I'M FINE, THANKS!

JONO GANZ

From the author-illustrator of Mildred the Gallery Cat comes another charming caper about a young girl learning that it's okay to ask for help.

Little One is finally grown up enough to go out with her friends on one of their big adventures! But when things start to go extraordinarily wrong, Little One is determined to fend for herself.

Thousands of miles away from home, can she conquer her fear and learn to ask for help?

AUTHOR BIOGRAPHY

Jono Ganz draws and writes in his home in London, which he shares with his partner, cat and a 19th century weaving loom. He likes folklore, wonky shapes and the music of ABBA.

For his debut book, Mildred the Gallery Cat, Jono was shortlisted for the 2023 Klaus Flugge Prize for the most exciting and promising newcomer to children's picture book illustration.

With a string of the grocer's best sausages wrapped tightly around her boot, Little One set off to catch up with her friends.

It wasn't perfect, and they were definitely a bit smelly, but it would have to do for now.

NOT IN THE MOOD

JOSEPH NAMARA HOLLIS

This touching picture book from the winner of the 2022 Klaus Flugge Prize (Pierre's New Hair) is a beautiful exploration of emotions and the power of friendship.

Hedgehog didn't want to play outside, he didn't want to play dress-up, he didn't want to go sky-diving, he even didn't want his favourite noodles. He was simply, Not in the Mood.

A heartwarming tale of a hedgehog who wakes up feeling sad and doesn't know why. But with patience and understanding, his friends help him understand that it's okay to have tough days.

AUTHOR BIOGRAPHY

Joseph Namara Hollis is an award-winning illustrator passionate about creating picture books. He currently lectures at Nottingham Trent University.

In 2022, Joseph won the Klaus Flugge Prize for Illustration. He was also named V&A Student Illustrator of the Year in 2018, and a Highly Commended in the Macmillan Prize for Illustration.

The first step
is to close the eyes,
to calm the heart,
slow down the breathing,
have patience and a lot of concentration.

How do you do it?
How do you do it?

The second step
is paying attention.
Call the wind through the nose
and let it go by the mouth.

Breathe
slowly
breathe
slowly.

How do you do it?

THE DREAM KITE

GRACE HALLWORTH AUTHOR

SOPHIE BASS ILLUSTRATOR

Arty has a magical dream about flying a wonderful kite made of many colours. But when his mother wakes him, he realises that it was just his imagination.

Will Arty's family be able to help him make his dream come true of making his own marvellous kite in time for the kite festival? And will he know how to fly it without the help of his friends?

AUTHOR BIOGRAPHIES

Grace Hallworth was a celebrated children's librarian and storyteller. Born in 1929 in Trinidad, Grace moved to the UK on a Churchill Fellowship following internships at Toronto and New York City public libraries. She was then appointing children's librarian for Herfordshire Libraries until her retirement, when she became the first chair of the Society of Storytelling. Grace published several collections of stories and rhymes set in the Caribbean, preserving and sharing the rich tradition of African folklore in the West Indies that has been passed through generations orally.

Sophie Bass is a London-based illustrator of mixed British and Trinidadian heritage. She creates work inspired by music, social justice, mythology and symbolism. Sophie previously illustrated John Agard's Windrush Child.

IN OUR HANDS

LUCY FARFORT

Now available in paperback, this timeless fable from debut author Lucy Farfort is sure to entrance and empower in equal measure.

We called it 'The Dulling'. It had been creeping in for such a long time, and had started so gradually, that most people barely even noticed...

When the world is plagued with isolation and cursed to live without colour, it is up to a group of determined children to grow a seed of hope that will inspire everyone to come together and build a better future.

AUTHOR BIOGRAPHIES

Lucy Farfort is a freelance illustrator based in Newcastle. She is of mixed Caribbean/English heritage, and is passionate about the need for more diversity in children's publishing. Her illustrations are created using a mix of traditional and digital media. She won first prize for illustration, in Faber Children's inaugural FAB Prize competition, in 2017.

Yet we all knew deep down,
that together we'd started something incredible.

THE EXTRAORDINARY GARDENER

, SAM BOUGHTON

SHORTLISTED FOR THE KLAUS FLUGGE PRIZE 2019. Longlisted for the CILIP Kate Greenaway Medal 2019.

Joe is a boy just like any other, but Joe loves to imagine. Joe lives in a pretty ordinary tower block, in a rather ordinary city. His world is rather grey. However, he spends his time imagining a wonderful world filled with exotic plants and unusual animals. Once day Joe decides to plant a seed on his balcony, he waits and waits but nothing happens! Joe gives up and goes back to his daily life, but one day when he least expects it he spots that the seed has turned into the most beautiful tree. Joe begins caring for the tree and growing lots of other plants on his balcony and soon everyone in the neighbourhood is getting involved.

A charming story about the important of nature, teaching us that if we work hard enough our dreams really can come true!

In Joe's
world,
plants grew taller than skyscrapers,

and animals unlike any other roamed the streets and soared through the sky.

Every day, Joe longed
for his world
to come to life.

Then one night,
while he was reading
his favourite book,
an idea began
to grow.
