WELCOME!
HERE'S HOW IT WORKS:

THIS ISN'T YOUR EVERYDAY, RUN-OF-THE-MILL QUIZ, IT IS A GAME SHOW IN A BOOK! THERE ARE DIFFERENT ROUNDS, AND SOME QUESTIONS ARE WORTH MORE POINTS THAN OTHERS.

YOU CAN PLAY ON YOUR OWN OR IN A GROUP.
IF YOU'RE IN A GROUP, ONE OF YOU IS THE HOST.

START WITH ROUND ONE.
THE HOST READS THE QUESTIONS ALOUD, LEAVING TIME FOR THE PLAYERS TO WRITE DOWN THEIR ANSWERS.
THERE ARE FIVE ROUNDS EACH WITH FOUR SUBJECTS.

AFTER EACH ROUND, ASK THE PLAYERS TO MARK EACH OTHER'S QUIZZES (TO KEEP THEM HONEST!)

THE HOST READS THE ANSWERS ALOUD AND KEEPS TRACK OF THE SCORES.

1 POINT EASY 2 POINTS MEDIUM 3 POINTS HARD

AT THE END OF ALL FIVE ROUNDS, WHOEVER HAS THE HIGHEST TOTAL SCORE IS CROWNED THE 'BODY BRAINBOT'!

READY? LET'S GO!

BEFORE YOU BEGIN, HERE ARE SOME QUICK-FIRE, WARM-UP QUESTIONS TO GET YOUR BRAINS TICKING.

EACH QUESTION IS WORTH 1 POINT. THE HOST READS THEM OUT AND THE PLAYERS SHOUT OUT THEIR ANSWER. WHOEVER GIVES THE CORRECT ANSWER THE QUICKEST WINS THE POINT. THE ANSWERS ARE AT THE BOTTOM OF THIS PAGE.

- Our bodies are only 10% water.
- The length of your arms stretched out is about as wide as your height.
- Human bodies emit a very low level of light.
- We don't use our appendix.
- The oldest human was 135 years old.
- About 10,000 human cells can fit on the end of a needle.
- Females have more cells in their bodies than males.
- There are now 3-D printers that can build body parts.
- We shed the weight of a large dog's worth of skin over our lifetime.
- The average adult has 22 internal organs.
- Blood is red because it has iron in it.
- There's more bacteria inside us than human cells.

The Bucket List Family

Garrett Gee

Disney
HYPERION

This inspiring story from the celebrated Bucket List Family—globe-trotters who have visited more than 100 countries and counting—encourages young readers and their families to seek adventure and create special memories wherever they are.

Dorothy Gee loves adventure days with her family. They're the days she, her younger brothers, and her mom and dad spend time together dreaming up adventures big and small—like flying an airplane over the Pyramids at Giza and soaring above the Nile. Then one Saturday, her life changes forever: Mom and Dad roll out a map and ask Dorothy and her brothers, “Where should we go this time?”

Heartwarming and wholesome, this charmingly illustrated tale of one imaginative family will inspire others to find joy in play, dream big, and most important, find new ways to make memories together.

MEDIAGENIC AUTHOR WITH BUILT-IN AUDIENCE: The Bucket List Family—nominated for a Nickelodeon Kids' Choice Award and winner of the American Influencer 'Traveler of the Year' Award for the past three years—reaches an audience of more than 6 million between their Instagram accounts, YouTube subscribers, and Bucket List Friends paid subscriber base. They've reached millions more through coverage in People and Parents magazines; on Good Morning America; They also have successfully promoted their previous book and merchandise through their connected networks of content creators and celebrities.

TARGET CONSUMERS: Fans and followers of The Bucket List Family; parents/grandparents/gift givers looking for a fun read-aloud book; families interested in adventure and travel.

INTERACTIVE COMPONENTS: A letter to the reader and family photos at the end of the book highlight the real-life experiences of The Bucket List Family, and a QR code links to their videos.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC CROSS-PLATFORM OPPORTUNITIES: The Bucket List Family is working across National Geographic with various initiatives.

Kon Tan

Disney · HYPERION

Perry the pterodactyl has lots of nightmares—and they always come true! Can Perry face his fear of monkeys? If not . . . we're all gonna DIE-nosaur!!!

With black-and-white comic illustrations on every page, this subversively hilarious chapter book series is perfect for young fans of The Bad Guys, Dog Man, and Captain Underpants.

Perry the pterodactyl has the sc-sc-scariest dreams—the kind that come true! Last night, Perry dreamed about terrifying creatures with big eyes, lots of hair, and long creepy fingers.

Then, on his first-day-of-school field trip, Perry comes face to face with the horrible beasts: monkeys. And they escape! Can Perry find the courage to save himself and his new dinosaur classmates? Or will his banana-shaped head be his downfall?

Kon Tan's hilarious, heart-filled early graphic novel series shows kids it's okay to be scared—and that fears can be overcome.

A Thousand Worlds Novel: Fox Snare

Ha Yoon Lee

Disney • HYPERION

Best-selling author Rick Riordan presents a third space opera starring Korean animal spirits by Yoon Ha Lee, author of Dragon Pearl.

This thrilling conclusion of the Thousand Worlds trilogy, told in alternating points of view, will put you under a delightful spell as it transports you to worlds full of both danger and wonder.

While on a mission to cement peace between the Sun Clans and the Thousand Worlds, Min the fox spirit and her ghost brother Jun get stranded on a death planet with Haneul the dragon spirit and Sebin the tiger spirit. To survive, the young cadets will have to rely on all their wits, training, and supernatural abilities. And let's not forget the Dragon Pearl . . .

Endorsed by Rick Riordan, author of the Disney+ hit series Percy Jackson and the Olympians.

• ACCESSIBLE SCI-FI in the form of a rollicking space opera, with action, mystery, humor, and suspense

• REUNITES THREE FAVORITE ANIMAL SPIRITS: Min the fox, Haneul the dragon, and Sebin the tiger

• INSPIRED BY KOREAN MYTHOLOGY, CULTURE, AND HISTORY: This story is an allegory for Korea's complicated relationship with Japan.

• A SATISFYING AND EXCITING CONCLUSION TO THE THOUSAND WORLDS TRILOGY that can also be enjoyed as a standalone read

The Sacred and the Divine

Eliza Wolfe & Kate Christensen

Disney
HYPERION

History, romance, and the occult come together in a mesmerizing tale of sisterhood, fate, and the darkness lurking in our world.

Past, Present, Future. What do the cards say? Only the Wolfson sisters know. The year is 1848, and Daisy, Morrigan, and Avery Wolfson are skilled in the supernatural, particularly tarot readings. Daisy has insights about the future, Morrigan has ties to the past, and Avery has a special connection to the present. Although Massachusetts is known for its hostility to such talents, the village of Redcliffe is eager to use the sisters' abilities for its own gain.

Then Daisy meets Harvard medical student and occult skeptic Jasper Fitzwilliam, as well as handsome newcomer Nate Winthrop, whose fiery nature might just rival Daisy's. Caught up in the throes of first love, Daisy grows distracted, which is only further muddled by a mysterious feud between the girls' mother and their spiritual tutor.

But when the sisters accidentally unleash a bloodthirsty demon on their sleepy town, the lines between friend and enemy get blurred. Will Daisy, Morrigan, and Avery escape unscathed, or is an unfortunate fate written in the stars?

STUNNING PACKAGE: With a gorgeous tarot-inspired cover and chapter header designs, this package will be perfect for BookTok and Bookstagram shareables, as well as a great candidate for witchy-themed book boxes.

TAROT IS TRENDING: Tarot is having a moment. Sales of tarot decks have doubled in the past five years according to the US Games System and are expected to grow.

Midnights With You

Clare Osongco

Disney • HYPERION

Fans of Susan Lee and Dustin Thao will be enchanted by this soulful YA romance about how we love, how we heal, and how we find the strength to go on.

"Where were you thinking of going?"
"Nowhere."
"Great," he says lightly, putting the car in gear. "Then we'll go there."

Seventeen-year-old Deedee's life is full of family ghosts and questions she can't ask. She longs to escape her stifling home, but guilt holds her back—that, and the fact that her strict Filipino single mom won't let her learn to drive.

But one sleepless night leads Deedee down a road she never thought possible: secret driving lessons with the new boy next door, Jay, whose turbulent family life also keeps him up until sunrise.

As midnights stretch into days, Jay helps Deedee begin to unravel her past, and as shared secrets blossom into love, Deedee starts to imagine a life where happiness is possible. But the deeper she digs into the trauma that has shaped her, the more that trauma threatens to tear Deedee and Jay apart. Together, these two must decide if the pain they've both inherited has the power to choose their fate, or if they have the power to choose for themselves.

- THE ROMANCE WE CRAVE: An intoxicating yet heartbreaking love story perfect for fans of Dustin Thao, Susan Lee, and Nicola Yoon
- THE GENERATIONAL TRAUMA CUTS DEEP: Deedee and Jay's ultimate triumph to heal from the emotional abuse and neglect they've each inherited from their immigrant parents will inspire and empower readers
- POWERFUL BLEND OF COMMERCIAL AND LITERARY: Clare's writing is heady, lyrical, and mesmerizing, hitting that sweet spot of emotional and propulsive that romance readers hunger for
- AUTHENTIC FILIPINA AMERICA REP: Inspired by Clare's own experience as a biracial, 2nd generation Filipina American

Seven for a Secret

Mary Roach

Sadie meets The Female of the Species in this YA thriller starring Nev, a teen who is forced to confront the mysteries of her past when the man in charge of her former group home pays her a visit then turns up dead the next day.

After her parents died in a car accident, Nev spent her childhood in a group home on Avan Island. But now, after being emancipated at sixteen, Avan Island is the last place she ever wants to return. Nev has worked hard to move on, leaving behind the island, the group home, and her memories. But there is one thing she will never forget: the girls at the group home who would periodically just . . . vanish.

The staff said they had run away. Nev never believed them.

One night, the former head of the group home rings Nev's doorbell. And she slams the door in his face. The next day, his dead body is found just blocks from Nev's apartment. In the search for answers, Nev finds herself led back to the place she had hoped to leave behind forever—Avan Island.

Seeing Stars: A Mashad Family Novel

Candice Jalili

Disney • HYPERION

A spin-off story to the beloved Finding Famous, Candice Jalili is back with another story in the Mashad Family universe: a laugh-out-loud, larger-than-life YA romance that brings reality down to earth.

Mona Mashad grew up on camera, with millions of fans around the world tuning in to see her every move. After more than a decade on screen, Mona has discovered the key to being the most followed person on Instagram: never let your guard down and never give your heart away (because if it breaks, the whole world will know).

But she didn't expect to meet Lukas Haas: all-around hottie and son of the first female President of the United States. Lukas sweeps her off her feet (literally, she was falling down the Met Gala steps and he saved her), and for just one second Mona wants to let her walls come down.

So, it hurts even more when he betrays her (although he claims it's just a misunderstanding) and even more when Mona's mom/manager and the literal POTUS conspire behind their kids' backs to come up with a plan raise both their ratings (by forcing Lukas and Mona to fake date for the delight of fans and voters).

Normally this would be fine, after all, Mona is used to living her life for the camera. But then Mona meets Kai. A (hot) surfer and all-around normal guy. Could he be the escape from this fake reality that Mona needs? Or will fake dating America's most eligible bachelor lead to real feelings?

Divine Mortals 2: Wayward Gods

Amanda M. Helander

Disney • HYPERION

This sequel to young adult romantasy Divine Mortals, which Kirkus Reviews recommended for fans of Sarah J. Maas and Rebecca Yarros, delivers sizzling romance and epic stakes.

Mona is tasked with saving the world and everyone she loves—but what can she do when even the gods have failed?

Soothsayer Mona Arnett never even wanted a soulmate, and now she's been forced to marry the king, parting from the man she truly loves.

Worse, though Mona has delayed the prophesied end of the world, she hasn't stopped it. The gods have turned their backs, the castle is besieged by demons, and Mona is the only one who can seek help.

But who do you turn to when the world is ending and even the gods are powerless to stop it? To save all those she's come to love, Mona may have to become even more powerful than the gods . . .

Jax Freeman and the Tournament of Spirits

Kwame Mbalia

From the award-winning author of the best-selling Tristan Strong trilogy comes a magical series about a special boy who is granted summoning powers from his ancestors.

Seventh grader Jackson "Jax" Freeman recently learned two important facts: one, he's a summoner—someone who can call on the magical powers of his ancestors to help him do amazing things—and two, he isn't the only person with this ability.

After much training, Jax and four of his summoner classmates from DuSable Middle school in Chicago are thrust into a competition called the Tournament of Spirits where they'll face the most skilled summoners from around the world.

But while everyone is focused on winning, Jax is given a special side quest by the elders of the four magical families: he has to spy on each of the competitors—including his own teammates—in order to uncover who is releasing endangered, and very dangerous, cryptids into the arena.

Can Jax take the top spot in the tournament and save himself and his friends from a mysterious foe?

Kwame Mbalia's incredible imagination and world-building talents are on full display in this thrilling adventure that's packed with magic, friendship, non-stop action, and a lot of heart.

Jax Freeman is my new best friend. I loved everything about this book—the characters, the humor, the page-turning adventure. I'm glad Kwame Mbalia is such a prolific writer because I will be bugging him for the sequel immediately."—Rick Riordan

Lie or Die: Blood Moon

A.J. Clack

Fourteen strangers trapped in a castle.
Three dangerous trials.
One silver bullet.

Summary:

Lie or Die survivor Kass is back and blackmailed into competing in the reality TV sequel, Blood Moon.

Lured to a mysterious castle location, Kass discovers that these contestants will go to extreme lengths for fame, fortune, and revenge, and that far from being on the run, the Lie or Die killer has prepared a deadly comeback. Kass has just three nights of the Blood Moon to identify the Werewolves and save her friends.

Lie or Die was just a rehearsal. Reality TV just got deadlier. Welcome to Blood Moon.

Praise for Lie or Die:

'What a breathless rollercoaster of a read! Fresh, fast-paced and full of twists and turns.' Sophie McKenzie, award-winning author of Girl, Missing

'A gripping page-turner about a reality TV game turned deadly, where you truly can't trust anyone – dark and twisty, this is a read in one sitting thriller!' Ravana Guron, author of This Book Kills

'If you thought Lie or Die was a rollercoaster ride of a read then hold onto your hats for Lie or Die 2: Blood Moon. A.J. Clack has done it again with this reality-TV thriller even more deadly than the last.'
Editor, Hayley Fairhead

A.J. Clack moved from a small village in Wales to London, to pursue a career in television. She worked on a wide range of shows from Teletubbies to Friends, while also writing plays for the Edinburgh Fringe and development scripts/pilots for children's television. She now lives in Suffolk with a houseful of teenagers and can often be found freezing on a rugby pitch.

Gatlin released His Royal Hopeless with Chicken House in 2021 under the name Chloe Perrin after being longlisted for the Times/Chicken House Children's Fiction Competition.

Dirk Jones is NOT the Chosen One

Gatlin Perrin

- Thrilling science fiction weirdness for the older middlegrade reader
- Comprehensive marketing campaign planned for the author with strong social media presence and events campaign

Summary:

Dirk isn't the chosen one. Not even close. So how did they end up in the middle of a potential apocalypse?

All Dirk wanted was to escape another argument with their parents and go for a nice quiet coffee. Instead they've been kidnapped by agents, attacked by mal-realms and forced to wear a boiler suit that they're pretty sure someone died in.

When Dirk is taken to Base, a secret underground...well... base, they learn way more than they need to. More about other realms, more about the battle between good and evil, and more about the absolutely terrifying Violent Jack, an evil mal-realm determined to bring about the end of the world.

Both sides need the chosen one. But there's not a lot Dirk can do about it, is there? It's not like it's them.

Unfortunately for Dirk, not everyone knows that.

Gatlin Perrin is a North Walian living in London. They tell folktales to children, lecture to university students and do workshops for adults. Essentially, they're trying to ruin as many generations as possible.

The Kerfuffle

Author/Illustrator Clotilde Perrin

ABOUT THE BOOK

Dog and Cat were happy living next door until a misunderstanding caused a real kerfuffle! Now they can't stand each other any longer so start to build a wall between their gardens. The wall goes up and up and up.

One day a funny rabbit pops its head over. But whose garden will this new friend play in? Here's another cause for chaos between neighbors! Finally a better idea for how to use the bricks finds three happy friends sharing the garden after all—until some pigs move in next door . . .

From the creator of sensational lift-the-flap books about fairy tales and adventures comes a delightfully simple story about getting along with friends, which doesn't put the lid on pandemonium.

SALES POINTS

- A playful book with big flaps engineered to tell the story and transform each image
- Details to pore over, with silent stories in the illustration backgrounds
- Themes of what separates us, what brings us together, boundaries we impose on ourselves

ABOUT THE AUTHOR & ILLUSTRATOR

Clotilde Perrin is an illustrator and author living in France. A graduate of the prestigious School of Decorative Arts in Strasbourg, she has published more than 30 books and is known for her intricate lift-the-flaps books.

Omnibird

The Avian Investigator's Handbook

Author/Illustrator Giselle Clarkson

ABOUT THE BOOK

Have you seen a bird today? Probably, unless you're reading this in bed. Did you truly look at the bird? To open your ornithological eyes and ears, meet the Omnibird.

An Omnibird contains the essential birdiness of every bird—it was born from an egg, has feathers, two legs, a beak and gizzard, perhaps some premium features like spurs or a curuncle. Once you recognise the Omnibird, you'll see the remarkable in any bird. You'll be expert at finding extraordinary things around you, just by looking.

Omnibird describes 12 common birds from habitats around the world—eagles, owls and seabirds, starlings, ducks and swans. In this book, you will explore the incredible internal structure of bird bones, learn what a gizzard stone is for, meet the tiny creatures that live on birds, and find the fascinating in eggs, bird poop, feathers and flight patterns.

Now you're an Omnibird expert, you'll look at every bird in new ways every day.

SALES POINTS

- Distinctive voice and humour combines with fascinating science
- Commonly known birds found in habitats around the world
- Text combines with comics, full-page illustrations, fact boxes
- The Observologist sold out in first weeks of release, has reprinted twice, has three starred reviews, and received multiple shortlistings and awards internationally, including shortlisting for the UK Wainwright Prize for Science and Nature Writing

ABOUT THE AUTHOR & ILLUSTRATOR

Giselle Clarkson is an illustrator and comic artist based in Greytown, New Zealand, known for work on conservation and environmental topics. She has written and illustrated award-winning picture books and non-fiction and is an Arts Foundation Laureate.

OWLS

Owls are irresistibly charming birds, with their wide eyes and saucer faces. And compared to other birds, they have quite a lot of facial expressions.

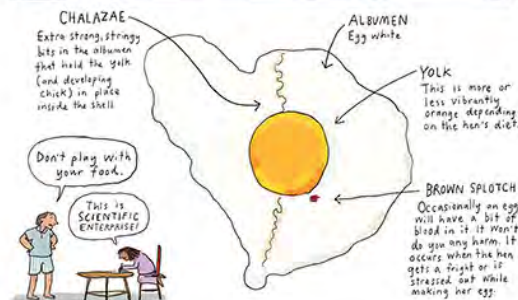

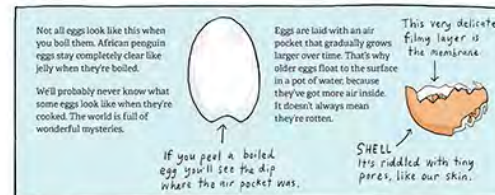

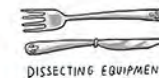

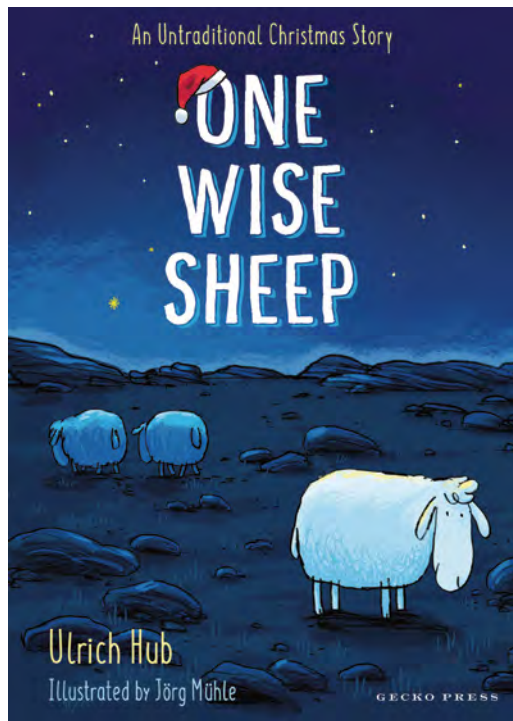

SOME OF THE EXTRAORDINARY EGGS THAT YOU'RE MOST LIKELY TO MEET

DISSECT YOUR BREAKFAST

A chicken egg plucked from a carton is as wondrous as any wild bird's egg, and finding one is elementary for even an amateur sleuth. This makes them perfect to marvel at, and allows you to observe things that are true for ALL eggs, even the very rare and brightly decorated ones.

One Wise Sheep

Reprint

Author: Ulrich Hub

Illustrator: Jörg Mühle

This retelling of the nativity story from the point of view of the sheep is laugh-out-loud funny and full of the warmth of Christmas—a cheeky illustrated chapter book by a bestselling author/illustrator pair.

ABOUT THE BOOK

Tonight, the sheep can't sleep. The pasture is floodlit by a strange new star and their shepherds have disappeared. They must have been kidnapped by a UFO—or perhaps they've gone to meet the child rumoured to have been born in a stable. The sheep set off to find their shepherds. They'd like to see this child too, and they heard there'll be a party!

The sheep hike across country two by two, so none are lost. During this extraordinary night in Bethlehem, the quarrelsome sheep gradually become a real flock that pulls together.

This amusing retelling of the first Christmas story through the eyes of the sheep reinforces the season's theme—be a little nicer to each other, forgive your quarrels, and listen to everybody, especially the children.

SALES POINTS

- Timeless message of kindness and working together
- Can be enjoyed alongside the traditional nativity story or with no knowledge of it
- 2 starred reviews and a Bank St Best Books selection

ABOUT THE AUTHOR & ILLUSTRATOR

Ulrich Hub trained as an actor and now works as a director for stage and writes plays, screenplays and children's books, which have won numerous awards.

Jörg Mühle has written and illustrated many bestselling children's books for all ages including the Tickle My Ears series of bestselling baby books, picture books and junior fiction.

COACH (RUN #5) Jason Reynolds

In this companion to Jason Reynolds's award-winning and New York Times bestselling Track series, meet Coach as a boy striving to come into his own as a track star while facing upheaval at home.

Before Coach was the man who gave caring yet firm-handed guidance to Ghost, Lu, Patina, and Sunny on the Defenders running team, he was little Otie Brody, who was obsessed with Mr. 9.99 (a.k.a. Carl Lewis) and Marty McFly from Back to the Future. Like Mr. 9.99--and his own dad--Otie is a sprinter. Sprint free or die is practically his motto.

Then his dad, who is always away on business trips, comes home with a pair of Jordans. JORDANS. Fine as fine can be. Otie puts them on and feels like he can leap to the moon...maybe even leap like Mr. 9.99 when he won the Olympic gold medal in the long jump. But one morning he wakes up to find his brand-new secret weapon kicks are missing--right off his feet! And Otie just might have a fuzzy memory of his dad easing them off as Otie was sleeping, but that can't be right, can it?

Unless all the reasons for his dad's "gone's" are very different from what he's been told... Because now, not only are the Jordans missing, but so is his father.

Up Above The City

Clare Weze

It's the Christmas holidays, and Jake has nowhere else to go but to work with his mum.

Who is the girl he can see in the attic room across the road? Is she trapped? Does she need help? If Jake tries to help her, what kind of people will put a spotlight on him?

Note from the author

This story is about displacement, and the uncertainty following family separation. It spotlights the protagonist's fascination with the adult world via an owl's eye view. It deals with learning to be responsible, juggling other people's secrets and safety, trust, and above all, friendship. Together, these experiences reduce the impact of problems you can't alter. They change your perspective and can work like a miracle. Jake discovers a secret about London and witnesses an astounding scientific breakthrough. The strength of this feeds into the way he feels about his own future.

- A topical and moving middle-grade novel by Clare Weze, tackling the real theme of the often-hidden communities of refugees through a gently fantastical lens
- Supported by school events and a PR campaign that focuses on the message of the book; Clare has great connections and experience working with BookTrust

About the Author

Clare Weze grew up in London and Yorkshire and has British and Nigerian heritage. She writes for both adults and children and has always written around her day job, starting out as a hairdresser in London's West End, then moving on to a science degree, postgraduate studies and work in the fields of biomedical and environmental research. Books had a huge effect on her as a child, and her aim is to recreate that sense of discovery in her readers. Writing for children allows her to take her ideas to their ultimate, wildest conclusions. In 2016 she won the Northern Writers Award

One Cheetah, One Cherry

A Book of Beautiful Numbers

Written and illustrated by Jackie Morris

A beautiful board book edition of Jackie Morris's classic 1-10 counting book

One cherry, one cheetah

Two dogs, two balls, one big, one small

Three bears, three bowls, three silver spoons

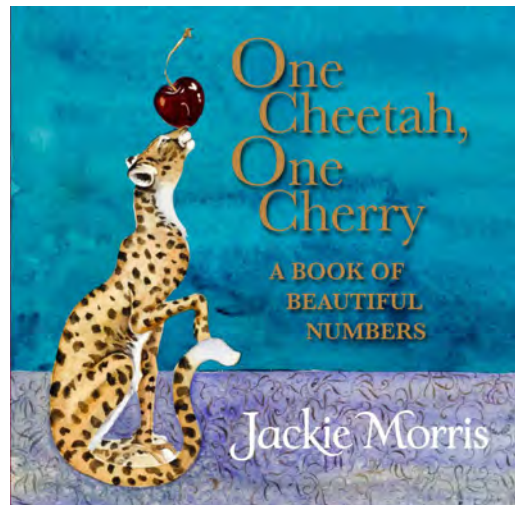

This stunning counting book, illustrating numbers 1 to 10 in beautiful animal paintings, is now presented as a very special board book, embellished with gold leaf as in the original hardback edition, bringing this gorgeous book to a younger readership.

With playful words and stunning pictures with lots of detail to pore over, the book depicts dogs, bears, foxes, elephants, tigers, pandas, otters, mice – and of course one cheetah and a cherry – making this a perfect introduction to numbers and counting.

- Brings a classic counting book to a younger audience
- Strong gift appeal with gold leaf and beautiful art
- Top quality production with rounded cover
- “A book to pore over with delight” – Parents in Touch
- “A particularly decorative counting book” – Observer
- Jackie Morris has a huge fan-base and following on social media, and in galleries, bookshops and gift shops

My Book of Classic Nursery Tales

Written and illustrated by James Mayhew

Favourite nursery stories, combined with Mayhew's magical illustrations, make this a gift book to treasure.

A beautiful new collection of eight nursery tales - traditional stories for younger children, including all the favourite classics, delightfully retold and enchantingly illustrated by James Mayhew, internationally bestselling author and illustrator of Once Upon a Tune, A Symphony of Stories, the Mrs Noah series and many other much-loved picture books.

The stories included are: Goldilocks and the Three Bears (England), Little Red Riding Hood (Germany), The Billy Goats Gruff (Norway), The Three Little Pigs and the Big Bad Wolf (England), The Enormous Turnip (Ukraine), The Tortoise and the Hare (Ancient Greece), The Gingerbread Man (North America), The Vain Little Mouse (Spain)

Using the same technique of colourful cut-outs and collage as in his bestselling Once Upon a Tune: Stories from the Orchestra, James Mayhew has created another spectacular gift book, this time for a very young audience.

- A perfect gift book for young children
- An illustrated version of the tales for our own time, but which keeps the 'classic' feel
- Once Upon a Tune was A Sunday Times Children's Book of the Year 2021 and a Guardian Best Children's Book 2021
- High standard production with jacket and special finishes
- Author is a hugely popular performer at festivals, music and book events in bookshops, schools and concert halls across the UK

Author Information

James Mayhew is an internationally acclaimed author, artist and storyteller. He is the illustrator of the Mrs Noah series written by Jackie Morris (twice nominated for the Kate Greenaway Medal) and author of Can You See a Little Bear?, illustrated by Jackie Morris. Once Upon A Tune (2021) was inspired by his work with orchestras and musicians, presenting concerts that incorporate stories, music and art created live on stage. It is followed in 2024 by A Symphony of Stories: Musical Myths and Tuneful Tales. He lives in Suffolk, England.

It was a rainy autumn day, so she put up her hood and followed the path, this way and that. Soon she saw bright berries, autumn fruits, and flowers.

"I could gather berries for Grandma," thought Little Red Riding Hood. "And maybe a bunch of flowers..." and skippetty skip, she wandered away from the path, deep into the dark woods.

She found lots of delicious berries for Grandma. But after a while, she had the funny feeling she was being watched...

She turned around and... there was a wolf, sitting and staring at her.

"Hello, little girl," said the wolf, licking his lips. He was cold and wet and hungry. "Where are you off too?"

"I'm off to see Grandma, on the far side of the woods," said Little Red Riding Hood. "She's sick and needs some good things to eat."

'Hmm, so do I,' thought the wolf. 'A delicious little girl dressed in red, perhaps...' But he didn't say it out loud. Instead he smiled and said, "Little girl, I know a shortcut. Follow me through the woods."

Suddenly Little Red Riding Hood realised how far she had strayed from the path.

"Oh no, I must get back to the path, thank you very much," she said, and she skippetty-skipped off with the basket of treats.

Ming the Panda

A True Story of Courage and Hope

Jake Hope, illustrated by Yu Rong

The real-life story of Ming, the first baby Giant Panda to be brought London Zoo in 1938, who became a wartime symbol of courage and hope

A mother tells her child a bedtime story – the true story of Ming the Giant Panda.

Born in the mountains of Sichuan, Ming's life is traced from a tiny baby, growing up in the wild. Brought from China to London Zoo in 1938, she quickly becomes a favourite for visitors, especially children. Even Princess Elizabeth, the future Queen, comes to see her. And when the Second World War breaks out, Ming becomes an international celebrity, a symbol of hope in dangerous times.

When Ming dies in 1944 there is great sadness, but her story lives on, "helping to bring people together, shining light and giving hope."

Told as a story within a story, with Yu Rong's evocative illustrations, Ming's story still resonates today.

- True story of a panda who became a symbol of hope and courage in WW2
- An accessible way to introduce discussion of the war to younger children
- Sensitively told story that raises discussion points about conservation and animal captivity
- Endnote describes the life of Ming and the timeline of WW2 and the Blitz
- Beautiful artwork by award-winning Chinese artist Yu Rong

Author Information

Jake Hope is a writer, reviewer and consultant for the Carnegie Medals. He has judged or chaired numerous awards, including the Costa Children's Fiction Prize, and has been a jury member on the Bologna Ragazzi award. He is editor of and a contributor to Our Rights! Stories and Poems About Children's Rights (2023). He lives in Preston, Lancashire.

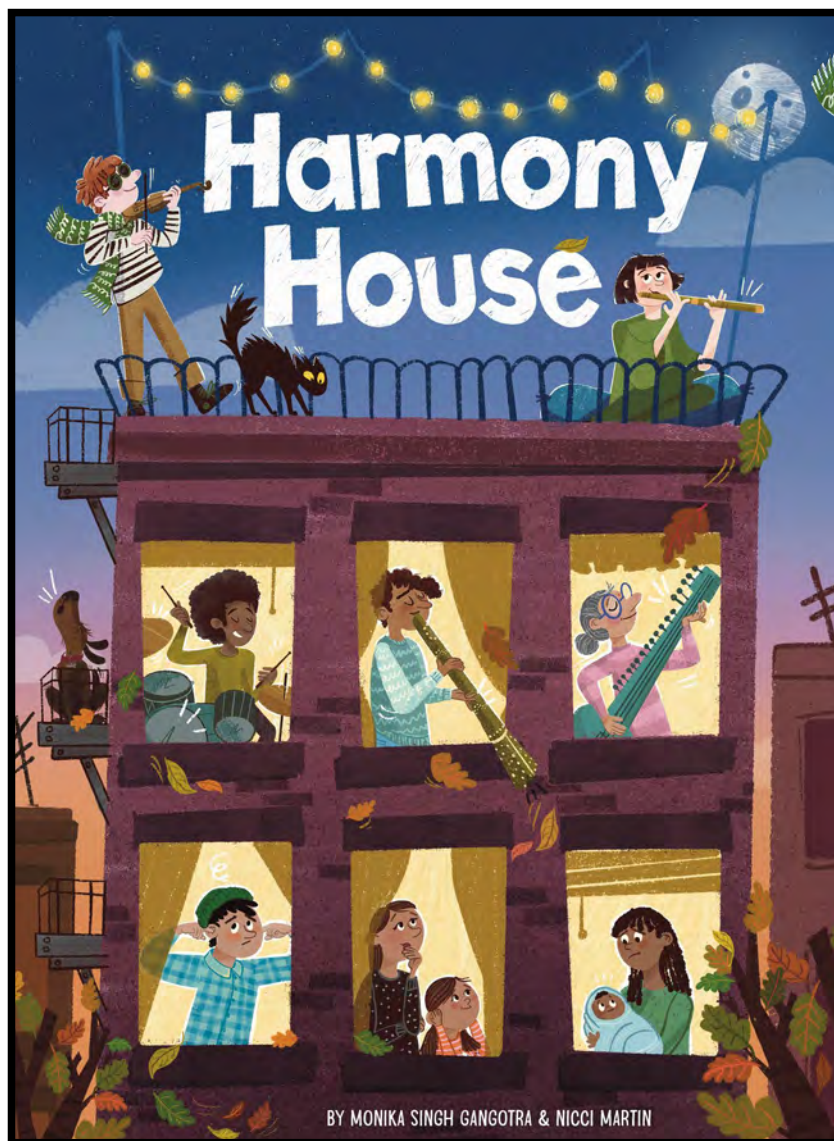

Yu Rong has degrees in Chinese Painting and Contemporary Art from Nanjing Normal University, and in Communication and Design from the Royal College of Art, London. Yu Rong's books for Otter-Barry Books include Shu Lin's Grandpa, with Matt Goodfellow, which was shortlisted for the Yoto Kate Greenaway Medal 2022. She has also illustrated The Boy Who Loves to Lick the Wind, written by Fiona Carswell, short-listed for the Teach Awards (2024) and nominated for the Yoto Carnegie Medal (2025). Yu Rong lives in Cambridgeshire.

The light that Ming brings to people's lives is soon needed, as a new danger lurks on the streets. War comes to London, bombs begin to fall on the city and many homes destroyed.

It is a dark and frightening time.

Some stories start with quiet nights that wouldn't stir a mouse,
but not THIS story, no,
this story starts at ...

Harmony House!

In the middle of town,
a riotous racket comes from Harmony House.
While people pass by,

they all pull the same face as they hear each resident play their instrument with no regard for their neighbours.
The result? One chaotic chorus that brings complaints and the threat of eviction! Can the musicians find harmony?

Monika Singh Gangotra is a South Asian author from Australia, now based in Birmingham. She is known for her picture book "Sunflower Sisters" (2021), which celebrates cultural diversity and friendship. Drawing from her Indian heritage and experiences as a migrant, Gangotra writes stories that promote inclusivity and cultural understanding. She actively advocates for diverse representation in children's literature and participates in literary events and festivals.

Nicci is a freelance illustrator from Bo-Kaap in Cape Town, South Africa. After working in the advertising world for many years, she decided to slow down the pace after becoming a parent to 2 beautiful children.

They always disagreed over whose music was best – but rather than talk to one another, the only way to make themselves heard, was to play LOUDER!

Passers-by would cover their ears, shaking their heads at the racket that spilled out into the street.

Before long, complaints started pouring in.

Meowy Christmas

Panos Christodoulou

Illustrated by Daniela Stamatiadi Translated by Manos Bonanos

Keynote:

One cat, one tree, one Christmas catastrophe...

Sales points:

- A festive feline adventure told from the perspective of one very curious cat
- Jam-packed with hilarious kitty antics
- Perfect for gifting to little cat lovers

Description:

One December morning, Tiddles the cat wakes to find an unexpected arrival towering over him. It's big, it's bushy, and it's draped in oh-so-tempting tinsel! The humans love their beautiful new Christmas tree, but one kitten is not so smitten. And when the tree's twinkly lights start to disrupt nap time, Tiddles must take matters into his own claws, once and for all...

Join Tiddles as he faces his biggest (and sparkliest) adversary yet: the Christmas tree! Full of kitty chaos, feline festivities and laugh-out-loud catastrophes, this hilarious tale captures the magic and mayhem of a kitten's first Christmas.

Author Biography:

Panos Christodoulou was born in 1972. He studied Law at the University of Athens and Human Rights at the University of London. He has collaborated on human rights issues with various organisations, such as the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and the Greek Council for Refugees. In 2016, he became the director of the Network for Children's Rights. As a children's author, he has published thirteen books and been nominated for various awards, including the Children's Literature Award by Anagnostis magazine (The Ball of Their Life, 2013), the Cyprus State Prize (How I Got Involved with Justice and Other Unknown Words, 2016).

Daniela Stamatiadis is a graduate of the Athens School of Fine Art. She has illustrated over 100 picture books for children. She has received many awards, including the Greek IBBY, the Greek Graphic Design and Illustration Award, and the Peter Pan prize for best translated book from the Swedish IBBY for Sabelle's Red Dress. She was also the Greek nominee for the Hans Christian Andersen Award in 2014. Her first author-illustrator picture book, I Wanna! (Ikaros), and silent picture book, Every Ending Is a New Beginning (Patakis Publishers), were published in 2021; the latter was selected for the BRAW Amazing Bookshelf.

Preparing for winter,
Beneath the forest's joyful gaze,
A chorus of creatures cheers
for the harvest of fall.

To Activate Space Portal Lift Here

by Antoinette Portis

This book is an interstellar portal, and the aliens inside want to get to know you!

Before you lift the cover, be sure you're ready to meet Zrk and Blrg. They're not so different from you—but to them, you're the alien!

After their initial shock at seeing you through the portal, they're eager to see what kind of teeth you have, compare home planets, and maybe team up for a prank. You met as aliens, but by the time the portal closes, maybe you'll be friends.

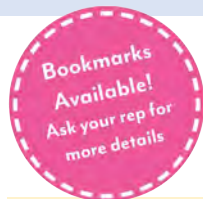

Key Selling Points

- An interactive book – opening it opens a space portal and turning the pages uses up the virtual battery
- Drama of a real encounter, with prompts to the reader to interact through the portal
- Intriguing cover with sparkly foil, and bright lines and bold colours inside
- Fresh and playful, to activate young imaginations
- A subtle message of acceptance: feelings of "strangeness" fade away when similarities are realised
- Theme of space, planets and aliens

Sales and Marketing

THE YETI'S SNEEZE

TRACY CURRAN

THE BOOK

The second book in a brand new chapter book series, Unicorns in Uniform.

High up in the Mystical Mountains, YAN YETI has a bad case of the sneezes, causing extreme weather in the form of snowstorms! When a ginormous 'ATISHOO!' triggers an avalanche, and young YO-YO YETI goes missing, air and mountain rescue unicorn SUNNY and his unicopter BEE are tasked with an urgent rescue mission: to venture out onto the mountain and find her.

But out on the snowy slope, SUNNY starts struggling with strange spells of dizziness. As he calls in the other unicorns and a swoop of albatrosses to help, can they save YO-YO YETI before it is too late?

Illustrated by Steve Wood.

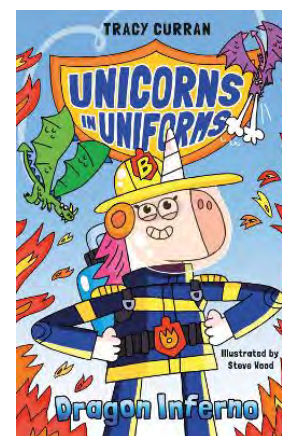

THE AUTHOR

Tracy writes picture books, young fiction and funny middle-grade.

She was a primary school teacher for sixteen years and is now a carer for her autistic daughter.

At around the age of three, Tracy fell into a storybook and discovered a world of magic! As a result, you'll now find her immersed in the pages of another imagined world or running along the beach, conjuring up her own story ideas. Her pile of books is taller than she is!

Tracy lives on the Cornish coast with her husband, three children, five rabbits, four chickens and one dog.

Suddenly, the dormitory went dark. Blaze glanced up just in time to see a huge figure flash past the window.

"What was that?" She frowned. The Unicorns in Uniforms were trained to be on constant alert and that shadow had been too big to be any kind of seabird, even an albatross. Quickly, Blaze stuck her head out of the window.

"GAH!" A jet of hot flames shot down from the rooftop, scorching Blaze's mane and almost melting the tip of her horn.

WYRDWOOD

THE BOOK

Something strange is happening in Merryweather-by-the-Sea.

Whispers in the playground abound – a spring-heeled phantom haunts the edge of the Wyrdwood, the ancient forest which surrounds the sleepy coastal town. But the Twig Man is the least of Kiki Harper's concerns.

Returning home for the holidays, Kiki discovers a peculiar woman has moved into her family home, having stolen everybody's hearts. Who is the beautiful Fay – and could Kiki's family really be bewitched?

Cover illustration by Alice Cao.

THE AUTHOR

Curtis Jobling is an author, illustrator and animation creator. He has both designed and created some of the UK's best loved children's shows, including the BAFTA-winning Bob the Builder, Frankenstein's Cat, and Raa Raa the Noisy Lion, while also writing and illustrating numerous picture books for young audiences. He has had eleven novels published for older audiences, including the acclaimed and bestselling Wereworld series, now adapted into a major new animated series for Netflix, titled Wolf King.
