About the Author

JAMES CARTER is an award-winning poet, non-fiction writer and ambassador for National Poetry Day. James travels all over the UK with his melodica (that's Steve) to give lively performances and workshops. In the last twenty years he has visited over 1400 schools, and performed at various prestigious literary festivals. He lives with his family in Oxfordshire and offers global virtual poetry sessions. www.jamescarterpoet.co.uk

About the Illustrator

Nathalia Takeyama was born in 1996, São Paulo, Brazil. Being half Japanese, half Brazilian she grew up surrounded by two beautiful cultures that inspire her every day. She loved to draw since she was a little kid so she went to college to pursue her dreams and majored in Animation Design in 2017. The world and nature inspire her to be a better version of herself and evolve her illustration so she can bring joy to as many people as she can. Nathalia works mainly in digital media, with a love for texture, colorful palettes, and diverse characters. You can find her reading a book, watching a movie, taking her adopted dog – Lucy - for a walk, daydreaming, and doodling away fun ideas.

She now lives in the Oxfordshire countryside, near the River Thames, and loves to write books about the natural world and all the amazing creatures in it.

About the Illustrator

Natalie attended Plymouth College of Art and Design, pursued a career in the Royal Air Force, then returned to Visual Communication as a mature student in Aberdeen. She has been drawing and making things ever since she can remember, coming from a creative family, and her dream job is to illustrate stories full of magic, humour and mythology, or anything a bit scary. Natalie now lives in Devon with her family.

Imperfectly Perfect

Perry Emerson

Illustrated by Hoang Giang

What is imperfectly perfect?

It's a flower growing from a cracked pavement. It's the memory of a happy time, etched in a wrinkled smile.

It's taking something broken, mending it with love, and making something new. Something unique. Beautiful. And imperfectly perfect.

A story that cherishes beauty in imperfection.

Pub Date: 7 September 2023 Price: £12.99 ISBN: 9781801044981

- A thought-provoking picture book inspired, by the idea that beauty can be found in something that may appear to be imperfect.
- A heartwarming story about a brother and sister navigating a fractious time in their relationship.
- A beautiful book that marries a lyrically powerful text with stunning illustrations.
- This uplifting picture book is the ideal companion for readers of The Most Magnificent Thing by Ashley Spires, What Do You See When You Look at a Tree? by Emma Carlisles and The Station Cat by Stephen Hogtun.

About the Author

Perry is a writer and editor at Little Tiger Press, where he works mostly on picture books and sometimes on novelty books. When he's not making books, he spends his time playing music and discovering new restaurants. Perry lives in London with his partner and their much-too-fluffy cat.

About the Illustrator

Giang has been working as a children's book illustrator for more than 10 years. She works in a studio with her partner and three cats. She also loves comics and graphic novels, and dreams of one day finding the time to make her own comic book.

CLIVE PENGUIN

Clive Penguin

Huw Lewis Jones

Illustrated by Ben Sanders

Who's ever heard of a penguin that doesn't like the cold? Surrounded by the same old snow day in day out and always bloomin' freezing, Clive Penguin wishes he was somewhere else. SOMEONE else. But, with an epic discovery just around the corner, the solution might be easier than he thinks . . .
