Author Biography

Pamela Brown (1924-1989) was a British writer, actor and television producer. She was just fourteen when she started writing her first book, and the town of Fenchester in the book is inspired by her home town of Colchester. During the Second World War, she went to live in Wales, so The Swish of the Curtain was not published until 1941, when she was sixteen.

DYSTOPIAN • POLITICAL • MYSTERY

Royal maverick Niko and bodyguard Feldspar have been tasked by their queens to lead a Swarm – an exploration – to find a new world outside of their twisted monarchy. What they find on the other side of the Hive is a paradise, but not all is as it appears to be. When two brutal murders happen on the same night, the royal visitors are the obvious suspects. Niko and Feldspar must fight their feelings for each other as they race to clear their names.

- A heart-stopping sequel to The Hive, which brought about international auctions.
- Featuring a stunningly original dystopian world based on the society of bees and a slow-burn romance.
- For fans of Neal Schusterman, Holly Black and Suzanne Collins.
- With themes of ecology, science and politics.

SQUID SQUAD 2: SHRIMPPLY THE BEST

AOIFE DOOLEY

Ollie the vampire squid, Zing the sea bunny and the rest of the Squid Squad are back for more hilarious, zany and action-packed adventures in this full-colour graphic novel for readers aged 5-8, perfect for fans of Bumble and Snug, Spongebob Squarepants and Bunny vs Monkey.

Key selling points

- High energy, visual, episodic storytelling is perfect for low attention spans.
- Aoife shows off her wonderfully zany, silly humour that will appeal to kids, and her bold, bright, graphic artwork is perfect for this younger area of the market.
- As always, Aoife brings her neurodivergent perspective to the story, highlighting and celebrating unique characters.
- As well as embracing imaginative creations of her own, many of the characters, including Ollie and Zing themselves, are based on real unusual creatures found in the deep sea, which offers an educational moment.

MAGIC GEMS: JOURNEY THROUGH THE WATERFALL

PAYAL DOSHI

Dragon Girls meets Love Puppies in this new chapter book series starring a group of friends who protect animals with magical gemstones!

A little sparkle goes a long way!

Lily the Water Gem helps her family take care of otters who splash around near the lake. When one of the baby otters is injured, Lily rushes to help. It soon becomes clear that the otter needs a special medicine made from flowers that grow beyond a powerful waterfall.

The Gem who goes on the mission to collect the flowers must be brave, strong, and fast - because time is running out. Lily volunteers to make the journey. She'll do anything to save one of her beloved otters!

Key selling points

- A perfect new series for young readers
- Includes stunning illustrations throughout
- Perfect for fans of Dragon Girls and Forever Fairies

About the author: Payal Doshi has a Master's in Creative Writing (Fiction) from The New School, New York. Having lived in the UK and the US, she noticed a lack of Indian protagonists in global children's fiction and one day wrote the opening paragraph to what would become her first children's novel. She was born and raised in Mumbai, India, and currently resides in Minneapolis, Minnesota, with her husband and four-year-old daughter. When she isn't writing or spending time with her family, you can find her nose deep in a book with a cup of coffee or daydreaming of fantasy realms to send her characters off into. She loves the smell of old, yellowed books. Her debut middle grade fantasy novel, Rea and the Blood of the Nectar, is the recipient of the IPPY Gold Award.

HERCULES: HERCULES VS THE MINOTAUR

TOM VAUGHAN

Hercules Braver, modern-day son of Zeus, is about to face his BIGGEST challenge yet... The epic, hilarious, highly illustrated fourth book in the HERCULES series.

Hercules is ready to start a new school year when, to his surprise, his cousin Theseus suddenly comes to stay! Theseus, son of Poseidon, is a young demigod just like Hercules. But right as Herc was (finally) preparing to be a heroically good role model, infuriating Theseus causes TROUBLE at every turn.

Key selling points

- The epic fourth book in the series following the bestselling Waterstones Book of the Month title
- The story features the Minotaur, one of the most recognisable characters in Greek mythology for schoolchildren, along with three-headed dog Cerberus and lots of Greek gods!
- Breaks out of the series mould by introducing a brand-new boy demigod character and a perilous monster twist (while staying as funny as ever)!

About the Author: Tom Vaughan is a journalist, television producer, and children's author. Despite modest success in those three fields, he'd prefer to be remembered as the man who unsuccessfully tried to invent a meal between supper and breakfast called supfast. He lives in Yorkshire with his wife and two small unemployed people, also known as his children.

WILD FOOTPRINTS

JUDY WISE Illustrated by KEVIN HOWDESHELL

Some footprints travel upwards, towards the sky above.

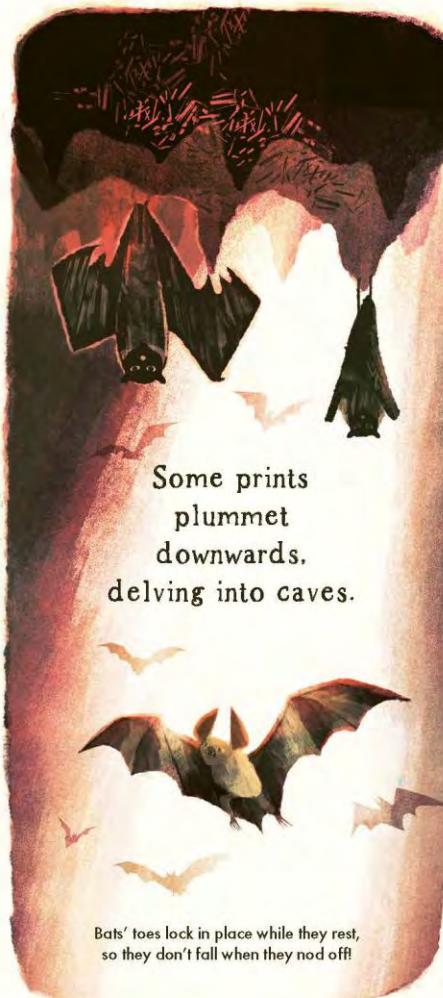

Koalas have two thumbs and three fingers on each hand, giving them super grip!

While some connect in unity – a symbol of true love.

Timber wolves mate for life, walking further than London to Paris ... and back, in search of a partner!

Some prints plummet downwards, delving into caves.

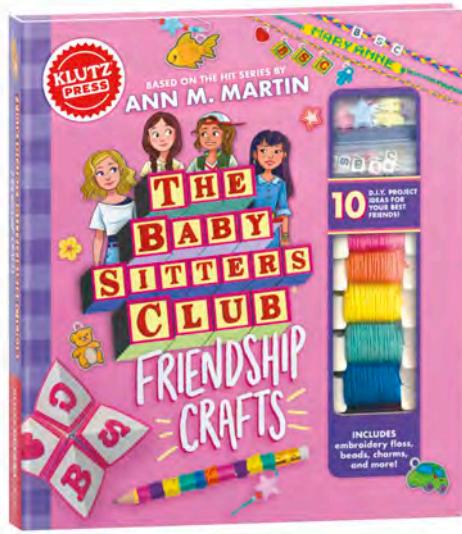

Bats' toes lock in place while they rest, so they don't fall when they nod off!

Others swirl in circles, beneath the whirling waves.

A pufferfish makes seabed patterns that channel fresher water to the centre – perfect for nests.
