World's Greatest Authors

WHAT ARE CLASSICS ILLUSTRATED?

Exactly that - Classics Illustrated are graphic novels that retell classic works of literature in illustrated, comic-strip form.

Ranging from Homer to Dumas; Oliver Twist to the life story of Abraham Lincoln, Classics Illustrated covers a wide range of tales from all times and perfectly sets the scene of the work in hand for the young reader, instilling in them a joy in reading that will last a lifetime.

The series originally ran from 1941 and included nearly 200 titles in its original run, ending in 1971 after estimated sales of over 1 billion copies worldwide.

- INCLUDES:
- Author biographies
 - Dedicated theme discussions
 - Study questions
 - Timelines of world events

CCS Books' reprinted "Vintage Replica" range looks like the originals, but is specifically tailored to engage and educate young readers with some of the greatest works ever written, while still thrilling older readers who have loving memories of this timeless series.

SCI-FI / HORROR

"Towards the end of the nineteenth century, several newspapers in England carried a small account of the discovery of a mass of flaming gas, chiefly hydrogen, originating on the planet Mars and moving with enormous speed toward the Earth. The news item, however, was so insignificant, that I, as well as the rest of the world ignored what proved to be one of the gravest dangers that ever threatened the human race..."

The story of the great heroine of France, Joan of Arc, also known as "The Maid of Orléans". Born a peasant girl in Domrémy, France in 1412, during the Hundred Years' War, Joan began to hear celestial voices as a teenager. It was these voices which she claimed guided her in battle against the English, until her capture and fateful trial for heresy.
