You're My Little Sweet Pea

Nicola Edwards

Illustrated by Natalie Marshall

You're my little sweet pea, more special than you know.
My greatest joy in life is being here to watch you grow.

Celebrate your little sweet pea with this charming food-based addition to the You're My Little ... series! Cuddle up with your little one to remind them how much you love them while you enjoy a cute cast of characters, from dumplings to honey buns. With chunky pages for small hands and die-cut parent and baby characters, this quick read is great for settling kids down to sleep, and a lovely reminder to caregivers to slow down and enjoy the precious moments with your little one.

A perfectly scrumptious addition to the bestselling You're My Little ... series, fans of Guess How Much I Love You by Sam McBratney and I Love You to the Moon and Back by Amelia Hepworth will love You're My Little Sweet Pea.

Grumpkin

Nicola Edwards

Illustrated by Siân Roberts

Big whoop. Autumn is here. Too bad Grumpkin HATES Halloween.

Poor Grumpkin doesn't even want to BE a pumpkin, never mind embrace the spooky season! Join this sassy, squashy icon as he embarks on a journey of self-discovery, friendship and candy-corn-fuelled fun. With a loveable anti-hero, deadpan humour and fantastically funny illustrations from super-talented Siân Roberts, this hilarious board book shows children the importance of keeping an open mind and the possibility of finding joy where you least expect it.

Perfect for fans of I Want My Hat Back by Jon Klassen, The Bad Seed by Jory John and Pete Oswald, and I Can Only Draw Worms by Will Mabbitt.

Hey, I'm Grumpkin.
I'm a pumpkin (obviously)
and no one ever lets me forget it.

This is my least favourite time of year.
That's right, I said it.
I hate Halloween.

Why couldn't I have been a summer
squash instead?

Or an orange gently warming in the California sun?

Or a coconut swaying on a palm tree
on a desert island . . .

that's the dream.

Noisy Animal World

Hettie Cox

Illustrated by Laura Silveira

Discover the sights and sounds of the animal kingdom with this interactive board book! Filled with colourful photographic images of over 40 animals, including mammals, birds, reptiles and insects, Noisy Animal World is the perfect book for little animal fans.

Pub Date: 7 August 2025 Price: £12.99

ISBN: 9781838918590

About the Author

Hettie Cox originally hails from North London where she grew up with her family. When she's not researching fun facts for children's books or looking over artwork, she's usually curled up with a cup of tea watching an animated movie (or three!) or practising her singing.

About the Illustrator

Laura Silveira is a Londoner at heart but now resides in leafy Leicestershire. She earned her BA in Graphic Design at the University for the Creative Arts, Epsom. She has since worked with creative teams large and small, her work featuring on greeting cards, patterns for textiles, packaging, branding, maps, and children's illustrations. Influenced by the late greats Eric Carle and Quentin Blake, she works with a combination of hand-painted textures, Procreate and Photoshop.

The Colours of My Love

Isabel Otter

Illustrated by Anna Simeone

*My love for you is all around,
in sunshine, stream and tree.
From rosy dawn to inky dusk,
my love is in all you see.*

Discover all the colours love can take in this stunning board book celebrating the special bond between caregiver and child, Fox and Cub. Strands of colour appear as if by magic - poppy-field red, autumn-leaves orange, sunshine yellow, foliage green, river blue, stormy indigo and light rays of violet - to showcase a big, beautiful rainbow in the sky at the end of the book.

Readers will 'love' the charming display of sliding ribbons, as each page turn brings with it a new flash of colour and emotion!

Brave Bears Don't Get Scared

Suzy Senior

Illustrated by Eleonora De Pieri

A heartfelt and reassuring children's book about fear from bestselling author Suzy Senior (Octopants, The Hotel for Bugs, Santarella).

Surely NOTHING can spook brave bears, fierce dragons or tough scorpions? Well, you'd be surprised . . . !

Fierce or tough - we ALL get scared - however big or small, but how we face our fears can be the BRAVEST thing of all!

This funny rhyming story is paired with super stylish illustrations from debut illustrator Eleonora De Pieri that will appeal to fans of Jon Klassen, Jory John and Pete Oswald. Brave Bears Don't Get Scared is the perfect book to help children tackle their phobias, and leaves kids with the encouraging message that while we all get scared, the bravest thing of all is facing our fears.

Gina Kaminski Rescues the Giant

Craig Barr-Green

Illustrated by Francis Martin

Gina Kaminski is back in this empowering retelling of Jack and the Beanstalk that challenges the traditional narratives we are told, with a confident, autistic character at its heart.

Meet Gina Kaminski. She's here to tell you three facts.

1. The story of Jack and the Beanstalk is FULL of BIG mistakes.
2. She has a plan to fix them.
3. Her plan does NOT involve magic beans (but there will be cake).

Gina is off to fairy tale land again, and this time she's rescuing the giant! Just like the first book, this is not your typical fairy tale as Gina takes the narrative lead and tells the story in her own distinctive way.

With lovable narrator Gina Kaminski, this is the ideal book to empower every child to be the hero of their own story.

Fans of fractured fairy tales like Little Red by Bethan Woollvin, and strong, character-led stories like Luna Loves Dance by Joseph Coelho and Fiona Lumbers and Look Up! by Nathan Bryon and Dapo Adeola will love Gina Kaminski Rescues the Giant.

About the Illustrator

Francis Martin is an illustrator and artist living out in the wilds of Pendle Witch Country. He is a graduate of Cambridge School of Art's MA in Children's Book Illustration.

One. Jack sells his cow for three magic beans, which grow into an enormous beanstalk.

Two. Jack climbs up the beanstalk and finds a giant with a special hen and a special harp.

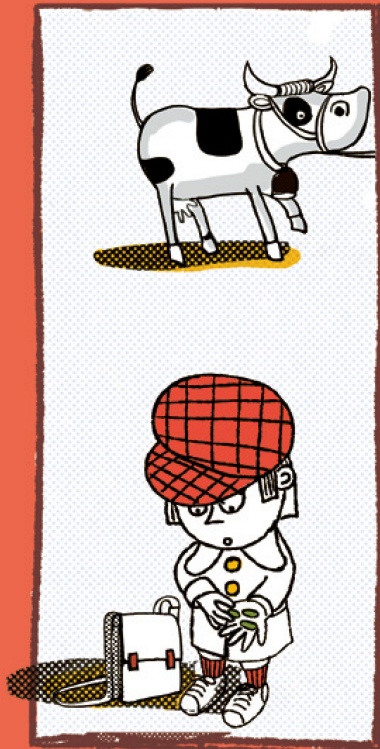

Three. Jack and the villagers plan a heist to steal the giant's special things, and it's a bad ending for the giant.

No More Mr. Mice Guy

Fiona Ross

Illustrated by Fiona Ross

A hilarious, icky, sticky, spooky story with fluorescent green slime throughout - perfect for fans of Halloween, mayhem and goo!

When Squeak the mouse wins a beastly-looking jelly in a competition, Granny throws it in the bin. But Squeak can't resist a sneaky taste . . . and UH OH! No more Mr. MICE guy - he turns into Hyde, a food-guzzling, slime-spewing monster mouse! Soon, the cupboards are bare, so hungry Hyde builds a machine that zaps clocks, chairs and sofas into food! Can anyone stop this monster from eating everything . . . and help Squeak turn back to normal?

This child-friendly twist on the creepy classic Jekyll and Hyde taps into all the fun tropes of creepy stories and comic books. It will appeal to fans of Nibbles (Emma Yarlett), Gustavo the Shy Ghost (Flava Z. Drago), Creepy Tales (Aaron Reynolds and Peter Brown) and the classic Haunted House (Jan Pienkowski).

Nabila Adani lives in Jakarta and enjoys illustrating different cultures around the world. She briefly worked as a product designer in Japan and Indonesia before moving to the United States to study children's book illustration.

A vibrant, painterly illustration of two children with dark skin and curly hair flying through a fantastical sky. The child in the foreground wears a blue long-sleeved shirt and yellow pants, while the child behind wears a green and white striped shirt. They are surrounded by soft, pastel-colored clouds in shades of yellow, pink, and green. Several white birds are in flight, and a multi-colored rainbow arches across the background. Long, flowing ribbons of yellow, orange, and purple trail behind the children. The overall mood is joyful and dreamlike.

Isabella hurried out into the garden. She was expecting to see Honey flopped underneath the table on the patio – the puppy liked the shade in the hot summer weather – but she wasn't there. Maybe she was hiding under one of the bushes.

"Honey!" Isabella called, looking down the garden.

"You can't see her?" Mike asked, standing in the kitchen doorway. "She's probably gone right to the end." He started to walk down the long strip of grass, shouting for Honey.

He and Isabella both turned hopefully when they heard a scuffling sound. But it was just Beatrice, peering over from next door. There was a bench up against the fence on the other side and Beatrice was standing on it.

"Did Honey like seeing Sam?" she asked.

Isabella shook her head. "She hated it. I wish I'd never suggested it. I don't think she knew what was happening, she looked so confused. And then she ran out into the garden to get away.

Wintour's Fate

Brían Dungan

When Alex is saved from the burning Temple, the last person she expects to see is a woman named Christine, a key figure to understanding her mysterious past. But before Alex can get any answers, Christine is snatched away.

Alex is desperate to find her, but there's a new development. Disciples from around the world are trying to capture Alex, by any means necessary. She won't be caught so easily, though, as her newfound abilities have given her the freedom to start fighting back. But with the walls closing in, and even her own friends beginning to mistrust her, she'll need to decide who her real allies are. No matter what she chooses, the Temporal world lies in Alex's hands...

The second in a new action-packed trilogy, perfect for fans of ARTEMIS FOWL, ALEX RIDER and LOCKWOOD AND CO.

About the Author

Born in Dublin, Brían splits his time between his family, his day job in film and television and his passion for writing. As a camera assistant, Brían has worked on television projects as varied as Game Of Thrones; Line of Duty; Derry Girls and Black Mirror. Now turning to novel-writing, Brían aims to be the latest in a long and distinguished line of published authors from his home town of Skerries, where he lives with his long suffering wife, three daughters and their rescue dog.
