Who Owns the Woods?

Emily Hibbs Illustrated by Jess Mason

When a boy and his grandma go to the woods, the boy is curious about who the place belongs to. Is it one of the creatures he encounters or – perhaps – does HE have a claim? As day slips into dusk, his journey takes a turn for the strange – the trees themselves have something to say.

A timely story about our relationship with nature and the importance of respecting the world we live in.

Hank Goes Honk

Maudie Powell-Tuck Illustrated by Duncan Beedie

Meet Hank the Goose. He's never met a balloon he didn't pop, or a conversation he didn't – HONK! – interrupt.

Hank! You're RUINING everyone's fun!

A honkingly-hilarious tale about the importance of being considerate to others.

Pub Date: 5 September 2024 Price: £12.99

ISBN: 9781801046527

Sales Points

- A funny and stylish picture book that teaches children about the importance of being kind and mindful of others.
- Hank is a lovable anti-hero with great series potential with knockout, hilarious illustrations from the super talented Duncan Beedie (I Really, Really Need a Wee, Agent Llama).
- Perfect for fans of Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus! and The Bad Seed.

About the Author

When not writing, Maudie spends far too much of her time in expensive shops gawping at clothes and glittery things she can't afford, and dreaming about owning a pug called Stanley. She'd love to say that she runs marathons – but that would be a lie. A graduate from the University of Cambridge, she lives in London.

About the Illustrator

Duncan is a bestselling author and illustrator who has been drawing and doodling since childhood, sprawled out on his parent's living room carpet with felt tip in fist. He now sits upright to draw from his studio in Bristol, where he lives with his wife, daughter and demanding springer spaniel.

About the Author

Emily grew up in the West Midlands, studied English Literature with Creative Writing at the University of East Anglia, then spent several years working in-house at various children's book publishers. She now lives in the Oxfordshire countryside, near the River Thames.

About the Illustrator

Erin is a Northern Irish illustrator who lives and works on the beautiful island of Jersey. She graduated with a bachelors degree in Fine Art and then completed a diploma in Illustrating Children's Books with the London Art College.

"You want me to climb down there?" asked Little Cub, peering out of the tree hollow. The young bear could hardly see a thing. Puffs of white mist veiled the world below.

"That's right. There's a whole forest hidden down there, I promise," said Mummy Sow.

Little Cub wasn't sure. This snug tree hollow was her whole world! She'd spent the first few months of her life here, cuddled up with Mummy Sow. But now the weather was getting warmer and it was time for them to leave.

"I'll go first," Mummy Sow reassured her.

Little Cub felt her paws tremble at the thought of stepping into nothing. Mummy Sow swung out on to the tree, navigating the bumps and lumps as she made her way down the trunk. She soon disappeared beneath the mist.

Desert Echoes

Abdi Nazemian

Fifteen-year-old Kam is head over heels for Ash, the boy who swept him off his feet. But his family and best friend, Bodie, are worried. They struggle to understand Ash. He also has a habit of disappearing, at times for days. When Ash asks Kam to join him on a trip to Joshua Tree, the two of them walk off into the sunset ... but only Kam returns.

Two years later, Kam is still left with a hole in his heart and too many unanswered questions. So it feels like fate when a school trip takes him back to Joshua Tree. On the trip, Kam wants to find closure about what happened to Ash, but instead finds himself in danger of facing a similar fate. In the desert, Kam must reckon with the truth of his past relationship – and the possibility of opening himself up to love once again.
