FIRST GERMAN & ARABIC WORDS

by Vicky Barker

ENGAGING FIRST WORD BOOK WITH PLAY ELEMENT

Babies love to point at things that they recognise. So this book encourages adult and child through on-page prompts and delightful, bright artwork to say new words out loud together. Each spread showcases a popular theme and introduces 10 essential first words. There are over 100 words in the book plus plenty of details for language learners discuss and discover together. A charming 'first words' book!

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Larger format 'lap size' board book for reading together
- Prompts on each spread to help adults engage with the child
- QR code links to audio by a native speaker

My First English Colouring Book

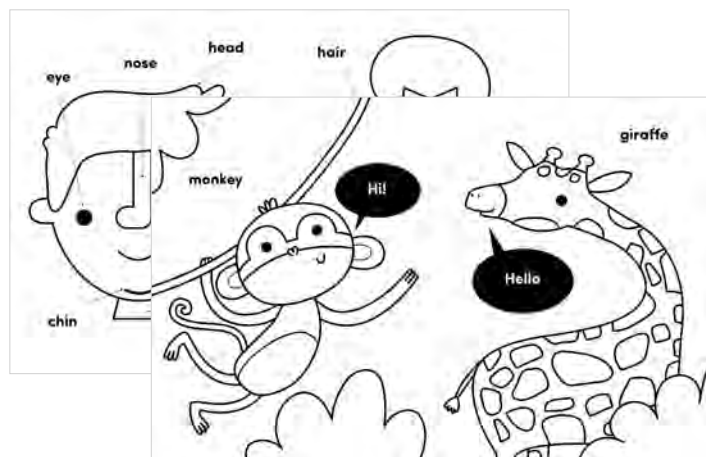

written by Sam Hutchinson, illustrated by Vicky Barker

FIRST WORDS FOR EARLY YEARS LEARNERS

First words and simple phrases in a cute and playful colouring book for young learners. The perfect way to introduce new vocabulary words and encourage confidence in a foreign language while having fun at the same time. Even if the little linguists just use the book as a colouring activity, they'll still get some passive exposure to English that will help them as they grow. Available in French and Spanish too.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

Impossible Possum for Mayor

Justin Colón

Disney • HYPERION

What's badder than using a Possum Populator to create your very own evil penguin sidekick?

Running for mayor. Then taking over the world. Lucky for us, Carl the possum isn't quite sure what it takes to win a human election.

Carl the possum is bad. Bad to the bone. And he wants to take over the world.

So he decides to run for mayor. The only problem is he has to get people to vote for him first. Hijinx and laughs abound as Carl and his penguin sidekick Philbert try to entice potential voters with guppies, mice cream, and other completely misguided gestures. Will Carl be elected mayor? Or will chaos rule?

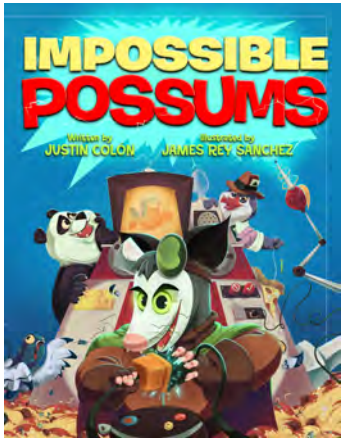

Justin Colón and James Rey Sanchez bring true hilarity and wit to the second book starring Carl and Philbert.

- PERFECT FOR FANS OF DESPICABLE ME AND LILO AND STITCH and parents, educators, and caregivers of kids 3–5 who The Sour Grape and Llama Unleashes the Apocalypse.
- SEQUEL TO IMPOSSIBLE POSSUMS featuring a bumbling would- be villain and his adorable penguin sidekick.
- CARL HILARIOUSLY ATTEMPTS TO CHARM HIS WAY TO

VICTORY in a mayoral race—the first step in Carl's latest plan for world domination—only to be effortlessly outdone by his sidekick's penguin appeal.

BAXTER'S VIEW

KERRI CUNNINGHAM

THE BOOK

"Rory is Baxter's big brother. Baxter likes to bounce, and hum, and flap. Sometimes it can take a while to get to wherever they're going. Sometimes this makes Rory cross."

Baxter and Rory see the world differently. Rory often wants to race ahead, while Baxter likes to stop and experience the world around him. Join Baxter and Rory as they journey to the playground with Mum, and Rory learns to see things from Baxter's view. With heartfelt storytelling and stunning illustrations by Murphy's Sketches, this book shows that if you slow down, you will see some wonderful things.

THE AUTHOR

Kerri Cunningham aka Murphy's Sketches is a writer and artist from Preston in Lancashire. She lives in a small village with her husband and three children. She has always loved drawing and writing and went to study Fine Art many years ago at UCLAN. In recent years she has used her sketches and writing to bring some joy to people's day via her social media platform – Murphy's Sketches. She writes a column for a local magazine each month called Lancashire Life where she talks about her experiences as a Mum, and she works full time as an artist and writer selling cards and prints. Her debut book, There is a Season, published 2024.

bounce,

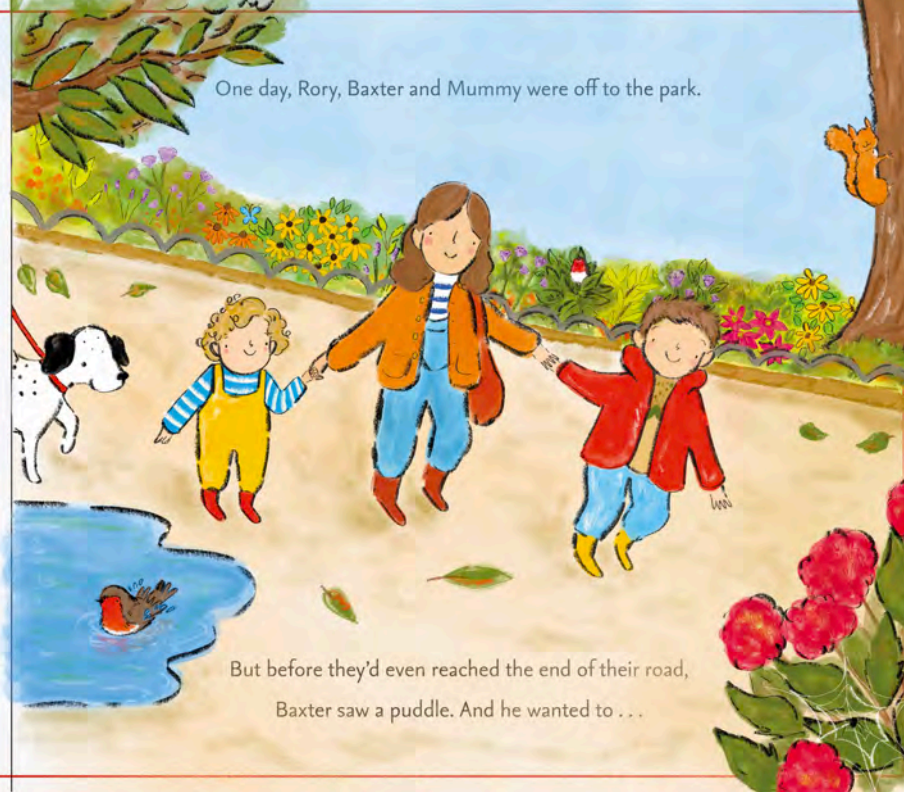

and hum,

and flap.

Sometimes it can take a while to get to wherever they're going.
Sometimes this makes Rory cross.

One day, Rory, Baxter and Mummy were off to the park.

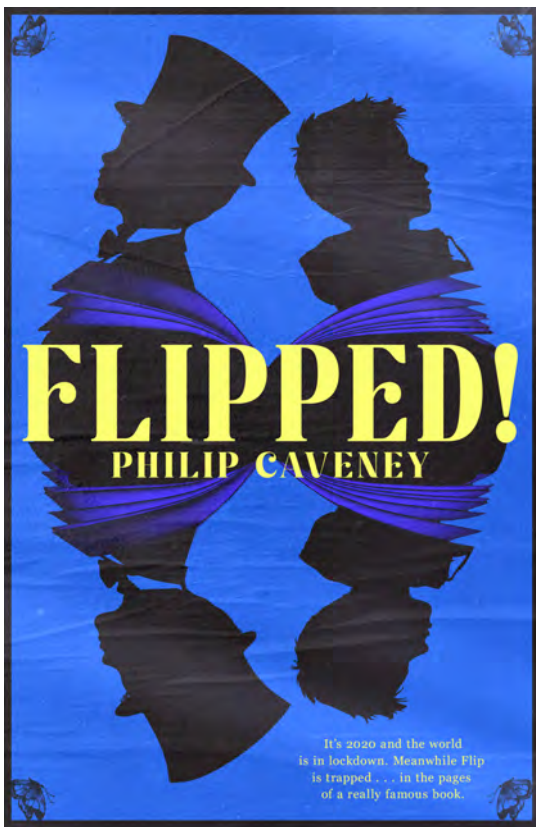

But before they'd even reached the end of their road, Baxter saw a puddle. And he wanted to . . .

"Just a second, Rory," said Mummy.
"Baxter wants to paddle."

Rory huffed, and waited.
He was thinking about the playground.
He couldn't wait to zoom down the slide,
and soar on the swings.

FLIPPED

PHILIP CAENEY

THE BOOK

During a long, lonely summer, Flip explores the mysteries of the nearby marshes. When he stumbles upon an abandoned Victorian house, he quickly discovers not everything is as it seems.

As Flip realises he is trapped inside the page of a famous book, and the strange people he meets are convinced he's someone else, he must work with faces old and new to stop this story becoming his new reality.

THE AUTHOR

Philip Caveney was born in North Wales in 1951 and now lives in Edinburgh. His first novel, The Sins of Rachel Ellis was published in 1977 and he produced a series of adult thrillers over the following decades. His first novel for younger readers, Sebastian Darke: Prince of Fools was released in 2007 and was published all around the world. Since then, he has concentrated on writing exclusively for younger readers. He also writes under the pseudonym Danny Weston. Danny's debut novel The Piper won the Scottish Children's Book Award in 2016 and in 2018, The Haunting of Jessop Rise was shortlisted for the Scottish Teenage Book prize and nominated for a Carnegie Medal. Postcards from Valhalla was shortlisted for the Hounslow Teen Book Award, Hampshire School Library Service Book Award, YTF Staff Libraries book Awards and the Leeds Book Award.

LILY'S MONSTER

CLIFF MCNISH

THE BOOK

Consumed with guilt following her elder brother's fatal accident, Holly escapes to the isolated seaside home of Gant House with her family.

But the house has a menacing history, and the restless spirit inside has been waiting a long time for a family as perfect as Holly's to turn up. Who is the child, Lily? And what is the terrifying dark power swirling at the heart of the house, whose touch means death?

Can Holly uncover the truth behind the monster in Lily's past? Or will she and her family simply become Gant House's next sacrificial victims?

From the multiple award-winning ghost story writer of Breathe and The Hunting Ground, comes his first novel in ten years – a burning nightmare of psychological horror with the pulse of a thriller.

THE AUTHOR

Cliff McNish is an English author of fantasy and supernatural novels for young adults. His best-known works include the 2006 ghost novel Breathe, The Silver Sequence, and The Doomspell Trilogy, which has been translated into 26 languages.

Remarkable Animals

1000 Amazing Amalgamations

Written and illustrated by Tony Meeuwissen

A beautiful new edition of a much-loved, classic mix-and-match picture book

Remarkable Animals is one of the most ingenious mix-and-match books ever devised. Based on ten real-life animals, each described in words as well as pictures, it offers 1,000 fantastic variations.

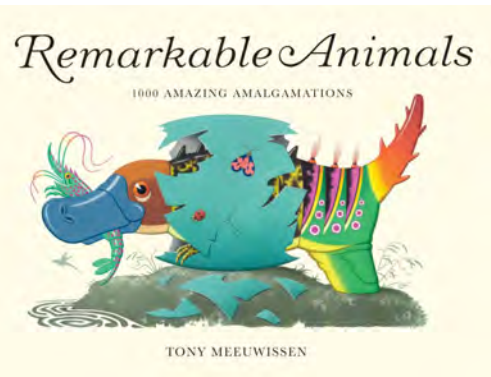

Just flip the pages and see ten remarkable animals become 1,000 crazy creatures, taking on new names and astonishing new identities as their heads, bodies and tails are swapped around.

Devised and brilliantly executed by master-artist Tony Meeuwissen, this is a book that will be treasured by readers of all ages.

- “Clever and eye-catching” – The Sunday Times
- “Beautiful and great fun” – Guardian
- “A delight” LoveReading4Kids
- “Great for tweaking even the most timid imaginations” – School Library Journal
- Ingenious design makes the names and text mix and match as well as the images
- A gift book that will give endless enjoyment to all ages

Author Information

Tony Meeuwissen is one of Britain's leading graphic artists and designers. His inimitable work has embraced magazine illustration, postage stamps, book covers and illustrations, and many other uses. Winner of seven national and international awards, he was named a Royal Designer for Industry by the Royal Society of Arts in 2013. A collection of his work is held by the Victoria & Albert Museum in London. He lives near Stroud in Gloucestershire, England.

A touching story of understanding and friendship, all wrapped up in the delightful aroma of freshly baked bread.

Sales points:

- A fantastical story starring Little White Rabbit and Mr Wol
- Discover the joy of unexpected friendships, bravery and trust
- A humorous and rewarding text
- Yue Zhang was a 2023 finalist in the prestigious Golden Pinwheel Young Illustrator Competition

Description:

As night falls, one little bunny follows her twitchy nose to a mobile bakery, where formidable chef, Mr Wolf is baking bread. Within its charming confines, they form an unexpected friendship and despite their worries, begin to understand and trust each other as they embark on their dream of creating the world's most mouth-watering bread.

An ensemble cast of animal creatures, bring this delightful story to life.

Author Biography:

Yue Zhang is a young and emerging author and illustrator. Yue hails from the coastal city of Shantou in China's Guangdong Province. With an early passion for drawing, he is now expert at crafting enchanting illustrations that seamlessly blend cultural influences with magical fantasies, brimming with intricate and mesmerising details.

A Winter's Morning

Angélique Leone

Illustrated by Grégoire Solotareff

Keynote:

A lonely wolf finds unexpected friendship and warmth in the heart of winter, illustrated by the award-winning and best-selling Gregoire Solotareff.

Sales points:

- Gregoire Solotareff is the bestselling creator of the Loulou picture books which have sold over one million books.
- A Winter's Morning is a tender tale of friendship and the transformative power of love, beautifully capturing the magic of unexpected connections in the midst of a cold, silent winter.
- The story uses the relationship between Sylvester and the teddy bear, Poppy, as a metaphor for fatherhood, highlighting themes of care, emotional attachment, and generational connections.
- A perfect gift for parents, families, and anyone looking for a heartfelt story to warm the heart during the winter season.

Description:

In the heart of a quiet, snow-covered forest, a lone wolf named Sylvester finds solace in the stillness of winter. But his world of solitude is forever changed when he discovers a small, forgotten teddy bear beneath an ancient oak tree. As Sylvester brings the bear, whom he names Poppy, into his home, an unexpected bond forms between the two. Through shared adventures and quiet moments of companionship, they bring warmth and joy to each other's lives.

This enchanting picture book is a must-have for children's bookshelves, perfect for cosying up with on chilly nights.

Author Biography:

Angélique Léone studied fashion design then haute couture embroidery. Granddaughter of Olga Lecaye, daughter of Grégoire Solotareff, Angélique now writes stories for children, thus joining the family tradition. She has been published by Actes Sud, L'école Des Loisirs and Kaleidoscope in France.

Grégoire Solotareff began his career in medicine but published his first children's book in 1985. Since then he has published over 150 books for young people which have been translated throughout the world. Solotareff has also collaborated in adapting his books to film, and is a photographer and sculptor.

Join the SuperQuesters for a magical adventure to Questland to save a capybara in the rainforest!

Best friends Lilli, Leo and Bea are excited about camping in Bea's auntie's garden. They have their magical Questland amulets and are ready for adventure! Suddenly they spot a guinea pig, Popcorn, hiding in the bushes and they can see that she is very sick. They rush her to Auntie Bumble's vet surgery, Pawsome Pets. While waiting for news of Popcorn, the best friends' amulets light up and they are magically whisked away to Questland.

Transformed into the SuperQuesters - Lillicorn, Leo Zoom and Bea Bumble - with superpowers, they find themselves on a raft rushing down a raging river. They are rescued by Jamac, the talking jaguar, who explains that they have been summoned to Questland to find a cure for his friend, Puddle Waddle the capybara who is mysteriously ill.

Can the SuperQuesters combine science and the magic of the rainforest to save their new friend? They need to find the magical plants to make the medicine to cure Puddle Waddle. Will they be able to gather the most important ingredient, magical dew from the Moonwhisper Flower, before midnight?

The journey through the rainforest is filled with dangers and challenges. With the help of Dew Dancer, the sprite, and Bea's new robot, the SuperQuesters must use their STEM skills, teamwork, problem solving and a little magic to solve riddles and puzzles to save their friend.

Love is in the Little Things

By (author) Stella J Jones

Illustrated by Jane Massey

Love is in the little things.

A kiss, a smile, a cup of tea.

Just me and you sitting quietly.

A song, a hug, a helping hand that lifts us up so we can stand.

Join Big and Small as they explore what love TRULY is, and how it is shown in the little things every day - from sharing stories before bedtime, to singing songs to cheer each other up!

This heartwarming chunky board book, featuring charming illustrations from the talented Jane Massey, is the ideal gift for parents or carers wanting to share their love with their little ones. Told by both Big and Small as they share their favourite moments, this story is a wonderfully gentle bedtime read!

Perfect for fans of I Love You to the Moon and Back by Amelia Hepworth and Tim Warnes, Guess How Much I Love You by Sam McBratney and Anita Jeram, and I Love You When You're Angry by Erin Winters and Kaitlin Bucher.

WHO'S BEHIND THE BOOK?

Stella J Jones

Stella J Jones lives in Yorkshire. She loves baked beans and chocolate (but not together) and building ramshackle bookcases for her far-too-big collection of picture books. On sunny days, you can find her practising yoga al fresco out on the Yorkshire Dales and on rainy days, tucked up on the sofa with her two guinea pigs, Pinky and Perky.

Jane Massey

Jane Massey studied graphic design at Kingston University. She worked for several design agencies in London and Hong Kong before concentrating on illustration. Jane lives with her family by the sea in Hove.

The music was magical.
And just a little bit spooky.
Hotpot held on tight to Wolf's paw
as they all tiptoed along.

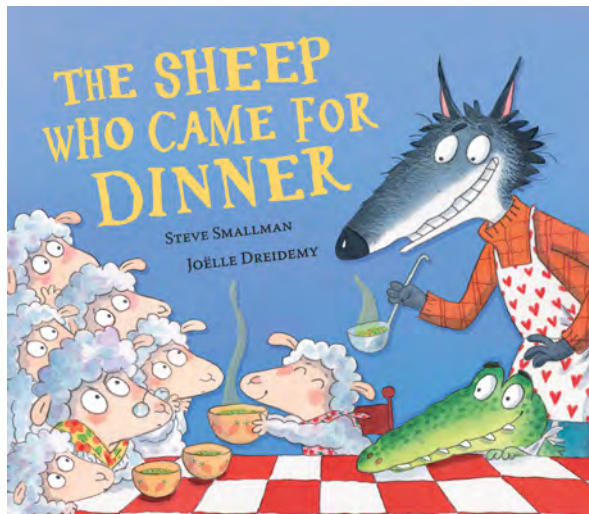

"This is hopeless!" wailed Badger.
"We'll never find it!"
"We will!" said Hotpot. "Look!"

There, in the middle of the moonlit clearing,
stood a magnificent spotty wood-warbler!

"Evenin'," she said.
"Will you please sing for us?" asked Hotpot.
"Sing? Me?" asked the bird. "Are you sure?"
"We're sure!" everybody pleaded.

So, she took a deep breath and . . .

The Sheep Who Came for Dinner

By (author) Steve Smallman

Illustrated by Joëlle Dreidemy

This is a heartwarming story that celebrates the idea that non-traditional families can make the happiest of homes.

When a flock of sheep arrive in the woods, they can't believe Hotpot lives all alone with a wolf. And a crocodile! How can a hungry wolf look after a cute, cuddly lamb? But when Hotpot and the flock of sheep get caught in a dangerous situation, it's Wolf who comes to the rescue, and the sheep soon learn that true family is about much more than appearances.

- The eighth book in the internationally bestselling The Lamb Who Came for Dinner series.
- Written by the inimitable Steve Smallman (Poo in the Zoo, The Eyebrows of Doom, The Monkey with the Bright Blue Bottom) and illustrated with warmth by Joëlle Dreidemy.

Existing fans of The Lamb Who Came for Dinner series, and readers of The Lion Inside by Rachel Bright and Jim Field, Weirdo by Zadie Smith, Nick Laird, and Magenta Fox, and The Duck Who Didn't Like Water by Steve Small, will love this latest addition to the Hotpot world.

In a cottage, deep in the woods, lived an old Wolf, a lamb called Hotpot and Omelette, their crocodile.
They were a rather unusual family, but a very happy one.

One day, as they were tucking into some vegetable soup, they heard ...

"What on earth is that?" wondered Wolf.

Hotpot ran outside and saw a wonderful caravan!
"Hello, little one!" waved an old sheep. Her warm, crinkly smile made Hotpot feel strangely at home.

"Call me Nana," the sheep chuckled. "We're on our holidays!
Now, where are your family?"

"That's my Woof there," replied Hotpot.
Nana gasped. "You live here all alone with a ... WOLF?"

"Oh no!" laughed Hotpot. "There's a crocodile, too!"
