, you are the tender pod, hold me...' A mother and baby, a boy and a dog run for their lives. A polar bear, too, has come adrift. When will they find land? Who will welcome them in? In all the wide world we each need a safe place to call home. Words sing over the pictures in this evocative story: a beautiful lullaby about what we can be for each other.

- A celebration of babyhood and growing in an inclusive and diverse society
- Full of humour and laughter
- Lots for babies and toddlers to point at and spot in the illustrations
- Traces the milestones of a baby's first year

Reviews

"Follow five families and their babies through the first 12 months in a diverse and inclusive celebration of babyhood. Otter-Barry calls it a 21st century answer to the Alhbergs' Baby's Catalogue." - Fiona Noble The Bookseller

"I absolutely love it ... a package of pure joy" - Nikki Gamble, Just Imagine

"An absolutely gorgeous and inclusive celebration of babies during their first year of life... this book is a delight from cover to cover...there's never a dull moment as Ros's wonderfully detailed, amusing illustrations show (I love the soft toy's thought bubbles). Mary's straightforward narrative has a gentle playfulness with lots of baby sounds and comments from family members."

Sea Change

Save the Ocean

Ed. by Tobias Hickey, International Centre for the Picture Book in Society, with a foreword by Peter Thomson

Original images and messages from fifty international illustrators capture the beauty of oceanic life and the urgency of the dangers it faces

Each illustrator has provided an image of sea creatures, fishes or other sealife, with a message of inspiration to help point out the massive and imminent dangers climate change, pollution, over fishing and other human-led interventions are having on our oceans. The postcards are displayed under three headings: Celebrating the Ocean; The Danger to the Ocean; Take Action for the Ocean.

The world-class illustrators include Axel Scheffler, Roger Mello, Barroux, Piet Grobler, Yuval Zommer, Petr Horáček, Jackie Morris, Nicola Davies and Jane Ray.

The 35 countries represented include; Austria, Australia, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Brazil, Canada, China, Czech Republic, Estonia, Fiji, France, Germany, Ghana, Iran, Ireland, India, Israel, Italy, Japan, Malaysia, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal, Russia, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Switzerland, Syria, Taiwan, Turkey, UK, USA.

- Published to coincide with World Ocean Day, 8 June 2023
- Companion to the bestselling and award-winning Migrations: Open Hearts, Open Borders
- Highlights the critical situation facing the ocean and sea-life, just as Migrations did for refugees and migrants
- Royalties donated to Greenpeace International and IBBY International
- Foreword by Ambassador Peter Thomson, United Nations Secretary General's Special Envoy for the Ocean

Author Information

Tobias Hickey is a founder, with Piet Grobler, of the International Centre for the Picture Book in Society (ICPBS) based at the University of Worcester's School of Arts. Peter Thomson is a fifth generation Fijian, and since 2017 has been the UN Secretary General's Special Envoy for the Ocean. He has long been a campaigner for oceanic conservation and was among those involved in creating the UN's Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 14, in 2017, for the conservation and sustainable use of the oceans and seas. He lives in Australia.

Migrations

Open Hearts, Open Borders

Shaun Tan

RESUB

A unique collection of images created by illustrators from 28 countries on the theme of human migration

From all over the world, picture book illustrators sent original images and personal messages, in postcard form, for Migrations, an exhibition at the Biennial of Illustration, Bratislava, in 2017, curated by the University of Worcester's International Centre for the Picture Book in Society. Over fifty of the cards are reproduced in this very special book.

The book is divided into themes of Departures, Long Journeys, Arrivals and Hope for the Future.

The facsimile postcard text includes personal messages of hope from the illustrators, as well as quotes from writers including Emily Dickinson, WB Yeats, John Clare, Anita Desai and Robert Macfarlane.

Illustrators include Christopher Corr, Marie-Louise Gay, Piet Grobler, Petr Horacek, Isol, Jon Klassen, Neal Layton, PJ Lynch, Roger Mello, Jackie Morris, Jane Ray, Chris Riddell, Axel Scheffler and Shaun Tan.

Migrations carries a powerful message about human migration, showing how cultures, ideas and aspirations flow despite borders, barriers and bans.

- Introduction by Shaun Tan
- Endpapers designed by Jackie Morris and Robert Macfarlane.
- The Bibiana exhibition will tour the UK, South Africa, South Korea, USA, Australia
- A gift/memento book that transcends conventional classification
- Contributors' own notes and messages give the book a unique personal aspect
- All royalties will be shared between Amnesty International and IBBY (International Board on Books for Young People), who are supporting the project
- National Refugee Week 17-23 June 2019

About the International Centre for the Picture Book in Society

Migrations, an exhibition of the International Centre for the Picture Book in Society, was first shown at BIBIANA, Bratislava, in September 2017. The ICPBS, founded at the University of Worcester, England, by Piet Grobler and Tobias Hickey, emphasises and celebrates the power of illustration to engage with society, particularly by focusing on issues of cultural diversity and the inclusivity of minorities and socially disenfranchised people.

ADVANCED INFORMATION SHEET

A FRESH REIMAGINING OF A CLASSIC TALE, WITH A LONG-AWAITED TWIST.

This inspiring LGBT love story truly celebrates feminism, strength and justice.

While Cinder dreams of a girl with eyes the colour of the sea, Princess Ella longs for something she cannot yet imagine. When the two girls meet, their hearts are filled with joy, but what will happen when the clock strikes midnight?

With one family being a source of encouragement, the other determined to crush all attempts at happiness, the odds are firmly stacked against our heroes. Yet with the power of love and strength, hope prevails. The result is a richly purposeful and inspirational, tale where girl meets girl and love faces adversity. Will Cinder and Ella find their happily ever after?

 'UNCLE BOBBY'S WEDDING'

"When I was a child, there was only one story that I was told over and over again. Like so many others, I grew up believing that if I could just marry a prince, I would unlock that illusive door to 'happily ever after'. It took me half my life to finally realize that this narrative was never mine, and a decade more to build the positive role models and influences that allowed me to find not only my own story, but my amazing wife.

The story of Cinderella is filled with toxic stereotypes, yet at the heart of this well-loved fairy tale lies a beautiful love story. My goal was to transform this classic into a joyful celebration of love and strength for the LGBT community and beyond. Shining a light on the real truth... that love is love and that 'happily ever after' is here for us all."

I'm Not Scared of Monsters

Written and illustrated by Mike Byrne

Ella isn't afraid of silly old monsters--much to the dismay of the three big monsters who try their best to scare her!

There's only one thing she's afraid of...and just in case it comes her way, she knows her dad is always there to keep her safe.

This brightly illustrated, humorous picture book is perfect for small (but mighty) girls and their fathers to share.

Moose vs Goose

Written and illustrated by Patrick Brooks

Moose is the best! No, Goose is!

Moose and Goose are fierce rivals who compete at school, sports, and everything else! They live on opposite cliffs across the sea from each other. One day, they find themselves stuck on the beach below their homes. Can Moose and Goose set aside their rivalry to get back to their families? This humorous picture book shows how working together can solve a problem and build a friendship.

The Case of the Lighthouse Intruder

Kereen Getten

Keynote

The first in a major new mystery series for young readers by Kereen Getten, prize-winning author of When Life Gives You Mangoes and If You Read This

Description

Fayson has always wanted to be a detective. When her cousins recruit her to their top-secret gang on the island one summer, her dreams seem to be coming true. But the Greatest Gang of All Time don't live up to their name, and keep getting distracted from missions by things like food, falling asleep and a fair bit of squabbling!

Guided by her favourite mystery novels, Fayson takes charge and tries to track down clues about the strange shadow that has been appearing in the island's lighthouse. With tensions stirring within the gang, can she use all her smarts to solve the case?

Sales Points

- The delightful first title in a new mystery series about a gang of kids who enthusiastically investigate cases on a small island off the coast of Jamaica, perfect for readers of High-Rise Mystery by Sharna Jackson
- Kereen Getten's work has captured the hearts of critics and young readers and been shortlisted for several prizes, including the Waterstones Children's Book Prize

Author Biography

Kereen Getten grew up in Jamaica where she would climb fruit trees in the family garden and eat as much mango, guinea and pear as she could without being caught. She now lives in Birmingham with her family and writes stories about her childhood experiences. Her work has been shortlisted for the Waterstones Children's Book Prize, the Spark Award, Warwickshire Junior Book Award and the Jhalak Children's & YA Prize. When Life Gives You Mangoes and If You Read This are also available from Pushkin Children's.

SAM FRANCISCO KING OF THE DISCO

written by Sarah Tagholm, illustrated
by Binny Talib

A toe-tapping adventure that explains why cats sleep all day!

Superstar DJ Sam Francisco's party is keeping Buzzkill Bill awake. He sends his dogs to shut it down. Then pest control, the firebrigade and the police! When Bill pulls the plug things look bleak, but luckily it's the people (and the cats) who make a party, not the fancy equipment.

Key selling points

- Author Tagholm is a rising star whose rhymes are irresistibly toe-tapping
- Binny Talib's felines are unforgettable including a Bowie-esque Sam
- Children get an introduction to musical genres as each adversary is won over by something different, from jazz to techno
- Silver foiled cover for full disco effect

About the illustrator

Binny creates fantastic books for kids and fabulous wallpaper for grown-ups. Her family includes dog Paddington who would love a cat disco.

Location: Sydney, Australia.

Sam Francisco King of Disco

978-1-91539-503-0

SAM FRANCISCO,
off to the disco!
With...

Queen-Bee Jean,
looking fierce in green.

Blaze McFades,
sharp in shades.

Frederick Fish Pie,
rocking his bow tie.

Cosmo Wildcard,
in a pink leotard.

And Billy-Bob Bananas,
STILL IN HIS PYJAMAS?!

The Bear who had Nothing to Wear

Jeanne Willis and Brian Fitzgerald

Albie arrived wearing NOTHING but fur, he could have been either a Him or Her...
Most teddy bears let their owner decide, but Albie would not, for a bear has its pride.

But each outfit that Albie purchases – from fairy to pirate, from cowboy to elegant city gent – proves unsuitable in some way, and by the end of the week his bedroom is heaped with discarded clothes. How will he dress in order to feel like himself?

Key Selling Points

- Jeanne Willis's trademark verse makes this a delight to read aloud
- Children will love all the dressing up outfits, recognising we have agency to create our own identity
- Life-affirming as Albie eventually discovers that he prefers just to be himself
- Covers days of the week and different professions
- Gently points at sustainability - the perils of consumerism, and the joys of donation and sharing
- Riotous illustrations from an up and coming Irish artist (I don't want to go to School/Little Tiger)

Sales and Marketing

- Will be sent out widely for review and is eligible for a variety of prizes including for Irish illustrators
- Will pitch for coverage in Books for Keeps, Reading Zone.
- Fun downloadables and teacher resources planned
- Jeanne Willis regularly tours schools

Jeanne Willis lives in London. Her many books have won the Silver Medal Smarties Prize, the Nasen Special Needs Award, the Sheffield Children's Book Award and the Red House Children's Book Award.
Brian Fitzgerald is an Irish illustrator who lives and works in Dún Laoghaire. He won the Bologna Fair International Silent Book Competition in 2014.

Captain Toby

By Satoshi Kitamura

'A welcome re-issue of a book first published in the 1980s' English Association

It's a dark and stormy night and Toby cannot sleep. The whole house seems to be tossing and turning like a ship in the middle of the ocean...and soon Toby enters a fantasy world where he is indeed at sea, caught up in a strange and wild adventure.

Key Selling Points

- - New edition with bigger trim size, new vignette and endpapers
- - Empowers children to unleash their imagination and relish the idea of surreal adventures
- - Enough drama and danger to give a thrill but with a safe and happy ending
- - A gatefold flap at the end of the book reveals a surprising and endearing comedy
- - New and exciting vocabulary to challenge KS1 children
- - 'a surreal and dramatic story that shows the power of imagination - with the most beautiful illustrations! I cannot recommend it highly enough!' I Teach Things
- - 'The story is pacy and thrilling and the voyage dangerous, but the fantasy element makes it safe read...' Just Imagine

Sales and Marketing

- Much-loved illustrator regularly reviewed and interviewed in specialist and national media, including Books for Keeps, YLG and Booktrust
- Companion title to LILY TAKES A WALK. First published in the 1980s, both are evergreen titles that are still in demand.

Currently living in Japan, Satoshi Kitamura has created over 20 of his own picture books, as well as having illustrated many by prominent authors such as Hiawyn Oram, John Agard and Colin McNaughton. His books have been translated into more than 20 languages. Satoshi has won awards including the Mother Goose Award, Silver Award for the Smarties Prize, and the National Art Library Illustrations Award.

MY BROTHER GEORGE

KELLY ALLEN, ZOEY ALLEN

THE BOOK

Molly's brother George tells funny jokes and has the best laugh! When they are together, they have all sorts of adventures, whether that's on the beach, climbing trees or snuggling on the sofa at home. Sometimes other children laugh at George and don't understand that his long hair and clips are just part of who he is and how he is. An uplifting story about daring to be different, but finding our place as part of loving, happy families.

THE AUTHOR

Kelly and Zoey both live in South Wales, where they co-parent their two children and two dogs. Together they run KelZo Jewellery, a small LGBTQ+ polymer clay jewellery business.

Kelly Allen is a queer autistic writer, often found with her head buried in a book or getting lost on a long rambling dog walk...

Zoey is a transgender singer songwriter who loves being creative. She also runs the blog and social channels for Our Transitional Life, an insight into the life of transgender woman and her family, challenging the misconceptions of society.

MAGIC FACES: SUPERHERO MEGA MISSION

ESI MERLEH

THE BOOK

The magic face paints have transformed Austin, Alanna and sausage dog Ozzy into superheroes!

When two supervillains, Foul Prune and Brains, swoop into the busy City Museum in a flying machine, they steal a priceless gem and Austin and Alanna narrowly escape being hit with their Freeze Ray.

Alanna Storm and Austin Steel must track the supervillains down, return the gem and save the museum before their time in this superhero world runs out!

THE AUTHOR

Esi is a writer, editor, and Consultant in Public Health Medicine. She studied medicine at the University of Oxford, and her academic research looks at the interplay between film and public health. Alongside Magic Faces, she is working on her first middle grade novel, PRINCESS AMINA AND THE SEA OF KNOWLEDGE, set in medieval Timbuktu.

Abeeha Tariq is a Pakistani-Irish freelance illustrator, based in the UK. She primarily works digitally and was commended for Faber's FAB Prize in illustration in 2020. Growing up, she would have loved to see herself in the countless stories she read and, as an adult, she is invested in illustrating and telling stories with diverse characters and communities that represent our world today. She loves bringing her work to life with colours, shapes, and textures.

MATILDA MEETS THE UNIVERSE

DOM CONLON

THE BOOK

So, you want to make contact with aliens? How hard can it be?

Meet Matilda as she launches her mission to discover how likely it is that life exists on other planets. With the help of her friends and family she learns all she can. What was the Big Bang? How does the universe expand? How are stars and planets are formed?

Along the way she will discover the electromagnetic spectrum, the speed of light, and so much more in an easy-to-understand look at physics, history, language, and of course the all important snacks.

Illustrated by Heidi Cannon.

THE AUTHOR

Poet and author Dom Conlon divides his time between staring at the moon, writing books, and thinking about cake. This Rock That Rock, his collection of poetry with award-winning illustrator Viviane Schwarz, has been praised by Chris Riddell as being "simply out of this world" and Brian Bilston as "life-affirming". Dom is an occasional guest on BBC Radio where, as his teachers often noted, he talks too much.

Heidi is a children's book illustrator and author based in the North of England. She loves to paint, draw and imagine delightful, wondrous scenes. She can't remember a time when there wasn't a tin of crayons or a messy paintbrush in reach. Her work combines traditional and digital techniques and is inspired by my love of colour, music, travel and nostalgia.

She completed her M.A. in Children's book illustration at UCLan in 2020.

THE THING ABOUT LEMONS

TASHA HARRISON

THE BOOK

Ori Reynolds has just made the biggest mistake of her life. One that's resulted in:

- 1) losing all but one of her friends,
 - 2) feeling like the World's Most Terrible Person,
- and
- 3) having all her fun summer plans cancelled.

And, as if things couldn't get any worse, she now has no choice but to go on a road trip with her estranged grandad Claude to his home in the French countryside. Talk about life giving you lemons! However, while Ori scoffs at her mum's suggestion to "make lemonade", her sour situation is about to turn significantly sweeter than she could ever have imagined... The Thing About Lemons is the perfect summer read for fans of The Kissing Booth, To All The Boys I Loved Before and Sex Education.

Pub Date: June 2023

Tasha is an author, copywriter and fiction editor, living in Brighton with her husband, children, and extremely greedy Labrador. When not at her laptop, she can be found in the local park, apologising to strangers for her dog's antics and sheepishly offering them wet wipes. (Eco-friendly ones, of course.)

Escape The Mummy's Tomb

Written by Philip Steele

MAKE A THRILLING ESCAPE FROM AN ANCIENT EGYPTIAN TOMB USING LOGIC, PROBLEM-SOLVING AND CRITICAL THINKING

BEWARE! You are about to enter an escape book, a book in which you could become trapped - forever. It is an escape room in the form of a book.

It is 1300 BCE in the Valley of the Kings and you've fallen into the shaft of a long forgotten tomb. Egyptian gods guard an important mummified pharaoh. The tomb is enshrined in magic and mystery and protected with traps and curses.

Stay calm, use your wits and consult the Eye of Horus wheel on the front cover. If you make the correct choices, you will make your escape!

Use the clues, solve the puzzles and make your escape!
