Beep beep! Was that the hot air balloon?
No, it was the lorry!

This touch-and-feel board book will make children laugh as they learn which noise matches which vehicle. With sturdy flaps to lift, funny pairings and a surprise mirror ending!

- With a different tactile fabric on each spread for little hands to explore, this is the perfect introduction to things-that-go for very young children.
- The sturdy flaps help to develop children's hand-eye coordination.
- The surprise mirror ending will make little ones chuckle.

About the Author

Becky is a children's book editor, and sometimes author, from the South West of England. Her favourite things are animals, books about magic, and anything sparkly.

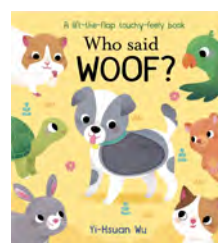

About the Illustrator

Yi-Hsuan Wu is a Taiwanese illustrator. She loves animals, especially birds. When not at work, she enjoys going on adventures with her pet parrot, Sparky.

The Big Day

A GIANT celebration of love ...

When a giant, sparkly blue envelope arrives in the post, one tiny human knows just what to do. They set off to a magical wedding where witches, elves, unicorns and more gather in excitement. They watch the giant grooms sweep in with a burst of gorgeous colour and exchange vows, before everyone tucks in to an other-worldly wedding feast. This is a wedding they'll never forget!

Lift the flaps to uncover the details as the wedding unfolds, from the RSVP to the magical menu. With beautiful poetry by Rachel Plummer and stunning illustrations by Forrest Burdett, this charming picture book sends a message to all: that love is just love, whether giant or small.

A joyful celebration of love in all its forms!

- An inclusive, feel-good message of love.
- Packed with entertaining novelty elements, such as flaps, gatefolds and die-cuts.
- Funny and moving rhyming text accompanies stunning illustrations.

About the Author

Rachel Plummer is a poet, children's author and creative writing teacher living in Edinburgh, Scotland. They were a Troubadour International Poetry Prize winner in 2014. Their debut children's poetry collection, Wain, is based around LGBT retellings of traditional Scottish myths.

About the Illustrator

Forrest is a queer illustrator from New Jersey with an eye for whimsy, a heart full of magic, and a passion for vibrant colours. He studied Illustration at the Fashion Institute of Technology and now lives in Portland, Oregon.

He loves finding magic in the small, everyday moments and uses his art as a means to explore and share them. He spends his days creating, reading, and eating an obscene amount of chocolate. You can see more of his work at forrestburdett.com.

Always Your Stepdad

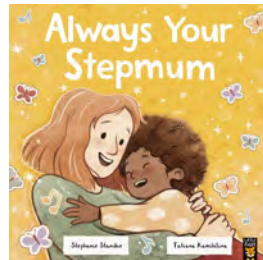

*The first day we met, I was awkward and shy.
But your smile was so warm and so wise.
How could I have known how my life was to change
when i looked in those bright, thoughtful eyes.*

A lyrical love letter from a step-parent to their child.

- Inspired by the song My Boy by Elvie Shane, this book celebrates the unconditional love between a step-parent and their child.
- Author Stephanie Stansbie draws on her relationship with her own stepfather to explore the challenges, joys and shared experiences of becoming a blended family.
- Designed in a scrap-book style to emulate a book of photographs and drawings that capture a parent and child's shared memories.
- Illustrator Tatiana Kamshilina has worked in two styles, deftly blending beautifully nostalgic illustrations with naïve hand-drawn images for an intimate view into our characters' relationship.

I'm Going to Make a Friend

A heartwarming and original take on the nature of friendship from philosopher and debut picture book author Darren Chetty.

Moving neighbourhood comes with many challenges, especially making new friends. How long will it take? Will they play how I want to play? Will they hug me when I'm sad, or give me space? So many questions! But in the end, the only thing you can do is dive in and give it a go.

Darren Chetty's pared-back text explores the myriad of emotions - the vulnerability and courage - that it takes to form meaningful relationships. Sandhya Prabhat's gorgeous and magical illustrations illuminate the story and celebrate the power of the imagination.

- The clever use of questions invites the reader to consider the nature of friendship.
- A debut picture book from a bestselling author and philosopher.
- Readers who enjoyed Me and My Fear by Francesca Sanna, The Invisible Boy by Trudy Ludwig and Patrice Barton, and The Boy with Flowers in His Hair by Jarvis, will love I'm Going to Make a Friend.

About the Author

Darren Chetty is a Welsh Indian South African Dutch Londoner. He teaches in primary schools and at university and writes for people of all ages.

About the Illustrator

Sandhya Prabhat is an independent animator and illustrator based in the Bay Area, California, and is from Chennai, India. She holds an MFA Degree in Animation and Digital Arts from NYU Tisch School of the Arts Asia and a Bachelor's Degree in Literature from Stella Maris College.

Stitch Head: The Pirate's Eye Graphic Novel

When Stitch Head sees his ice-blue eye for the very first time, he's convinced that it once belonged to the legendary pirate, Captain Flashpowder. Could it be that he is part-pirate? But as Stitch Head prepares for a life on the high seas, some fishy business closer to home puts a stop to his swashbuckling plans...

Full of monstrous fun, STITCH HEAD is perfect for fans of Grimwood, Amelia Fang and The Nothing To See Here Hotel.

- Graphic novelisation of the second book in this popular six-book series.
- Stitch Head soon to be a major animated motion picture starring Asa Butterfield (Sex Education) as the eponymous hero.
- Voted one of the UK's favourite 100 kids' books in Amazon's Kids Love Books campaign

A Flash of Neon

Laurie loves stories. She loves reading them in her mums' bookshop in their small Scottish town. She loves sharing them with new readers. She also loves telling stories about people she's not yet met and places she's not yet been. But when one of these people comes crashing into Laurie's world, it turns her whole life upside down.

Neon is the boy Laurie's been dreaming of for the last six months, and he's exactly as she had created him – down to his ability to play any instrument he picks up. And when he steps off the train and into Laurie's world, he teaches her what it means to be real...

A fantastical story about imagination and friendship from the multi-award-winning author of Away with Words and Our Sister, Again.

- A coming-of-age story with a fantastical twist and an incidental LGBTQ relationship. Exploring friendship, family and imagination.
- Combines real world, fantasy and important relatable themes with beautiful writing. A celebration of stories with a bookshop at the heart of it!
- Perfect for fans of Benjamin Dean, Elle McNicoll and The Girl Who Couldn't Lie.

About the Author

Sophie Cameron is a YA and MG author from the Scottish Highlands. Her debut MG novel OUR SISTER, AGAIN won the Leeds Book Awards, and AWAY WITH WORDS was shortlisted for the Carnegie Medal for Writing, UKLA Award, Polari Prize, Spark! Book Awards, and a runner-up at the Diverse Book Awards. She lives in Spain with her family.

Sea life darts in every direction!
Count as you join the dots to reveal the creatures. Then colour them all in.

DID YOU KNOW?
Eels move by making wave movements
down their bodies.
They mostly swim
about at night.

PICTURE PENGUIN

Penguins cannot fly but they are great swimmers. Can you copy the lines, block by block, to create your own drawing?
