The Final Reckoning Book Three of The Deptford Mice

Robin Jarvis

Keynote

A new edition of the classic children's fantasy adventure set in a magical world of mice and rats in the sewers of Deptford

Description

The ghostly spirit of Jupiter has returned, more terrifying than before. Bent on revenge, he smothers the world in an eternal winter of snow and ice. The Deptford Mice are worried: the mystical bats have fled from the attic, and a new rat army is gathering strength. With food short and no sign of spring, the mice know there's a desperate struggle ahead. Who knows how many will survive and at what cost?

Sales Points

- The third book in the Deptford Mice trilogy - a beloved classic in the dark fantasy genre, written by the acclaimed author Robin Jarvis
- Packed with brand-new illustrations, bringing the world of the Deptford Mice to life
- A must-read for fans of dark fantasy, Brian Jacques' Redwall and Kieran Larwood's Podkin One-Ear books

Reviews

- 'A humdinger of a tale [with] a poignant denouement that will satisfy the trilogy's fans' - Booklist
- 'A superlative conclusion to a top-notch series' - Kirkus
- 'The perfect stories for dark, cosy evenings. A once read, never forgotten series' - Phil Hickes, author of The Haunting of Aveline Jones

Author Biography

Robin Jarvis is a British children's author who has entertained (and pleasantly terrified) generations of children with his brilliantly imagined dark fantasy stories, including the Deptford Mice and Whitby Witches series. He studied graphic design in Newcastle and then worked in television and advertising making model monsters and puppets before writing The Dark Portal, the first book on the Deptford Mice series, which was the runner up for the Smarties book prize in 1989.

HOTEL FOR CATS: NO ROOM FOR TROUBLE

Written by Marie Pavlenko, Illustrated by Marie Voyelle

FUN • FELINE • FRIENDS

Help! Magda's nephew Georges is coming to stay at the Hotel for Cats – and Mulot is terrified. When Georges last came to visit, he teased the poor cat so much that Mulot has developed a terrible phobia. His loyal friends, Bobine, Couscousse and Carpette, with the help of new cat Ciboulot, work on a plan to help their friend. But can he face his fear before Georges arrives?

- The second charming tale following the sweet and loveable group of feline friends.
- From the bestselling series, translated from the original French by Anna Brooke and with delightful illustrations throughout.
- Heartwarming and funny – a classic little gem for readers aged 7 and up.
- Perfect for fans of Paddington and Mango and Bambang.

QUIRKY • ROMAN • ADVENTURE

Hiya! I'm Silvia, an ordinary kid just like you. At least, I was ordinary until I wound up in Ancient Rome as a demi goddess. Yeah, that took me by surprise too. But seriously, travelling back in time is nothing compared to what's happening now: Medusa the gorgon wants her head back – and she's chosen me to find it!

- Packed full of Roman and Ancient Greek mythology – as you've never seen it before!
- A laugh-out-loud funny family caper full of excitement and heart; perfect for fans of Loki, Horrible Histories and Who Let the Gods Out?.
- Readers will go on a time-travel adventure – with a LARPing twist.
- Perfect for ages 8 and up; sure to be a hit with KS2 readers, as Romans and Greeks are a staple on the curriculum.

THE DARK WITHIN US

Jess Popplewell

GRIPPING • OTHER-WORLDLY • REDEMPTION

When homeless schoolgirl, Jenny, meets demon, Luc, they make a dangerous pact.

Both have been scarred by the same childhood event – the day Jenny’s soul was stolen by Luc’s father. Now Luc has promised to return it, but can a demon be trusted? Jenny must find the courage to follow Luc into Hell and save him from the darkness that waits.

- The stunning debut novel from the Times/Chicken House Children’s Competition 2022 Chairman’s Choice Prize-winner, Jess Popplewell.
- Draws on the author’s own experience of homelessness, making this a powerful, authentic story.
- Dante’s Inferno meets Euphoria in this fresh contemporary YA.
- An inventive, funny and quirky reimagining of a modern version of hell.

PICTURE & NOVELTY

MY SAREE

GITA VARADARAJAN Illustrated by ARCHANA SREENIVASAN

A sweet and joyful story of self-discovery and identity from the same celebrated creative team who brought us My Bindi.

I look in the mirror, I see me in my saree. And my heart is full... In my beautiful peacock blue saree. I bring my palms together and smile. "Namaste, I am Divya, and this is my saree."

Divya loves her mother's sarees. Each one is unique; some are soft and silky, some are stiff and crisp, and some dazzle with gold and silver. And she can't wait for the day when she's old enough to wear one herself! It's Heritage Night at school and everyone gets to share something from their culture with the class. Divya hopes this is her chance to finally wear her first saree. Will Divya get to wear one after all?

In this tender follow-up to My Bindi, author Gita Varadarajan's lyrical and moving text is accompanied with Archana Sreenivasan's charming and vibrant illustrations and bring to life another beautiful story as a young girl discovers a new way to embrace her Indian culture.

Key selling points

- A heartwarming story about heritage
- Perfect for any child interested in learning more about their culture
- A very special book for mother and child to read together

About the Author: Gita Varadarajan was born and raised in India. She has worked with children all over the world, and now teaches second grade in Princeton, New Jersey. Save Me a Seat, written with Sarah Weeks, was her first novel.

About the Illustrator:

Archana Sreenivasan is a freelance illustrator based in Bangalore, India. Her illustrations have been published in magazines, children's books, book covers, and comics. She finds the natural world and people watching most inspiring and engaging.

A BOY CALLED BOOK

VINCENT RALPH Illustrated by AARON CUSHLEY

A profound celebration of books, proving that stories make us who we are.

When a young boy called Book asks his mother why she named him Book, she says, "Because your life is a story. You can write it however you want."

As he grows older, Book lives out different kinds of stories: an adventure book as he climbs the tallest tree, a joke book when he's with a friend, and an encyclopaedia when he fills his head with facts. He also learns to turn to stories for comfort when something awful happens. And as his mum said, it's up to him to write the next chapters...

Key selling points

- This is a perfect book to introduce children to the idea that there are lots of different kinds of books
- The ideal gift for booklovers of any age!
- Author Vincent Ralph is a New-York-Times-bestselling author of teen fiction. This is his picture book debut.
- Illustrator Aaron Cushley is a rising star based in Northern Ireland.

About the Author: Vincent Ralph is the bestselling author of YA thrillers 14 Ways to Die and Lock the Doors. His debut was originally published as Are You Watching? in the UK by Penguin Random House and is out in the US with Sourcebooks Fire. His second book, Lock the Doors, is now out in both the UK and the US. Both novels are New York Times bestsellers and Lock the Doors is also a USA Today bestseller and the winner of the Southern Schools Book Award.

About the Illustrator: From Belfast, Aaron Cushley studied Illustration and Graphic design at the University Of Ulster Belfast School Of Art & Design. Aaron's work stems from his inner child and the innocence and creativity that emerges when he takes a pencil in his hand.

NOT ANOTHER UNICORN BOOK!

LAURA BAKER Illustrated by CHRIS JEVONS

PICTURE BOOK

ROOTS OF LOVE: FAMILIES CHANGE, LOVE REMAINS

SARAH ASUQUO

A reassuring journey through a child's worries about her family changing. Tia has had the best day ever, until her parents tell her that they are separating. To top it off, she has to present a project at school all about her family. With the help of her school friends, can Tia learn that there are many different types of family, and that each one can be full of love and happiness?

Key selling points

- A reassuring journey through a child's worries about her family changing
- With questions at the back for families to discuss together to relieve anxieties and combat feelings of sadness
- Beautifully illustrated, the book deals with issues of divorce, family structure and love
- Sarah's first book, Shine, has been taken into over 40 UK primary schools to be included in the curriculum and libraries

About the author: Sarah Asuquo was born and raised in the vibrant East End of London in a Nigerian household, so she thrives on culture and diversity. Her writing venture is influenced by her experiences with the children she has encountered, and she aims to write books that reflect the multicultural society of today in an accurate, relatable, inspiring and positive way. This is her second picture book with Scholastic. @sarahasuquo_

About the illustrator: Ruthine is a children's book illustrator who in 2021 completed the inaugural Pathways into Children's Publishing programme. She is based in South West London and her parents came to the UK many years ago, from Dominica and French Guyana. She loves to work on real paper with pastels, pencils or paint, as well as digitally. @ruthineburton

'My presentation's not the same, because my family has changed.
Things aren't the way they used to be;
my dad is moving out, you see.

But I'm the trunk that makes us one.
Keeps us connected and so strong.

So even when we're not together,
our roots of love will last forever.

For this project I chose a tree,
to represent my family.

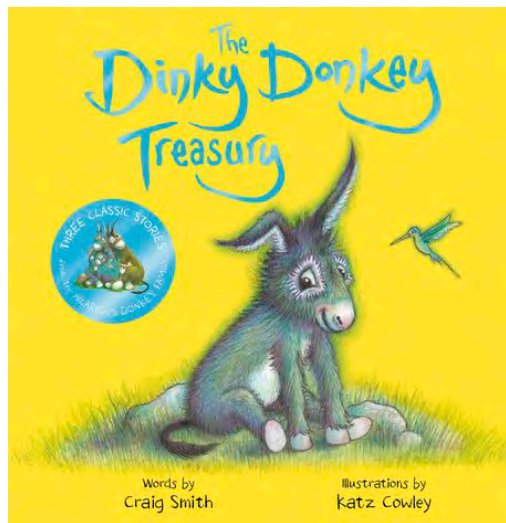

My arms are branches: Mum and Dad,
They've grown apart, which made me sad.

We'll always be a family,
even if things change again.
I will miss Dad, but I can't wait to see him every weekend.'

Wonky Donkey had a child,
it was a little girl.

Hee Haw!

She was so cute and small,
she had beautiful long eyelashes,
she loved to listen to rowdy music,
she painted her hooves bright pink,
she had to go pee-pee ...

and she loved to play the piano.

She was a plinky-plonky
winky-tinky inky-pinky punky blinky dinky donkey.

Upon a wooden seat
a girl swings high.
Legs out, head back,

A climbing frame
for little feet and hands.

The autumn leaves fly off and whirl around
And piglets guzzle acorns on the ground.

PIZZA FACE: A GRAPHIC NOVEL

REX OGLE

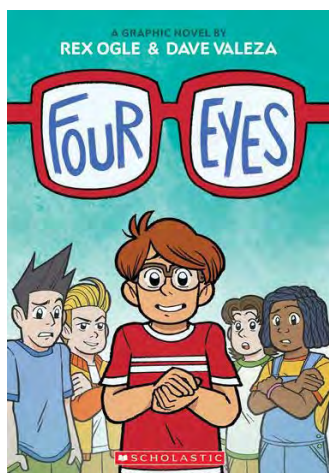

From Rex Ogle and Dave Valeza, the creators of Four Eyes, comes the second book in this humorous and heartfelt middle-school memoir trilogy.

It's time to face facts!

On the first day of seventh grade, Rex encounters a bump in the road – a big angry pimple right in the center of his forehead. And this is only the beginning of his problems. What follows is a frustrating battle with stubborn acne, body odour, and other embarrassments of puberty. Still struggling with a home life edging on the poverty line, Rex can't afford to buy the acne medication or deodorant he needs, and bullies are noticing Rex's awkward transformation. On top of it all, things have gotten weird with his friends, making Rex feel like he can't do or say anything right. So far, seventh grade stinks!

Key selling points

- A beautiful coming-of-age graphic memoir
- Includes heartwarming and funny arcs that perfectly portrays the highs and lows of school

COMIC

OSAMU TEZUKA, SAMUEL SATTIN Illustrated by GURIHIRU

UNICO tells the incredible story of a young unicorn who, after enraging the evil goddess Venus, is banished from the heavens and forgets all he once was. Saved from oblivion by the kindhearted West Wind, Unico continues to help others, before having to escape Venus again and begin a new adventure. In this first manga, Unico awakes in a mysterious land and is befriended by a resourceful watch cat, Chloe, who feels protective of the young unicorn. When they find themselves near a small village in the forest, they take refuge with a kindly, but helpless, old woman. To take care of her, Chloe begs Unico to turn her into a human girl, but that act of kindness has unforeseen consequences: Unico's love has awakened Venus and her minion, Byron, who want to destroy them both!

Key selling points

- The incredible tale of a young unicorn, perfect for a new generation of manga readers. A fantastic reboot of a beloved story by Astro Boy creator Osamu Tezuka, the 'God of Manga'.
- Filled with powerful, full-colour artwork and reads left to right in the Western comics style to match the original manga.

About the author: Samuel Sattin is an American writer. His books include the multi-volume Unico series for Scholastic Graphix, Buzzing, Side Quest, The Silent End, and (as co-author) both A Kids Guide to Anime and Manga and The Essential Anime Guide: 50 Iconic Films, Standout Series, and Cult Masterpieces. He has also adapted the Academy Award-nominated films WolfWalkers, Song of the Sea, and The Secret of Kells to the graphic novel format. He graduated with an MFA in comics from the California College of the Arts and works as a studio writer for Schulz Creative Associates, aka Snoopy Central. Samuel resides with his wife in Northern California, and travels frequently to Japan.

NICOLE ANDELFINGER Illustrated by FELIA HANAKATA

Don't miss this original canon prequel story set in the world of the Emmy® Award-winning Netflix animated series The Dragon Prince, with story by the creators of the series and of the New York Times bestselling Through the Moon (The Dragon Prince Graphic Novel #1).

In the quiet town of Noct in the Human Kingdom of Katolis, a storm has been brewing. By the time young princes Callum and Ezran arrive, the community is in a state of panic. A mysterious force has been sweeping through town, putting any adult who encounters it into a deep sleep. Children recount what they saw – some describe a beast, others a dragon, some even mention an elf – but is there truly something sinister at work, or have their imaginations gotten the best of them?

Key selling points

- Perfect for fans of the series
- Full-colour illustrations inside
- An original story set in the world of The Dragon Prince

About the author: Nicole Andelfinger was crafting stories as far back as when colouring in the squiggles on your book was considered cool. Since then, she's only continued to dwell in the realms of magic, monsters and myth. She lives with her absolutely, most decidedly perfect cat in Los Angeles.

About the illustrator: Felia Hanakata is an Indonesia-based illustrator. She believes story-telling breathes life and colours into the world. When she is not drawing, she reads, drinks lots of coffee, plays video games and looks for inspiration in nature and her surroundings. You can find her online at feliahanakata.com.

GRAPHIC NOVEL

BSCG 7: BOY-CRAZY STACEY

ANN M. MARTIN Illustrated by GALE GALLIGAN

Stacey and Mary Anne are babysitting for the Pike family for two weeks at the New Jersey shore. Things are great in Sea City: there's a gorgeous house right on the beach, a boardwalk, plenty of sun and sand... and the cutest boy Stacey has ever seen!

Mary Anne thinks that Stacey should leave Scott alone and focus on the Pike kids, but Stacey's in love. Looking for reasons to hang around his lifeguard stand takes up all her time, which means Mary Anne has to do the job of two babysitters! How can she tell Stacey that Scott just isn't interested without ruining their friendship and breaking Stacey's heart?

Key selling points

- Now a major Netflix series
- Adapted by bestselling author Gale Galligan
- Gorgeous illustrations that perfectly capture all the drama and humour of the original novels
- Gale Galligan's storytelling is accessible and heartfelt

THE INFINITE MINUTE (THE MAGIC HOUR #2)

DAVID WOLSTENCROFT

What would you do if you were stuck in a timeloop?

As Ailsa reaches her thirteenth birthday, her celebration is dampened by a school rumour that has caused a huge fall out with her best friend. Worse than the rumour we'll call THE TERRIBLE THING, the Brollachan monster is at large in Edinburgh and it's causing chaos.

After all, when something from another world appears in this one, it's only natural that things become unbalanced. Time is worse than ever before. Mornings are evenings and all clocks read different times of the day. Nobody knows where they are supposed to be.

The only thing for Ailsa to do is bravely enter Middlemarket, the immortal world behind Edinburgh and find a way to lure the Brollachan back to where it belongs. But as the days keep repeating themselves, Ailsa is stuck in a time loop like no other, and THE TERRIBLE THING soon becomes THE TERRIBLE THINGS – the monster is hiding, days are getting shorter, and somehow Ailsa must fix TIME before it stops forever. Can Ailsa get out of the time loop and break the curse of the INFINITE MINUTE?

Key selling points

- What would you do with an extra hour in the day? With a unique hook and exploration of time, this MG adventure is like no other. A distinct offering for readers and retailers. Brilliantly-written, from an author with credibility within the film/tv/publishing industry. David Wolstencroft is the celebrated and award-winning screenwriter and producer of Spooks and Versailles. A beautiful Scottish setting makes this a standout story.

About the author: David Wolstencroft is a multi-award-winning screenwriter and author. After winning the RTS Best Newcomer Award for his first script, PSYCHOS (Channel 4), he went on to create and write iconic BAFTA-winning spy drama SPOOKS which ran for 10 seasons on BBC One. His other work includes Scottish BAFTA-nominated legal thriller series THE ESCAPE ARTIST, starring David Tennant, and co-creating epic drama VERSAILLES (BBC). David is also the author of two bestselling adult thrillers, GOOD NEWS BAD NEWS (Richard and Judy's Book Club selection) and CONTACT ZERO (winner of Ian Fleming Silver Dagger award), both of which are currently in development as feature films. THE MAGIC HOUR was his debut Children's novel. This is the second in the series.

THE LONELY BELOW

G. HARON DAVIS

Eva doesn't love being the new girl at school, but she doesn't hate it either. Thanks to her mom's job, her family is used to moving around. But Blythe Academy isn't a normal school. The teachers are all strange and insular, like they're hiding something from the students . . . And of course, there are the ghosts. Eva's new friend Ami tells her the story – Blythe Academy has always felt haunted, but fifty years ago part of the school collapsed, killing a classroom of students and their teacher. Things haven't been the same since.

To most students it's just a scary story. But it's not long until Eva is having her own terrifying run-ins with the ghosts, and they seem to be trying to communicate with her. Soon she's having unnerving visions that seem to predict another collapse. Add in suddenly having to move into the dorms and her classmates finding out she's autistic before she's ready to tell them and Eva is completely overwhelmed.

Key selling points

- A tense, haunting story featuring a Black, autistic protagonist who uncovers a dark secret at her new school.
- The chilling middle grade debut from the brilliant G. Haron Davis, filled with horror and thrilling suspense that will keep you on the edge of your seat!

About the author: G. Haron Davis is a New York-born, Tennessee-raised young adult author, cat parent and fishkeeping enthusiast. Currently residing in the outskirts of Kansas city, Missouri, they specialize in horror and several shades of fantasy. In their spare time, they can be found playing video games, asking absurd questions on Twitter, and preaching the gospel of BTS. They co-founded marginsbox, a diversity-celebrating subscription book box, with Adrienne White in 2019.

THE BOY WHO CRIED GHOST

IAN EAGLETON

There's a ghost in Richard's wardrobe.

Every day he carries out a series of rituals which he believes will keep the ghost trapped inside. He tries to tell his friends and family, but they dismiss his worries and concerns as being part of his OCD. But then one day, the wardrobe door is opened...

And that's when the hauntings begin.

Key selling points

- With his highly-acclaimed debut Glitter Boy, Ian Eagleton is a rising star in middle-grade fiction
- Richard's struggles with anxiety were inspired by the author's lifelong struggle with Obsessive Compulsive Disorder
- An unsettling ghost story perfect for fans of THE BOY AT THE BACK OF THE CLASS, Jennifer Killick and Neil Gaiman's THE GRAVEYARD BOOK

About the author: Ian is the director of The Reading Realm. He is also a content creator and resource writer for various educational organisations, including The Literacy Shed and Authorfy. Ian has taught in primary schools for 13 years and during this time has been a member of the senior management team, a phase leader, and literacy co-ordinator. He has an NQPSL, which focused on improving reading. Ian has also run staff training and writing workshops for children. He especially enjoys sharing picture books, poetry and creative writing activities with the children he teaches. He won the Polari Prize with James Mayhew for their picture book Nen and the Lonely Fisherman, and Glitter Boy was his middle-grade debut. You can follow Ian on Twitter at @MrEagletonlan

BEFORE THE SHIPS

MAISHA OSO

Before the Ships is a powerful and poetic celebration of the early roots of Black history. The great achievements and accomplishments across Africa prior to the Transatlantic slave trade are told through melodious text and evocative illustrations, that culminate into the strength and resilience of modern-day Black people.

For so many of us, the first introduction to Black history begins with lessons about slavery. While slavery is a crucial part of African-American history, it is not the beginning. In fact, there is a rich history tied to the continent of Africa that deserves to be told and to be marveled at - which is exactly what Maisha Oso does in Before the Ships. With sparse yet moving text, Maisha takes us back in time to before the advent of the Transatlantic slave trade. We see the grandness of African royalty, the bravery of warriors like the Queen of Kush, and stories being told in song with griots and drums. Candice Bradley's gorgeous and reflective illustrations illuminate the strength of Black history and Black joy, reminding readers about the power within us all.

Key selling points

- Fascinating stories from Africa's illustrious history
- Gorgeous illustrations
- Rediscover Africa's past from before the slave trade

About the Author: Maisha Oso is the author of Buster the Bully, Welbeck Kids 2021, and the forthcoming picture books, My Hair Is a Book, Harper Collins 2024.

In this fascinating true story based on the life of Hardit Singh Malik, young readers will discover the adventures of WWI's first Indian pilot. Hardit, who flew into battle high above the trenches of Passchendaele on the hunt for the Red Baron, arrived in England at the age of 14 to attend school. Young Hardit was a devout Sikh and quick to defend himself when anyone interfered with his turban. He went on to study at Balliol College, Oxford, and played county cricket for Sussex.

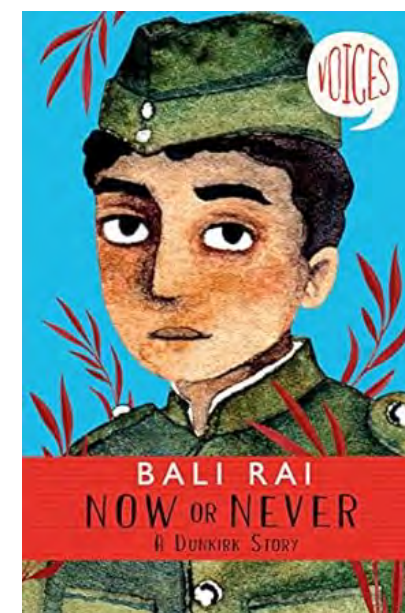

When he tried to join up to help in the war effort, he was only permitted to drive ambulances at the front. Instead he planned to join the French air force before a former teacher intervened and the Royal Flying Corps gave Hardit an "honorary" commission as a 2nd lieutenant flying Sopwith Camels.

Key selling points

- Featuring the story of the first Indian pilot of WWI
- From Bali Rai (Voices: Now or Never, A Dunkirk Story)
- Perfect companion reading for an important curriculum topic
- VOICES is an exciting factual narrative series about the unsung voices of our past
- The series showcases some of the UK's finest writers for young people, including Benjamin Zephaniah's Windrush Child
- An authentic adventure about coming to the UK

About the series: A thrilling series showcasing some of the UK's finest writers for young people, Voices reflects the authentic, unsung stories of our past. Each shows that, even in times of great upheaval, a myriad of people have arrived on this island and made a home for themselves - from Roman times to the present day.

About the author: Bali Rai has written over forty young adult, teen and children's books, and won multiple awards. His culturally diverse writing often pushes boundaries and tackles a variety of issues. Extremely popular in schools across the world, he is passionate about the promotion of literacy and reading for pleasure. His first novel, (Un)arranged Marriage, was published in 2001. He lives in Leicester.

BENDY AND THE INK MACHINE: BENDY GRAPHIC NOVEL: DREAMS COME TO LIFE

ADRIENNE KRESS

Don't miss the pulse-pounding graphic novel adaptation of the bestselling young adult novel, Bendy: Dreams Come to Life. Based on the hit indie video game series, Bendy!

Seventeen-year-old Buddy has spent most of his life trying to escape the Lower East Side slums of New York City. Working as a delivery boy to support his family, Buddy wants to become an artist, a dream he's sure will never be realized. But that all changes when a delivery job puts him face-to-face with Mr. Joey Drew, the eccentric owner of an animation studio. Mr. Drew takes Buddy under his wing as an apprentice, thrusting him into a world unlike anything Buddy has ever seen before.

But not everything at the studio is as picture-perfect as it seems . . .

Something is going bump in the night at Joey Drew Studios, something that leaves behind trails of thick, dark ink. While the studio frantically works toward their latest deadline, Buddy and Dot, the writing intern, team up to find out just what is tormenting the studio after-hours, even if it means tracking the trail to Mr. Drew himself.

KLUTZ

KLUTZ: LEGO CHAIN REACTIONS 2: GRAVITY DROP

EDITORS OF KLUTZ

Design & Build a Chain Reactions Machine

Following on from Lego Chain Reactions, children can build a 1.5 feet tall chipboard gravity drop tower, with 168 lego bricks!

You can build outside the book as the pegboard structure allows you to customize and expand with LEGO bricks from home.

Children can make and play games like Splinko, Labyrinth, Super-Slide Fortune Teller and and Zipline in this fun kit.
