SPRING 2025

Britannica Books

Welcome to the What on Earth! Children's Catalogue

When people ask me what I do for a living, I usually say I am an author or a publisher or a public speaker. But taking a more big-picture perspective, I realise that my job, and the job of the whole team at What on Earth!, is better described like this: We make sunshine.

We perform this almost-magical feat by revealing the amazing world around us. Our flagship book this spring is aptly entitled The Greatest Stuff on Earth! It showcases, in the most compelling way, what our world is made of and how it all (from sunlight to atoms to soil to DNA to smartphones) works. In the end, we are left with the inevitable conclusion that all the ordinary things we encounter every day are utterly remarkable!

This mindset is a surefire way to fuel natural curiosity. And it helps us to appreciate that we are all part of nature, the central theme behind We Are All Animals. Published in conjunction with the Humanimal Trust, this lavishly illustrated book, featuring a moving foreword by Supervet Noel Fitzpatrick, stunningly details what connects all animals – human and non-human. We all sleep, we all move, we all have feelings, we all eat and excrete.... So much more unites us than divides, a lesson that we think all children instinctively know and can help the grown-ups in their lives appreciate better.

Meanwhile, we are thrilled to be publishing the eighth title in our bestselling FACTopia! series, which has sold 200,000 copies so far. Epic FACTopia! takes readers on a hilarious safari through more than 400 interconnected facts about extraordinary achievements, featuring everything from surfboarding goats to daredevil skydivers. And we are thrilled to be publishing two of the FACTopia! books in paperback: Gross FACTopia! and Awesome FACTopia! (originally entitled Return to FACTopia!).

This catalogue also includes our ever-growing backlist, all designed to ensure that today's children know one critical thing... that the real world is far more amazing than anything you can make up!

MARCH

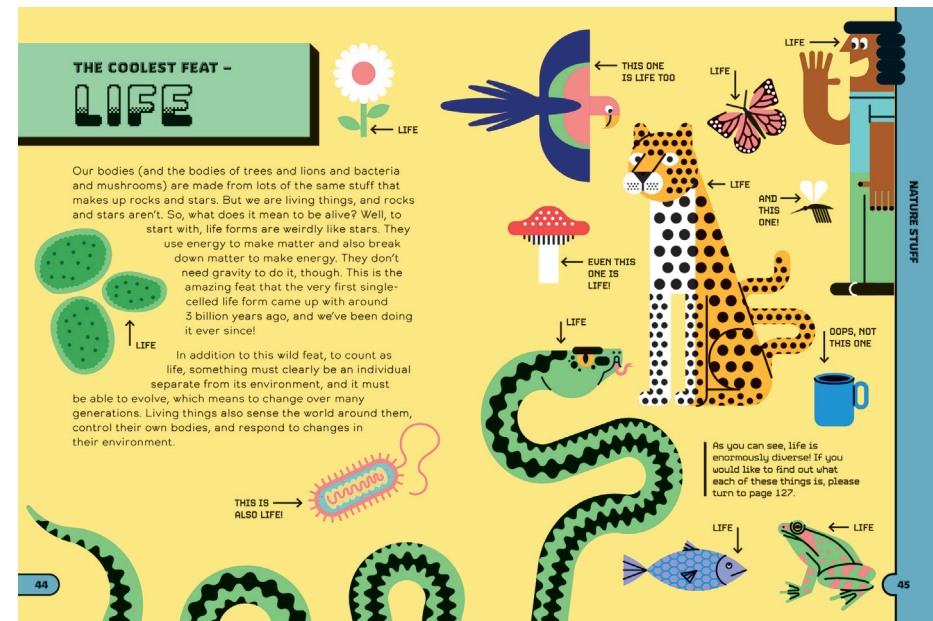

The Greatest Stuff on Earth

The amazing science of sunlight, smartphones, microphones, mushrooms & everything in between Steve Tomecek, Illustrated by John Devolle

6th Mar 2025 • £14.99 • Hardback • 128 pp
8+ • 248 x 184 mm • 9781804661413

A quirky romp through the stuff of our world, from atoms and elements and light, to water, soil and DNA, to buildings and books and smartphones. With chatty explanatory text, fast facts and clever, stylish and sometimes funny photos, illustrations and diagrams, this fantastically browsable book offers hundreds of entry points for knowledge-hungry kids. Author Steve Tomecek holds a degree in Geology and has 30 years' experience educating children about science, including as a writer, a radio and television presenter, and live performer.

- Enormous kid appeal draws readers in then introduces them to topics they never knew were so much fun.
- Features a stylish blend of clever, fun and often funny illustrations, detailed diagrams showing just how things work and powerful full-colour photography.
- Author is a proven expert in children's science and his bestselling book (Everything Rocks and Minerals for National Geographic Kids) has sold over 150,000 copies worldwide and has more than 1,500 reviews on Amazon UK.

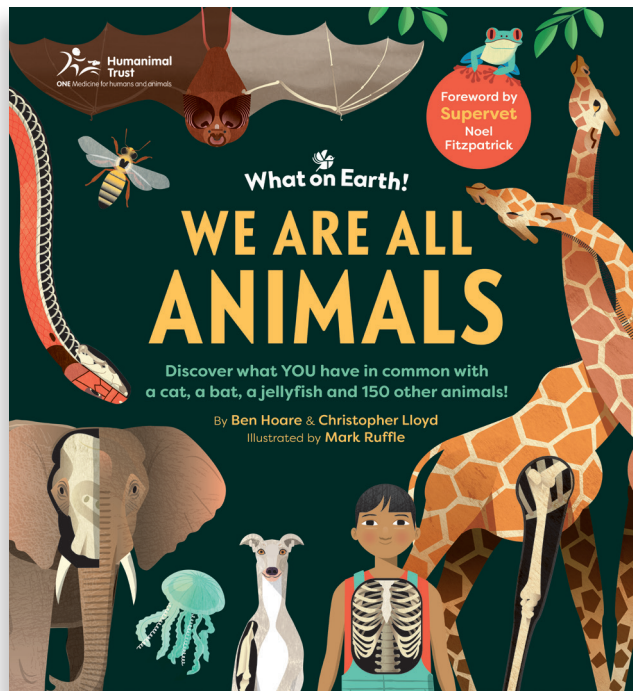

AUTHOR

Steve Tomecek is a geologist and science writer who has written over 45 non-fiction books for children. He has also acted as the Associate Director for the Science Museum of Long Island, the Science Program Supervisor for the New York Hall of Science, the on-air host of a WNYC kids' radio show and the writer and star of TV series Dr. Dad's Ph-3.

ILLUSTRATOR

John Devolle studied fine art at the University of Westminster, UK, where he attained a BA (Hons) in Mixed Media Art. For several years, he was a guitarist in a punk-blues-garage band called Junkbox. He now works full-time as a freelance illustrator, specialising in editorial illustration and infographics and both writing and illustrating children's non-fiction.

APRIL

We Are All Animals

Discover what YOU have in common with a cat, a bat, a jellyfish and 150 other animals!

Ben Hoare & Christopher Lloyd, Illustrated by Mark Ruffle with foreword by Supervet, Noel Fitzpatrick

3rd Apr 2025 • £14.99 • Hardback • 48 pp
8+ • 280 x 260 mm • 9781804661451

Find out how similar you are to your favourite animal!

Did you know that most animals (including us) are shaped like tubes? That animals get a lot of the same diseases (and medical treatments) we do? Or that we are distant cousins to every animal on Earth, including jellyfish? We Are All Animals celebrates our whole furry, scaly, slimy, slippery extended family, smashing to smithereens the idea that humans are very different from the rest of the animal kingdom.

- Foreword by bestselling author and TV star Supervet: Professor Noel Fitzpatrick.
- Written by bestselling authors Christopher Lloyd (also Editor of Britannica All New Children's Encyclopedia, which has sold 470,000 globally to date); and Ben Hoare, author of the An Anthology of Intriguing Animals (sold over 200,000 UK/US to date)
- Underpinned by the latest science.
- Lavishly illustrated with original artwork, fascinating infographics and real-life photography.

Also available,
see p. 45

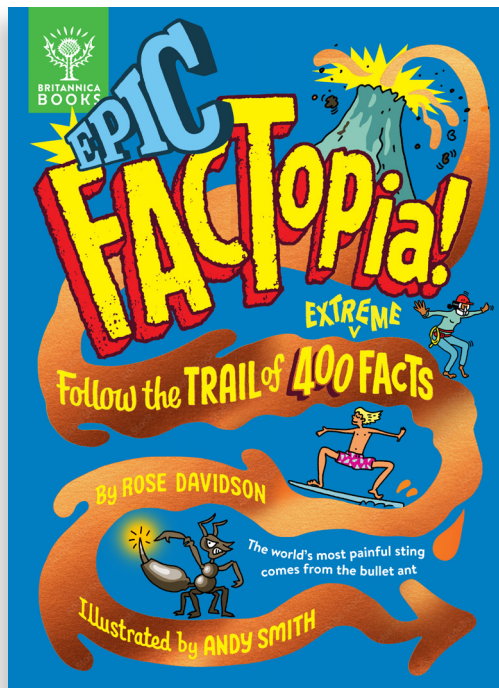

AUTHORS

Ben Hoare is an award-winning wildlife journalist. He writes inspiring natural-history books for kids, several of which are international bestsellers. Christopher Lloyd graduated from Cambridge University with a First Class degree in History. He was a journalist with the Sunday Times, before becoming a bestselling author.

ILLUSTRATOR

Mark Ruffle is an illustrator and graphic designer living in the UK. Since he was young, Mark has drawn imaginary worlds, fantastic animals and marvellous humans. He is now lucky enough to draw for his job and creates fun, colourful, engaging illustrations for a wide range of ages and uses.
