Now available in paperback, The Comet, is an exquisite and heartfelt picture book touching on the bewildering experience of moving house from the award-winning, internationally best-selling creator Joe Todd-Stanton

When Nyla has to leave her home in the countryside to start life again in the city, all she can think about is everything she misses from before. So when a comet comes crashing through the city streets and starts to glow and grow, Nyla can't resist a chance to head somewhere that feels closer to what she had before ... but what starts as an escape could be just the thing to make her finally feel at home. This beautiful story explores how moving home can affect a child's sense of belonging, but also how it can open them up to new and wonderful experiences.

KEY SELLING POINTS

- Winner of the 2023 Yoto Carnegie Shadows' Choice Medal for Illustration
- Shortlisted for the 2023 Yoto Carnegie Medal for Illustration
- A universal topic of moving home and learning to settle, but with a fresh approach
- Taking place in the city, this can appeal to children living in urban environments and encourage them to use their imagination to explore the world
- Touching on themes of creativity and communication through art

LEGEND OF THE ENNEKI TIGER

Praying the moonlit plains of remote Chad is rumoured to be a fanged beast. A ferocious creature believed to have gone extinct thousands of years ago, until now...

Some say it is larger than a lion, with fangs as big as walrus tusks. Others recall its shaggy coat of red-and-white stripes. Sometimes the beast is spotted near water. At other times it is seen lurking in the Ennedi mountains. There are even those who claim it is followed by a trail of butterflies, biting and twirling in its wake. Witnesses agree on one thing only: this creature is an ancient African sabretooth cat thought to have perished during the last Ice Age. Local people have named it the Ennedi tiger, or hajjel.

At night, the tiger leaves its darkened cave to hunt by the light of the moon. The morning light brings discoveries of animal remains punctured with mysterious fang-shaped wounds. To this day, sightings of the Ennedi tiger are reported by travellers and locals alike. But are they mere legends? Or has the tiger evaded detection, skulking in the shadowy corners of the Sahara for centuries?

WHY I CHOSE THIS BOOK

“... for its language play, its incredibly charming baby and the simple genius of a clever page turn.”

Get Dressed, Belly Button!

Author/Illustrator Lucie Brunellière

ABOUT THE BOOK

It's time to go out, so let's get dressed: tug snug, wriggle jiggle into socks, t-shirt, shoes and finally, all wrapped up in a big coat.

Page by page, child and adult put the clothes on together until everyone is ready.

Wait—what else do we need before we can go out? A great big kiss!

Now we're dressed, from top to tummy to toes!

Get Dressed, Belly Button! is a cheerful and original book that turns wrapping up warm into a game for the whole family.

SALES POINTS

- A simple, interactive idea where adult and child share the experience
- A companion book to Good Night, Belly Button
- Introduces words for clothes and parts of the toddler's body
- Cheerful language and sound effects turns a routine into a fun ritual with a shared dressing game

ABOUT THE AUTHOR & ILLUSTRATOR

Lucie Brunellière is a graphic artist and illustrator who has created numerous books for children. She studied applied arts in Angoulême, visual communication in Paris, and at the Strasbourg School of Decorative Arts, France.

Farm & Mermaids

Create bedazzling art with 1,500 shimmery crystals!

Author: Zach Rosenthal | Illustrator: Damien Barlow

Decorate, dazzle and display! When children are finished bedazzling their works of art, they can display them proudly in all their shimmery, sparkly glory, or gift them to their friends.

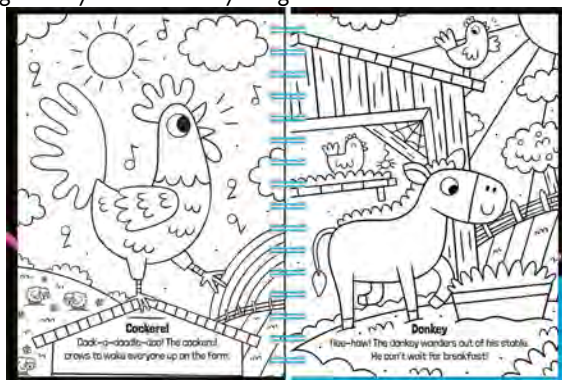

A mindful craft activity that will banish boredom and calm busy minds.

Bedazzle your art with 1,500 crystals!

Follow the craze everyone has been talking about! With six art cards, five bags of shimmery, coloured crystals, an applicator pen, sticky wax and a storage tray, this beautiful activity folder is perfect for anyone who wants to create sparkly art pieces to gift to their friends or keep for themselves.

Children can decorate the adorable farm pictures by picking up the colourful crystals with their applicator pen, which they dip into the wax included. All they have to do is peel back the protective plastic sheet on each card and get to work applying each crystal, one by one, using the numbered colour guide to stick the crystals in the right places.

The creative fun doesn't stop there. Each art card has a cute farm picture to colour in on the back. There are 24 pages of bonus colouring fun for kids who are obsessed with fun on the farm. This farm-azing activity folder is everything a child needs to start their crystal art journey!

Illustrator: Damien Barlow

Damien studied at Leeds College of Art and lives in Newcastle upon Tyne with a super-fluffy cat, Luna. He's a proud Geordie illustrator and lover of the outdoors. He's often found on long woodland walks and eating baked goods.

THE BOOK

Who is sabotaging the Rainhill Trials?

Edward Entwistle can't believe his luck when the famous inventor, George Stephenson, chooses him to be the night watchman to guard his new top secret locomotive engine.

Stephenson is determined his new locomotive will win The Rainhill Trials; a race of innovation and daring. But strange and dangerous accidents keep stalling construction. Edward can't help but wonder if someone is out to stop Stephenson from winning the race.

With the help of Prudence, an engineering obsessed char girl, Edward sets out to uncover who is really behind the Rainhill disasters.

Inspired by the true events of the Rainhill Trials.

THE AUTHOR

Susan, 49, is a Lancashire lass, she grew up in Wigan and now lives in Skelmersdale. She has very fond memories of daytrips and holidays in Blackpool as a child. Her favourite Pleasure Beach ride is the River Caves - it cannot be a coincidence that many of Susan's books settings feature the same locations as the ride!

Susan is an Undiscovered Voices 2016 winner, a competition organised by SCBWI British Isles to find new writing talent. Susan won the 2015 SCBWI British Isles Margaret Carey scholarship.

Susan was also longlisted in 2007 for the Writers & Artists 100th edition novel writing competition and is currently a Library Information Assistant.

Red Sky in the Morning, Poet's Warning

Alex Wharton

Ian Morris

Red Sky in the Morning, Poet's Warning is the fourth collection of mysterious, humorous, philosophical and charming poetry for young people by Alex Wharton, Children's Laureate Wales.

From Poems that describe 'Wild Boys' who live alone in the woods to poems about 'Time' and meeting an astronaut! These poems reflect on nature's happenings, through observation and experience, but not forgetting to transport the reader to many magical, musical and imaginative worlds.

A companion piece to Red Sky at Night, Poet's Delight published exactly a year earlier, this ambitious volume reveals Alex as an evolving and maturing children's poet whose vibrant work will resonate deeply with his readership.

PRAISE FOR RED SKY AT NIGHT, POET'S DELIGHT

"A beautiful little collection that packs a punch! Infinitely readable and shareable poems to make you smile, reflect, and dream." Rashmi Sirdeshpande

"His poems chime and sing from the page." AF Harrold

'Big-hearted, funny and thoughtful, Alex Wharton takes the ordinary world around us and makes it magical.' Claire Fayers

'These poems are a true delight! Warm, playful and full of insight – a treat for readers of all ages.' Kate Wakeling

Children's Laureate Wales Alex Wharton is an award-winning writer and performer of poetry for adults and children. His first book of poetry for children, Daydreams and Jellybeans, was shortlisted for the Wales Book of The Year Award, the Lollies Book Awards, and was named as a National Poetry Day Recommended Read.

Alex is based in Torfaen, south Wales.

Libby and the Egyptian Escapade

Jo Clarke

Illustrated by Becka Moor

The Travelling School Mysteries, Book Four

- Fourth and final instalment in middle grade series by star children's book blogger Jo Clarke (BookloverJo). The series has received tremendous support both from the public and trade.
- MG detective series set in a school that travels the world, a mix of adventure, friendship and mystery, perfect for readers of the Adventures on Trains series.
- Brought to life with Becka Moor's gloriously fun illustrations.

Summary:

When the travelling school arrives in Egypt, the students soon get caught up in a sequence of strange and dangerous events. Have they truly awakened a mummy's curse, or is somebody trying to scare them away?

Libby and her friends must use all their detective skills to exhume the truth.

Praise for the series:

'Another delightful page-turner from the queen of cosy crime for kids!' Rashmi Sirdeshpande

'It's such a fantastic blend of intrigue and adventure that's perfectly pitched for young readers who love sleuthing.' Andy Shepherd

'Joyful, fun and brilliantly plotted! Perfect for young armchair detectives everywhere.' A.M. Howell

A Bouncy Book of Bugs

James Carter, illustrated by Neal Layton

The amazing world of bugs and minibeasts revealed in exuberant poems and pictures by a bestselling duo

Bestselling poet James Carter and illustrator Neal Layton love bugs and minibeasts and here they celebrate them all – from grasshoppers, ladybirds and dung beetles to moths, flies, wasps – and even bedbugs. Including the extraordinary tardigrades who can live in outer space.

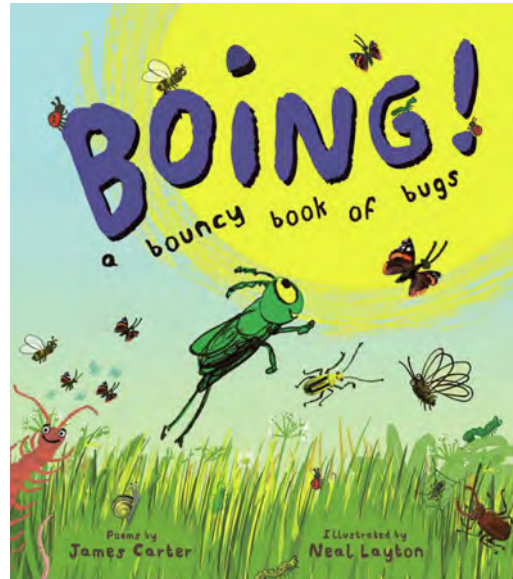

With 24 poems, including shape poems, riddles, rhyming poems and free verse, plus amazing and informative facts about each bug or minibeast on every page, the world of insects is brought buzzing to life, matched by Neal Layton's bugtiful colour illustrations.

- A new picture book poetry collection from the author of bestselling *Zim Zam Zoom!
- Perfect theme for young children who love creepy crawlies
- Each spread also has amazing details about the lives and habits of bugs
- James Carter is an internationally renowned poet and performer, in huge demand for school visits
- Neal Layton is published in many countries across the world, and especially acclaimed for A Planet Full of Plastic Praise for A Ticket to Kalamazoo, also by James Carter and Neal Layton – “a must-have collection for inspiring poets of the future” – Through the Bookshelf

Author Information

James Carter is a former lecturer in Creative Writing and Children's Literature at Reading University – now a world-travelling children's poet, giving performances with his melodica at festivals, workshops and in libraries and schools. His previous books for younger children are Zim Zam Zoom, illustrated by Nicola Colton, and A Ticket to Kalamazoo, illustrated by Neal Layton. He lives in Oxfordshire.

Neal Layton studied Graphic Design and Illustration at Newcastle University and Central St Martin's School of Art. His images are prized for their spontaneity and inventiveness. Just Like Bugs

Busy like a butterfly
buzzy like a bee
shiny like a firefly itchy like a flea

Spotty like a ladybird
stripy like a wasp
zippy like a dragonfly
flappy like a moth

Scratchy like a beetle tiny like an ant
how many bugs here?
Hey, let's count!

One for the butterfly
two for the bee
three for the firefly four for the flea

Five for the ladybird six for the wasp
seven for the dragonfly
eight for the moth

Nine for the beetle
ten for the ant - double high five
it's a ten bug count!

It's a Bug!

If it jiggles just a little or its home is in the mud or it wiggles down its middle...

oh, indeed - it's a bug!

If it scuttles or it rustles or it leaps upon a rug or it bustles in a meadow...

yes, siree - it's a bug!

If it scratches or it scrabbles or its meal is made of muck or it shuffles in the shadows...

OMG - it's a BUG!

We call them 'bugs'. Scientists call them INSECTS. They're found all over the world - in forests, deserts, gardens, farms, homes, everywhere. How many do you think there are altogether? hmm high! Only some 10 QUINTILLION - that's many, many millions of billions of bugs!

Amazing Animal Poems

Kate Williams, illustrated by Hannah Asen

Exciting debut collection of poems celebrating the animal kingdom, from a much-anthologised poet, popular in schools

Come on a nature adventure, in over 50 poems about all kinds of animals, from the albatross to the wombat!

Find a coiling cobra, crossers rhinoceros, the chimpantease and sharky-lurky. Watch lazy lion lounging in the long grass and discover endangered creatures like the baby polar bear and the song thrush. Then guess the names of the mystery bird and the secret pet....Are you ready for your nature adventure?

This is a wonderful, wide-ranging debut collection for animal-lovers everywhere.

- "Kate Williams has impressed me for many years with her clever, quirky poems about all kinds of creatures. Any child who loves animals couldn't fail to be entertained by the poems in this collection. Brian Moses, poet
- "Kate has created a joyous collection of poems, full of energy, humour and a deep love of nature. Definitely one for the classroom bookshelf." Jon Biddle, teacher
- Animal poems are a favourite theme for children of all ages
- Debut collection from a much-anthologised poet, popular in schools
- Wide-ranging in tone, from comic and witty to thoughtful and atmospheric
- Includes poems addressing environmental concerns
- Delightful pictures from the illustrator of Matt Goodfellow's Chicken on the Roof

Author Information

Kate Williams's poems have appeared in many anthologies and magazines but this is her first solo collection. Kate spent her childhood in London, next door to a cat, a tortoise and some terrapins. She later moved to Bristol – in earshot of the zoo – and now lives in the rolling farmland of Wales, surrounded by baas, moos and cock-a-doodle-do's.

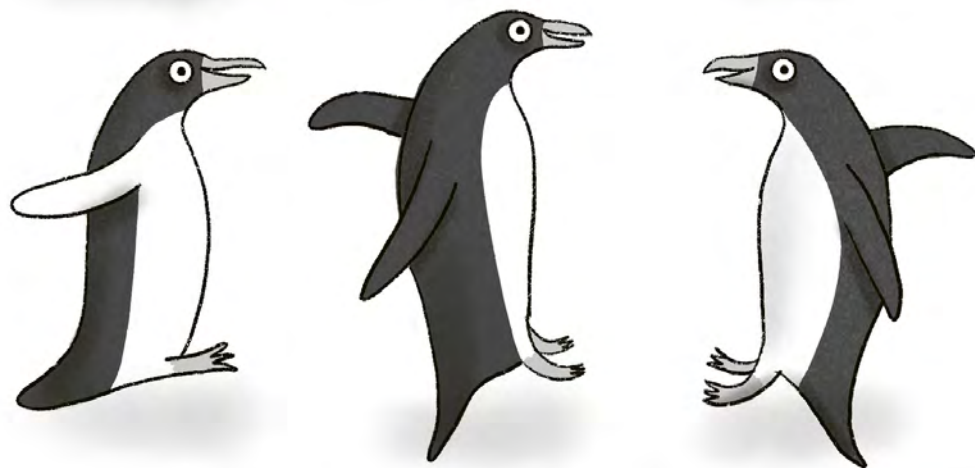

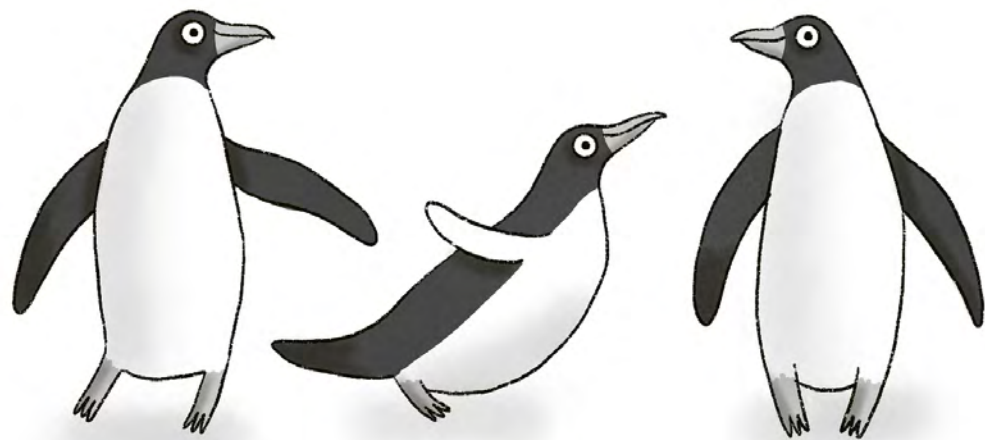

Hannah Asen was born and brought up in London. She studied art and languages at Edinburgh University and then went to live and work in Berlin, Germany. In 2017 she returned to Scotland and now lives in the East Lothian countryside close to Edinburgh. Hannah is also illustrator of Matt Goodfellow's poetry collection, Chicken on the Roof, published by Otter-Barry Books.

THE WOMEN I COULD BE

SANGITA JOGI

Amazingly off-beat, feisty, fashionable, fun-loving and self-assured in every possible situation... the women that young artist Sangita Jogi conjures up in her imagination are incredible. Playfully balancing the limits of her life as a woman with the freedom of her imagination as an artist, this book leaves the reader with a felt sense of the radical potential of art.

With little formal schooling, and married into a labouring family when she was very young, SANGITA JOGI lives in Rajasthan, in a traditional patriarchal set-up. As a young mother and daughter-in-law, she is kept busy with household chores—her time is not her own and her mobility curtailed. She draws when she can find the hours of an afternoon, and at night. And when she does, her confident and playful lines dream up enchanted worlds, exploring and celebrating possible other lives.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

Special Mention, CICLA Original Illustration Exhibition 2018

- An inspirational young adults' book, which celebrates an artist's passion for the creative life
- A visual tribute to active, mobile women everywhere, who are equal to all the situations they find themselves in
- Page after page of visual stories, asking to be decoded in diverse ways
- A playful inversion of the male gaze – a woman delighting in other women's lives, rather than setting herself up in competition with them
- An exercise in fantasy, delightful and yet poignant, given the circumscribed life that the artist leads

The Dark Ascension Series: The Wicked Ones

Robin Benway

From New York Times bestselling author Robin Benway comes a journey into the wicked side of Disney's Cinderella—the first book in the Villains-focused Dark Ascension series, starring infamous stepsisters Drizella and Anastasia.

Before they were known as the wicked ones, they were two sisters fighting to escape their mother's iron rule. Drizella and Anastasia only know one thing for certain: they never want to end up like their mother, Lady Tremaine. When their father left them as young girls, he took their family fortune and their mother's dignity with him. A few years and one deceased stepfather later, Drizella and Anastasia only know their mother as the bitter and cruel head of the house.

But the sisters promise each other that they'll chase their dreams and never let their hearts go cold. Then, on the cusp of the royal debut party, the sisters at last get a glimpse of what life could be like outside of Lady Tremaine's intentions: Drizella discovers a love of science, and Anastasia sparks a secret romance.

Disney Villains meets Succession in the Dark Ascension series, which explores the complex origins of memorable characters and their siblings.

Rick Riordan Presents: A Drop of Venom

Sajni Patel

Disney • HYPERION

Circe goes YA in this unapologetically feminist retelling of the Medusa myth steeped in Indian mythology, a YA epic fantasy addition to the Rick Riordan Presents imprint.

All monsters and heroes have beginnings. This is mine.

Sixteen-year-old Manisha is no stranger to monsters—she's been running from them for years, from beasts who roam the jungle to the King's army, who forced her people to scatter to the ends of the earth.

Seventeen-year-old Pratyush is a famed slayer of monsters, one of the King's most prized warriors and a frequent visitor to the floating temples. For every monster the slayer kills, years are added to his life.

When Pratyush and Manisha meet, each sees in the other the possibility to chart a new path. Unfortunately, the kingdom's powerful have other plans.

Alternating between Manisha's and Pratyush's perspectives, Sajni Patel weaves together lush language, high stakes, and page-turning suspense, demanding an answer to the question "What does it truly mean to be a monster?"

- CRITICALLY ACCLAIMED: A Drop of Venom received 3 starred reviews: from Kirkus, Publishers Weekly, K and School Library Journal. It was also named one of Kirkus's most anticipated January 2024 new releases K for young adults.
- GREEK MYTHOLOGY MEETS INDIAN LORE: This book is mythology like never before, as Sajni weaves K together the Indian myths of her motherland with the Greek mythology that readers have known and loved K through Rick Riordan and beyond.

*TRIGGER WARNING: sexual assault

Rick Riordan Presents: A Touch of Blood

Sajni Patel AVAILABLE FROM FEBRUARY

Read the Persephone myth like never before in this companion to A Drop of Venom by Sajni Patel, where Greek mythology meets Indian lore.

Before Manisha, the youngest of three sisters, was sent to hide on the floating mountain, her eldest sister, Eshani, made a deal with the shades. In order to save her people in the midst of a tragic war, she exchanged her life for theirs.

Now, years later, the shades claim their due, dragging Eshani into the Nightmare Realm where she must find the Gatekeeper to fulfill her end of the bargain.

There's only one person who can help Eshani escape, and he has his own problems. Hiran has spent most of his life hiding, but destiny beckons, and he can no longer resist the call of the realm.

Nothing will stop the Nightmare Realm from getting what it wants. Except maybe a king in the making and a goddess rising.
